Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

DATE: August 15, 2012

RE: Request for Comments on Proposed Rules and Forms Amendments

The Judicial Conference of the United States' Advisory Committees on Appellate, Bankruptcy, Criminal, and Evidence Rules have proposed amendments to their respective rules and forms, and requested that the proposals be circulated to the bench, bar, and public for comment. The proposed amendments, rules committee reports explaining the proposed changes, and other information are attached and also posted on the Judiciary's website at <http://www.uscourts.gov/rulesandpolicies/rules.aspx/>.

Opportunity for Public Comment

All comments on these proposed amendments will be carefully considered by the rules committees, which are composed of experienced trial and appellate lawyers, judges, and scholars. Please provide any comments on the proposed amendments, whether favorable, adverse, or otherwise, as soon as possible but no later than February 15, 2013. All comments concerning the proposed amendments may be submitted electronically to <rules comments@ao.uscourts.gov> or in hard copy to the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure, Administrative Office of the United States Courts, Suite 7-240, Washington, D.C., 20544. All comments are made part of the official record and are available to the public.

Members of the public who wish to present testimony may appear at public hearings on these proposals. The Advisory Committees on the Appellate, Bankruptcy, Criminal, and Evidence Rules will hold hearings on the proposed amendments on the following dates:

- Criminal Rules in Boston, Massachusetts, on January 4, 2013, and in Washington, D.C., on January 28, 2013; and
- Evidence Rules in Boston, Massachusetts, on January 4, 2013, and in Washington, D.C., on January 22, 2013.

If you wish to testify, you must notify the Committee at the above addresses at least 30 days before the hearing.

After the public comment period, the Advisory Committees will decide whether to submit the proposed amendments to the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. At this time, the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure has not approved these proposed amendments, except to authorize their publication for comment. The proposed amendments have not been submitted to or considered by the Judicial Conference or the Supreme Court.

The proposed amendments would become effective on December 1, 2014, if they are approved, with or without revision, by the relevant advisory committee, the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Judicial Conference, and the Supreme Court, and if Congress does not act to defer, modify, or reject them. The revisions to the Official Bankruptcy Forms would become effective on December 1, 2013, if they are approved by the rules committees and the Judicial Conference.

RE: Report of Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules met on April 12, 2012, in Washington, DC. The Committee gave final approval to proposed amendments to Appellate Rules 13, 14, 24, 28, and 28.1 and to Form 4. The Committee approved for publication proposed amendments to Appellate Rule 6.

Report to the Standing Committee Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules

III. Action item for publication (proposed amendments to Rule 6)

As discussed in the report of the Bankruptcy Rules Committee, that Committee is seeking approval to publish for comment proposed amendments to Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules – the rules that govern appeals from bankruptcy court to a district court or bankruptcy appellate panel ("BAP"). In tandem with that project, the Appellate Rules Committee seeks permission to publish for comment proposed amendments to Appellate Rule 6 (concerning appeals to the court of appeals in a bankruptcy case).

The proposed amendments to Appellate Rule 6 (which are set out in the enclosure to this report) would update that Rule's cross-references to the Bankruptcy Part VIII Rules; would amend Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii) to remove an ambiguity dating from the 1998 restyling; would add a new Rule 6(c) to address permissive direct appeals from the bankruptcy court under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2); and would revise Rule 6 to take account of the range of methods available now or in the future for dealing with the record on appeal.

The Appellate Rules do not currently address in explicit terms the topic of permissive direct appeals from a bankruptcy court to a court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2). At the time that Section 158(d)(2) came into being as part of the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 ("BAPCPA"), the Appellate Rules Committee decided that no immediate action was necessary with respect to the Appellate Rules, because BAPCPA put in place interim procedures for administering the new direct appeals mechanism. Some of those interim procedures were subsequently displaced by the 2008 addition of subdivision (f) in Bankruptcy Rule 8001. The Committee now considers it worthwhile to specify in more detail the way in which the Appellate Rules apply to direct appeals under Section 158(d)(2), and the Bankruptcy Rules Committee's Part VIII project provides an opportune context in which to obtain input and guidance on this question.

Proposed Appellate Rule 6(c) would treat the record on direct appeals differently than existing Rule 6(b) treats the record on bankruptcy appeals from a district court or BAP. Rule 6(b) contains a streamlined procedure for redesignating and forwarding the record on appeal, because in the appeals covered by Rule 6(b) the appellate record will already have been compiled for purposes of the appeal to the district court or the BAP. In the context of a direct appeal, the record will generally require compilation from scratch. The closest model for the compilation and transmission of the bankruptcy court record would appear to be the rules chosen by the Part VIII project for appeals from the bankruptcy court to the district court or the BAP. Thus, proposed Rule 6(c) incorporates the relevant Part VIII rules by reference while making some adjustments to account for the particularities of direct appeals to the court of appeals.

Both the Bankruptcy Rules Part VIII project and the project to revise Appellate Rule 6 have highlighted changes in the treatment of the record. The Appellate Rules as they currently exist were drafted on the assumption that the record on appeal would be available only in paper form. Reflecting the fact that the bankruptcy courts are ahead of other federal courts in making the transition to electronic filing, the proposed Part VIII Rules are drafted with a contrary presumption in mind: The default principle under those Rules is that the record will be made available in electronic form. In revising Rule 6(b) and in drafting new Rule 6(c), the Appellate Rules Committee's goal is to adopt language that can accommodate the various ways in which the lower-court record could be made available to the court of appeals – e.g., in paper form; or in electronic files that can be sent to the court of appeals; or by means of electronic links. Adopting such language seems generally advisable in the light of the shift to electronic filing; and such language seems particularly salient in the case of proposed Rule 6(c) because that Rule will incorporate by reference the Part VIII Rules that deal with the record on appeal.

The Committee considered a number of possible ways to allude to the provision of the record on appeal by the lower court to the court of appeals. Those deliberations are described in the draft minutes of the Committee's spring 2012 meeting. The Committee determined that neither "transmit" nor "furnish" nor "provide" captured the range of methods for making the record available; in particular, none of these terms encompassed the provision of a set of electronic links by which to access the documents in the record. After extensive discussions, the Committee decided to refer to the lower-court clerk's "making the record available to" the court of appeals. This language describes the action in question with the requisite clarity while also leaving room for developments in technology and practice. The Committee welcomes the Standing Committee's thoughts on this choice, as well as the reactions of the Bankruptcy Rules Committee and of the Subcommittee, chaired by Judge Gorsuch, that has been formed to consider this and similar questions of terminology relating to electronic filing.

One other linguistic question bears mention. As noted above, the proposed amendments would revise Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii) to remove an ambiguity arising from the 1998 restyling of the Appellate Rules. Specifically, for reasons explained at further length in the Committee Note, the proposed amendment would remove Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii)'s reference to challenging "an altered or amended judgment, order, or decree"; the amended Rule would refer instead to challenging "the alteration or amendment of a judgment, order, or decree." The amended Rule would state:

If a party intends to challenge the order disposing of [a tolling] motion – or the alteration or amendment of a judgment, order, or decree upon the motion – then the party, in compliance with Rules 3(c) and 6(b)(1)(B), must file a notice of appeal or amended notice of appeal. The notice or amended notice must be filed within the time prescribed by Rule 4 – excluding Rules 4(a)(4) and 4(b) – measured from the entry of the order disposing of the motion.

Professor Kimble advised the Committee that, in the second sentence, "It" should replace "The notice or amended notice." The Committee carefully discussed Professor Kimble's advice during both its fall 2011 and spring 2012 meetings, and decided not to adopt this suggestion. Committee members believe that the longer phrase is clearer; that clarity and specificity are particularly key for rules that govern the taking of an appeal; and that this is especially true in the context of bankruptcy appeals given that so many debtors are prose. These concerns over access to court for unrepresented debtors led the Committee to conclude that this question is one of substance rather than style.

Rule 6. Appeal in a Bankruptcy Case From a Final Judgment, Order, or Decree of a District Court or Bankruptcy Appellate Panel

1	(a) Appeal From a Judgment, Order, or Decree of a
2	District Court Exercising Original Jurisdiction in a
3	Bankruptcy Case. An appeal to a court of appeals from a
4	final judgment, order, or decree of a district court exercising
5	jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1334 is taken as any other civil
6	appeal under these rules.
7	(b) Appeal From a Judgment, Order, or Decree of a
8	District Court or Bankruptcy Appellate Panel Exercising
9	Appellate Jurisdiction in a Bankruptcy Case.
10	(1) Applicability of Other Rules. These rules
11	apply to an appeal to a court of appeals under 28 U.S.C.
12	§ 158(d)(1) from a final judgment, order, or decree of a
13	district court or bankruptcy appellate panel exercising
14	appellate jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a) or (b) .
15	But there are 3 exceptions, but with these qualifications:
16	(A) Rules 4(a)(4), 4(b), 9, 10, 11, 12(b) 12(c) ,
17	13-20, 22-23, and 24(b) do not apply;
18	(B) the reference in Rule 3(c) to "Form 1 in
19	the Appendix of Forms" must be read as a
20	reference to Form 5; and

21	(C) when the appeal is from a bankruptcy
22	appellate panel, the term "district court," as used in
23	any applicable rule, means "appellate panel-"; and
24	(D) in Rule 12.1, "district court" includes a
25	bankruptcy court or bankruptcy appellate panel.
26	(2) Additional Rules. In addition to the rules made
27	applicable by Rule 6(b)(1), the following rules apply:
28	(A) Motion for rRehearing .
29	(i) If a timely motion for rehearing
30	under Bankruptcy Rule 8015 8022 is filed,
31	the time to appeal for all parties runs from the
32	entry of the order disposing of the motion. A
33	notice of appeal filed after the district court
34	or bankruptcy appellate panel announces or
35	enters a judgment, order, or decree - but
36	before disposition of the motion for rehearing
37	- becomes effective when the order disposing
38	of the motion for rehearing is entered.
39	(ii) Appellate review of If a party
40	intends to challenge the order disposing of
41	the motion – or the alteration or amendment
42	of a judgment, order, or decree upon the

43	motion – then requires the party, in
44	compliance with Rules 3(c) and 6(b)(1)(B),
45	to amend a previously filed notice of appeal.
46	A party intending to challenge an altered or
47	amended judgment, order, or decree must file
48	a notice of appeal or amended notice of
49	appeal. The notice or amended notice must
50	be filed within the time prescribed by Rule 4
51	– excluding Rules $4(a)(4)$ and $4(b)$ –
52	measured from the entry of the order
53	disposing of the motion.
54	(iii) No additional fee is required to file
55	an amended notice.
56	(B) The r R ecord on a A ppeal.
57	(i) Within 14 days after filing the notice
58	of appeal, the appellant must file with the
59	clerk possessing the record assembled in
60	accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 8006 8009
61	– and serve on the appellee – a statement of
62	the issues to be presented on appeal and a
63	designation of the record to be certified and
64	sent made available to the circuit clerk.

65	(ii) An appellee who believes that other
66	parts of the record are necessary must, within
67	14 days after being served with the
68	appellant's designation, file with the clerk
69	and serve on the appellant a designation of
70	additional parts to be included.
71	(iii) The record on appeal consists of:
72	• the redesignated record as provided
73	above;
74	• the proceedings in the district court or
75	bankruptcy appellate panel; and
76	• a certified copy of the docket entries
76	a certified copy of the docket entries

87	identified to the circuit clerk. Unless directed
88	to do so by a party or the circuit clerk If the
89	clerk makes the record available in paper
90	form, the clerk will not send to the court of
91	appeals documents of unusual bulk or weight,
92	physical exhibits other than documents, or
93	other parts of the record designated for
94	omission by local rule of the court of appeals.
95	unless directed to do so by a party or the
96	circuit clerk. If the exhibits are unusually
97	bulky or heavy exhibits are to be made
98	available in paper form, a party must arrange
99	with the clerks in advance for their
100	transportation and receipt.
101	(ii) All parties must do whatever else is
102	necessary to enable the clerk to assemble the
103	record and forward the record make it
104	available. When the record is made available
105	in paper form, tThe court of appeals may
106	provide by rule or order that a certified copy
107	of the docket entries be sent made
108	available in place of the redesignated record,

109	b. But any party may request at any time
110	during the pendency of the appeal that the
111	redesignated record be sent made available.
112	(D) Filing the r R ecord. Upon receiving the
113	record – or a certified copy of the docket entries
114	sent in place of the redesignated record – the
115	circuit clerk must file it and immediately notify all
116	parties of the filing date When the district clerk or
117	bankruptcy-appellate-panel clerk has made the
118	record available, the circuit clerk must note that
119	fact on the docket. The date noted on the docket
120	serves as the filing date of the record. The circuit

Committee Note

Subdivision (b)(1). Subdivision (b)(1) is updated to reflect the renumbering of 28 U.S.C. § 158(d) as 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(1). Subdivision (b)(1)(A) is updated to reflect the renumbering of Rule 12(b) as Rule 12(c). New subdivision (b)(1)(D) provides that references in Rule 12.1 to the "district court" include – as appropriate – a bankruptcy court or bankruptcy appellate panel.

Subdivision (b)(2). Subdivision (b)(2)(A)(i) is amended to refer to Bankruptcy Rule 8022 (in accordance with the renumbering of Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules).

Subdivision (b)(2)(A)(ii) is amended to address problems that stemmed from the adoption — during the 1998 restyling project of language referring to challenges to "an altered or amended judgment, order, or decree." Current Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii) states that "[a] party intending to challenge an altered or amended judgment, order, or decree must file a notice of appeal or amended notice of appeal" Before the 1998 restyling, the comparable subdivision of Rule 6 instead read "[a] party intending to challenge an alteration or amendment of the judgment, order, or decree shall file an amended notice of appeal" The 1998 restyling made a similar change in Rule 4(a)(4). One court has explained that the 1998 amendment introduced ambiguity into that Rule: "The new formulation could be read to expand the obligation to file an amended notice to circumstances where the ruling on the post-trial motion alters the prior judgment in an insignificant manner or in a manner favorable to the appellant, even though the appeal is not directed against the alteration of the judgment." Sorensen v. City of New York, 413 F.3d 292, 296 n.2 (2d Cir. 2005). Though the Sorensen court was writing of Rule 4(a)(4), a similar concern arises with respect to Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii). Rule 4(a)(4) was amended in 2009 to remove the ambiguity identified by the Sorensen court. The current amendment follows suit by removing Rule 6(b)(2)(A)(ii)'s reference to challenging "an altered or amended judgment, order, or decree," and referring instead to challenging "the alteration or amendment of a judgment, order, or decree."

Subdivision (b)(2)(B)(i) is amended to refer to Rule 8009 (in accordance with the renumbering of Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules).

Due to the shift to electronic filing, in some appeals the record will no longer be transmitted in paper form. Subdivisions (b)(2)(B)(i), (b)(2)(C), and (b)(2)(D) are amended to reflect the fact that the record sometimes will be made available electronically.

Subdivision (b)(2)(D) sets the duties of the circuit clerk when the record has been made available. Because the record may be made available in electronic form, subdivision (b)(2)(D) does not direct the clerk to "file" the record. Rather, it directs the clerk to note on the docket the date when the record was made available and to notify the parties of that date, which shall serve as the date of filing the record for purposes of provisions in these Rules that calculate time from that filing date.

Subdivision (c). New subdivision (c) is added to govern permissive direct appeals from the bankruptcy court to the court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2). For further provisions governing such direct appeals, see Bankruptcy Rule 8006.

Subdivision (c)(1). Subdivision (c)(1) provides for the general applicability of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, with specified exceptions, to appeals covered by subdivision (c) and makes necessary word adjustments.

Subdivision (c)(2). Subdivision (c)(2)(A) provides that the record on appeal is governed by Bankruptcy Rule 8009. Subdivision (c)(2)(B) provides that the record shall be made available as stated in Bankruptcy Rule 8010. Subdivision (c)(2)(C) provides that Bankruptcy Rule 8007 applies to stays pending appeal; in addition,

Appellate Rule 8(b) applies to sureties on bonds provided in connection with stays pending appeal.

Subdivision (c)(2)(D), like subdivision (b)(2)(D), directs the clerk to note on the docket the date when the record was made available and to notify the parties of that date, which shall serve as the date of filing the record for purposes of provisions in these Rules that calculate time from that filing date.

Subdivision (c)(2)(E) is modeled on Rule 12(b), with appropriate adjustments.

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules met on September 26 and 27, 2011, at Northwestern University School of Law in Chicago.

* * * * *

The Committee brings to the Standing Committee one action item from the September meeting. As discussed in Part II of this report, the Committee considered and voted to recommend publishing for comment proposed amendments to Rules 7054 and 7008(b). These amendments are intended to clarify the procedure for seeking an award of attorney's fees in adversary proceedings.

* * * * *

II. Action Item—Rules 7054 and 7008(b)

The Committee unanimously recommends that amendments to Rules 7054 and 7008(a) be published for comment. Rule 7054 would be amended to make applicable in adversary proceedings most of the provisions regarding attorney's fees in Civil Rule 54(d)(2). Rule 7008(b), which requires pleading a claim for attorney's fees in the complaint or other appropriate pleading, would be deleted. The two rules, with the proposed amendments indicated, are set out in Appendix A.

In March 2011 the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel issued an opinion in which it "suggest[ed] that the Judicial Conference's Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules may want to address th[e] apparent 'gap' in Rule 7054." Charlie Y., Inc. v. Carey (In re Carey), 446 B.R. 384, 389 n.3 (2011). The gap to which the court referred is the absence of a provision in Rule 7054 concerning the procedure for obtaining an allowance of attorney's fees in adversary proceedings. Although Rule 7054(a) incorporates Civil Rule 54(a)-(c), it has its own provision – subdivision (b) – governing the recovery of costs by a prevailing party, and it does not have a provision that parallels Rule 54(d)(2), which governs the recovery of attorney's fees.

The reason that Bankruptcy Rule 7054 originally incorporated Civil Rule 54(a)-(c), but not (d), was that Rule 54(d) provided that "costs shall be awarded as of course to the prevailing party unless the court otherwise directs" (emphasis added). The Bankruptcy Rules Committee concluded that costs should not be routinely awarded to the prevailing party against a bankruptcy estate since the impact of the award would be borne by creditors.¹ Rule 7054(b), which was adopted instead of Rule 54(d), provides that "[t]he court may allow costs to the prevailing party except when a statute of the United States or these rules otherwise applies" (emphasis added).

The 1993 amendment to Rule 54(d) substantially expanded the subdivision to expressly address attorney's fees as well as costs. The existing provision was renumbered (d)(1) and was re-titled "Costs Other Than Attorney's Fees." Paragraph (2), titled "Attorney's Fees," was added, and it requires a "claim for attorney's fees and related nontaxable expenses . . . [to] be made by motion unless the substantive law requires those fees to be proved at trial as an element of damages." Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(2)(A). The rule governs the timing ("no later than 14 days after the entry of judgment") and content of the motion and the conduct of the proceedings in response to the motion, incorporating Rule 78, dealing with motion practice. It also authorizes local rules to adopt special procedures for resolving fee issues without extensive evidentiary hearings, and it permits the referral of fee issues to special masters and magistrate judges. The provision is not applicable to fees awarded as sanctions under the rules or under 28 U.S.C. § 1927.

¹ See Laura B. Bartell, Award of Costs in Bankruptcy Courts, 17 J. BANKR. L. & PRAC. 6 (Sept. 2008) (quoting Advisory Committee Note to Bankruptcy Rule 754, the predecessor of Rule 7054).

Rule 7054 was never amended to incorporate any of the provisions of Rule 54(d)(2) or to otherwise address the procedure for claiming attorney's fees. Attorney's fees are addressed instead by Rule 7008(b). That provision, which has no counterpart in Civil Rule 8, provides that "[a] request for an award of attorney's fees shall be pleaded as a claim in a complaint, cross-claim, third-party complaint, answer, or reply as may be appropriate."

Under existing Rules 7054 and 7008(b), there is a lack of uniformity in how bankruptcy courts handle awards of attorney's fees. The Central District of California, for example, has a local bankruptcy rule governing the taxation of costs and the award of attorney's fees. It generally requires filing a motion for attorney's fees within 30 days after the entry of judgment or other final order "[i]f not previously determined at trial or other hearing." Thus by local rule that district has adopted a bankruptcy rule similar to Civil Rule 54(d)(2)(A).² A recent decision of the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, however, discussed the general inapplicability of Rule 54(d)(2) in bankruptcy proceedings, with the possible exception of class actions. In re Partsearch Techs., Inc., 2011 WL 2456227 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 21, 2011), at *13.³ Yet another court concluded that an award of attorney's fees in bankruptcy is generally governed by Rule 7008(b), but held in that case that, because the applicable Virgin Islands law defined attorney's fees as "costs," Rule 7054(b) applied. In re Kool, Mann, Coffee & Co., 2007 WL 1202888 (Bank. D.V.I. 2007). Finally, the Ninth Circuit BAP, in the Carey decision that led to the Committee's consideration of this issue, recognized that Rule 7008(b) requires the pleading of a claim for attorney's fees, but the court said that the rule "does not shed any light on whether such a claim must be proven at trial or left for determination on application or motion following the trial." Because there was no local bankruptcy rule that governed the procedure for pursuing an attorney's fees claim beyond the pleading stage, the court concluded that "no provision of the Rules proscribed the Appellant's request for an award of attorney's fees through the Fee Motion following the trial of the Adversary Proceeding." 446 B.R. at 390.

In order to clarify the procedure for seeking an award of attorney's fees and to promote uniformity, the Committee voted to propose amending Rule 7054 to include much of the substance of Civil Rule 54(d)(2) and to delete Rule 7008(b). By bringing the bankruptcy rules into closer alignment with the civil rules, this amendment would eliminate a potential trap for an attorney, particularly one familiar with the civil rules, who might overlook the Rule 7008(b) requirement to plead a request for attorney's fees as a claim in the complaint, answer, or other pleading. As under the civil rules, the procedure for seeking an award of attorney's fees would be governed exclusively by Rule 7054, unless the governing substantive law requires the fees to be proved at trial as an element of damages.

² See also In re Branford Partners, 2008 WL 8444795, at * 4 (9th Cir. BAP 2008) ("A post trial motion for costs is the 'preferred method' for seeking attorneys' fees and costs.").

³ The court noted that Rule 7023 fully incorporates Civil Rule 23 and that Rule 23(h)(1) provides that a claim for an award of attorney's fees must be made by motion under Rule 54(d)(2). The court cited the Collier treatise as stating that "Rule 54(d)(2) is applicable in bankruptcy, but only with respect to class actions," but noted that another commentator questioned whether "Rule 23(h) can override the procedures set forth in Rule 7008(b)." 2011 WL 2456227 at * 13.

All of the provisions of Rule 54(d)(2), however, cannot be made applicable in bankruptcy proceedings. Subdivision (d)(2)(D) would not be incorporated in its entirety because bankruptcy courts may not refer matters to special masters, see Bankruptcy Rule 9031, or magistrate judges. See 28 U.S.C. § 636. The reference to Rule 78 in Civil Rule 54(d)(2)(C) would also not be incorporated because that rule is not applicable in bankruptcy proceedings.

RE: Report of the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules met on March 29 and 30, 2012, in Phoenix, Arizona.

* * * * *

The Advisory Committee also took action at the spring meeting on proposed rule and form amendments that resulted from two long-term Committee projects: (1) revision of the bankruptcy appellate rules (Part VIII of the Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) and (2) revision of all of the official bankruptcy forms (the Forms Modernization Project). The Committee requests publication for public comment of revised Part VIII and several modernized forms for use in individual-debtor bankruptcy cases.

Other matters considered by the Advisory Committee included suggestions for rule or form amendments that were submitted by members of the bench and bar, including rule amendments proposed in response to the Supreme Court's decision in Stern v. Marshall, 131 S.

PETER G. McCABE SECRETARY

Ct. 2594 (2011). The Committee voted to recommend several rule and form amendments in response to these suggestions.

Part II of this report discusses the action items, which are grouped into three categories:

(a) matters published in August 2011 for which the Advisory Committee seeks approval for transmission to the Judicial Conference—amendments to Rules 1007(b), 5009(b), 9006, 9013, and 9014, and Official Form 7;

(b) matters for which the Advisory Committee seeks approval for transmission to the Judicial Conference without publication—technical or conforming amendments to Rule 4004(c) and Official Forms 9A - 9I, 10, and 21; and

(c) matters for which the Advisory Committee seeks approval for publication in August 2012—amendments to Rules 1014, 7004, 7008, 7012, 7016, 8001-8028, 9023, 9024, 9027, and 9033, and Official Forms 3A, 3B, 6I, 6J, 22A-1, 22A-2, 22B, 22C-1, and 22C-2.

* * * * *

B. Items for Publication in August 2012

The Advisory Committee recommends that the proposed amendments that are summarized below be published for public comment. The texts of the amended rules and official forms are set out in Appendix B.

Action Item 7. Rule 1014(b) would be amended to clarify the proper course of action when bankruptcy petitions involving the same or related debtors are filed in different districts. The current rule provides that, upon a motion, the court in which the first-filed petition is pending may determine—in the interest of justice or for the convenience of the parties—the district or districts in which the cases will proceed. Courts in the other districts must stay proceedings in later-filed cases until the first court makes its determination, unless that court orders otherwise. By default, the later cases are therefore stayed while the venue question is pending before the first court.

The Advisory Committee voted to seek publication of an amendment to Rule 1014(b) that alters this default requirement. The amendment provides that proceedings in subsequently filed cases are stayed only upon order of the court in which the first-filed petition is pending. This change is intended to prevent disruption of the other cases unless there is a judicial determination that a stay of a related case is needed while the first court makes its venue determination. The amendment will also clarify who should receive notice of the hearing on the venue motion by incorporating by reference the entities entitled to notice under Rule 2002(a). In addition, stylistic changes have been made to the rule.

Action Item 8. Rule 7004(e) would be amended to change the time in which a summons remains valid after it is issued. The amendment reduces that period from fourteen days to seven days. This change is intended to ensure that a defendant has sufficient time to respond to a complaint in bankruptcy litigation. The Civil Rules and Bankruptcy Rules use different methods to calculate a defendant's time to respond to a complaint. Under the Civil Rules, the defendant's time to respond begins when the summons and complaint are served. The Bankruptcy Rules, however, calculate the defendant's response time from the date the summons is issued. Although Rule 7012(a) of the Bankruptcy Rules gives a defendant (other than a United States officer or agency) thirty days to answer a complaint, a lengthy delay between issuance and service of the summons may unduly shorten the defendant's time to respond in a bankruptcy proceeding.

Concluding that a seven-day window of time is sufficient for service of the summons, the Advisory Committee voted unanimously to seek publication of an amendment to shorten the period of time in which a summons remains valid. The amendment is intended to encourage prompt service after issuance of a summons.

Action Item 9. Rules 7008, 7012, 7016, 9027, and 9033 would be amended to respond to the Supreme Court's recent decision in Stern v. Marshall, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011). In Stern, the Court held that a non-Article III bankruptcy judge could not enter final judgment on a debtor's common law counterclaim brought against a creditor of the bankruptcy estate. Although the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b), deemed the counterclaim a "core" proceeding that a bankruptcy judge could hear and determine, the Court found Congress's assignment of final adjudicatory authority to the bankruptcy judge in the proceeding to be unconstitutional.

The Bankruptcy Rules follow the Judicial Code's division between core and non-core proceedings. The current rules contemplate that a bankruptcy judge's adjudicatory authority is more limited in non-core proceedings than in core proceedings. For example, parties are required to state whether they do or do not consent to final adjudication by the bankruptcy judge in non-core proceedings. There is no comparable requirement for core proceedings. Stern has introduced the possibility, however, that a proceeding defined as core under the Judicial Code may nevertheless lie beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally. Accordingly, a proceeding could be "core" as a statutory matter but "non-core" as a constitutional matter.

The Advisory Committee voted unanimously to seek publication of amendments to the Bankruptcy Rules that address this concern. The proposed amendments will alter the Bankruptcy Rules in three respects. First, the terms core and non-core will be removed from Rules 7008, 7012, 9027, and 9033 to avoid possible confusion in light of Stern. Second, parties in all bankruptcy proceedings (including removed actions) will be required to state whether they do or do not consent to entry of final orders or judgment by the bankruptcy judge. Third, Rule 7016, which governs pretrial procedures, will be amended to direct bankruptcy courts to decide the proper treatment of proceedings.

These amendments are not intended to take a position on the question whether party consent is sufficient to permit a bankruptcy judge to enter final judgment in a proceeding that would otherwise lie beyond the judge's adjudicatory authority. Instead, the proposed changes to the Bankruptcy Rules are designed to frame the question of adjudicatory authority and allow the bankruptcy judge to determine the appropriate course of action. The court must decide whether to hear and finally adjudicate the proceeding, whether to hear it and issue proposed findings and conclusions, or whether to take some other action.

Action Item 10. Rules 8001-8028 (Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules) are the proposed revision of the bankruptcy appellate rules. They result from a multi-year project to bring the bankruptcy appellate rules into closer alignment with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure; to incorporate a presumption favoring the electronic transmission, filing, and service of court documents; and to adopt a clearer style. At the outset of the project, the Committee hosted two mini-conferences on the subject of the bankruptcy appellate rules. Judges, lawyers, court personnel, and academics who had substantial experience with bankruptcy appeals attended. Subsequent drafting, review, and refinement of the proposed rules received the benefit of input from the Appellate Rules Committee and its reporter, Professor Struve. The Committee also incorporated style suggestions of the Standing Committee's style consultant, Professor Kimble.

The Advisory Committee presented the first half of the Part VIII revision (Rule 8001-8012) to the Standing Committee at its January 2012 meeting for preliminary review. The Committee later made revisions to the draft in response to the Standing Committee's comments.

The Advisory Committee unanimously approved the entire draft of revised Part VIII at its spring meeting and approved some additional revisions by a later email vote. It now requests approval of the publication of revised Part VIII for public comment in August. The text of the proposed rules and their committee notes are set out in Appendix B.2.

As the Committee explained in January, the revision of Part VIII is comprehensive. Existing rules have been reorganized and renumbered, some rules have been combined, and provisions of other rules have been moved to new locations. Much of the language of the existing rules has been restyled. Because of the comprehensive nature of the proposed revision, it is not possible to present the amendments in a redlined version that points out changes to the existing rules. Nor can the proposed revision be presented in a comparative format like the one used for the restyled Evidence Rules.

This part of the report instead discusses substantive changes that were made to the first half of the Part VIII rules after the January meeting, and then, following the same approach as in the Committee's last report, it addresses individually the rules not previously presented to the Standing Committee (Rules 8013-8028). For each rule, the report notes significant changes from the existing Bankruptcy Rules and decisions to depart from the Appellate Rules.

Rule 8001 (Scope of the Part VIII Rules; Definition of "BAP"; Method of Transmission). In response to comments at the Standing Committee meeting, the Advisory Committee revised this rule to eliminate the definitions of "appellate court" and "transmit." Prior drafts of Part VIII used the term "appellate court" to mean only a district court or BAP. Some members of the Standing Committee pointed out that this narrow definition of "appellate court," which excludes courts of appeals, would be confusing to a reader who did not first consult Rule 8001. The proposed rules now refer to all courts by name: bankruptcy court, district court, BAP, and court of appeals. Because the term "appellate court" is no longer used, its definition in Rule 8001 was removed. Due to the repeated references to "district court or BAP," the acronym for bankruptcy appellate panel, well known by bankruptcy judges and lawyers, was retained, and its definition remains in this rule.

The Committee changed what had been a definition of "transmit" in this rule to a provision that directly addresses the method of transmitting documents. This change responds to the concern raised at the Standing Committee meeting about treating only in a definition the important presumption favoring filing, serving, and sending documents by electronic means. The title of this rule has also been revised to highlight the fact that it addresses the method of transmission. The presumption in favor of electronic transmission now includes an exception for pro se individuals.

Rule 8007 (Stay Pending Appeal; Bonds; Suspension of Proceedings). The Committee corrected the omission of a reference to the court of appeals in subdivision (c).

Rule 8010 (Completion and Transmission of the Record). The Committee made several changes to the draft of this rule after consulting with clerks of bankruptcy courts, the clerk of a BAP, and representatives of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. These sources advised the Committee that court reporters should be required to file documents only in a bankruptcy court and that all duties associated with preparing and filing transcripts should be carried out by reporters and transcription services, not the clerk's office.

The proposed rule now clarifies that in courts that record proceedings without a reporter present in the courtroom, the term "reporter" includes the person or service designated by the court to transcribe the recording. Unlike FRAP 11, proposed Rule 8010 does not require the reporter to send anything to an appellate court. And in a change from current bankruptcy practice, the clerk of the appellate court will no longer docket the appeal when the complete record is received. Docketing will occur upon receipt of the notice of appeal (proposed Rules 8003(d) and 8004(c)). The appellate-court clerk will still provide notice to the parties of the date on which the transmission of the record was received, because under proposed Rule 8018(a) that date generally commences the briefing schedule.

Rule 8013 (Motions; Intervention). In a change from current bankruptcy practice, the proposed rule does not permit briefs to be filed in support of or in response to motions. Instead, like the practice under FRAP 27, legal arguments must be included in the motion or response.

Proposed subdivision (g) permits motions for intervention in a bankruptcy appeal pending in a district court or BAP. The current Part VIII rules do not address intervention, and the appellate rules provide for intervention only with respect to the review of agency decisions. Someone seeking to intervene in a bankruptcy appeal must explain whether intervention was sought in the bankruptcy court and why intervention is being sought at the appellate stage.

Rule 8014 (Briefs). Proposed subdivision (a)(6) regarding the statement of the case adopts the language of the proposed amendment of FRAP 28(a)(6) for which the Appellate Rules Committee is seeking final approval at this meeting. In a change from existing bankruptcy practice, proposed subdivision (a)(7) would require appellants' and appellees' briefs to contain a summary of the argument. This requirement is consistent with current FRAP 28(a)(8).

The proposed rule departs from the requirements of FRAP 28 by not including provisions regarding references to parties and references to the record. The Committee concluded that this level of detail in the bankruptcy appellate rules is unnecessary.

Subdivision (f) adopts the provision of FRAP 28(j) regarding the submission of supplemental authorities. Unlike the FRAP provision, the proposed rule imposes a definite time limit (seven days) for any response, unless the court orders otherwise.

Rule 8015 (Form and Length of Briefs; Form of Appendices and Other Papers). The proposed rule is modeled on FRAP 32. The title was changed to call attention to the fact that this rule governs the length of briefs. Unlike FRAP 32(a)(2), subdivision (a)(2) of the proposed rule does not prescribe colors for brief covers.

Subdivision (a)(7) decreases the length of principal and reply briefs currently permitted by Rule 8010. This change imposes on briefs filed in a district court or BAP the same page limits that apply to briefs filed in a court of appeals.

Rule 8016 (Cross-Appeals). This provision is new to Part VIII. It is modeled on FRAP 28.1.

Rule 8017 (Brief of an Amicus Curiae). The current Part VIII rules do not provide for amicus briefs. The proposed rule is modeled on FRAP 29. Unlike FRAP 29(a), subdivision (a) of this rule permits the court to request amicus participation.

Rule 8018 (Serving and Filing Briefs; Appendices). The proposed rule continues the existing bankruptcy practice of allowing the appellee to file a separate appendix. It differs in this respect from FRAP 30, which requires the filing of a single appendix by all parties.

The time periods for the appellant and appellee to file their initial briefs are lengthened from 14 to 30 days. For the appellant, that period will still be shorter than the 40-day period prescribed by FRAP 31.

Rule 8019 (Oral Argument). Subdivision (a) alters existing Rule 8012 by (1) authorizing the court to require the parties to submit a statement about the need for oral argument and (2) permitting statements to explain why oral argument is not needed, rather than only why it should be allowed. The proposed rule tracks FRAP 34(a)(1).

Subdivision (f) differs from FRAP 34(e) by giving the court discretion, when the appellee fails to appear for oral argument, either to hear the appellant's argument or postpone argument.

Rule 8020 (Frivolous Appeal and Other Misconduct). Subdivision (a) of the proposed rule is derived from existing Rule 8020, which in turn is modeled on FRAP 38. Subdivision (b) is derived from FRAP 46(c). It expands the FRAP provision to apply to misconduct by parties as well as by attorneys.

Rule 8021 (Costs). FRAP 39 requires both the court of appeals and the district court to be involved in the taxing of costs. The court of appeals fixes maximum rates for producing copies of documents, and the clerk of the court of appeals prepares and certifies an itemized statement of costs for insertion in the mandate. Additional costs on appeal are taxable in the district court. The proposed rule, by contrast, is intended to continue the practice under current Rule 8014 of giving the bankruptcy clerk the entire responsibility for taxing the costs of appeal.

Subdivision (b) adds a provision regarding the taxing of costs against the United States. This provision, which is not included in current Rule 8014, is derived from FRAP 39(b).

Rule 8022 (Motion for Rehearing). Subdivision (a)(1) retains the requirement of current Rule 8015 that in all cases parties must file a motion for rehearing within 14 days after the judgment is entered. It differs from FRAP 40(a)(1), which allows 45 days for filing the motion in a civil case if the United States is a party.

The provision in existing Rule 8015 that specifies when the time for appeal to the court of appeals begins to run is not retained because the matter is addressed by FRAP 6(b)(2).

Rule 8023 (Voluntary Dismissal). The provision of current Rule 8001(c)(1) for dismissal by the bankruptcy court prior to the docketing of the appeal has been omitted. Under the proposed rules, appeals would be docketed shortly after the notice of appeal is filed—a period likely to be especially short if the notice of appeal is transmitted electronically. The Committee therefore thought it unlikely that a voluntary dismissal of the appeal would be sought after the appellant filed the notice of appeal but before the appeal had been docketed. It noted, however, that FRAP 42 has a provision for dismissal by the district court prior to docketing, even though docketing under FRAP 12 also occurs upon receipt by the circuit clerk of the notice of appeal (and docket entries).

FRAP 42(b) provides that the circuit clerk "may" dismiss an appeal if the parties (1) file a signed dismissal agreement specifying how costs are to be paid and (2) pay any fees that are due. The proposed rule requires the clerk of the district court or BAP to dismiss under those circumstances. That requirement is consistent with current Rule 8001(c)(2).

Rule 8024 (Clerk's Duties on Disposition of the Appeal). The only change from existing Rule 8016, other than stylistic ones, is the recognition that in some cases no original documents may have been transmitted to the appellate court.

Rule 8025 (Stay of District Court or BAP Judgment). The proposed rule is derived from current Rule 8017. Only subdivision (c) is new. It provides for the stay of a bankruptcy court's order, judgment, or decree that is affirmed on appeal for the duration of any stay of the appellate judgment.

Rule 8026 (Rules by Circuit Councils and District Courts; Procedure When There Is No Controlling Law). The only changes from current Rule 8018 are stylistic.

Rule 8027 (Mediation). This rule is new and has no counterpart in the Appellate Rules. It provides that if a district court or BAP has a mediation procedure that is applicable to bankruptcy appeals, the clerk must advise the parties—promptly after the docketing of the appeal—that the procedure applies, what its requirements are, and how the procedure affects the time for filing briefs in the appeal.

Rule 8028 (Suspension of Rules in Part VIII). The proposed rule provides a more expansive list of rules that may not be suspended than either current Rule 8019 or FRAP 2.

Deletion of Current Rule 8013. The proposed Part VIII rules do not include a rule similar to current Rule 8013 (Disposition of Appeal; Weight Accorded Bankruptcy Judge's Findings of Fact). The Committee concluded that no rule is needed to specify the actions that a district court or BAP may take (affirm, modify, reverse, or remand with instructions) in ruling on bankruptcy appeals. It further concluded that the remainder of the rule—prescribing the weight to be accorded the bankruptcy court's findings of fact—duplicates Rule 7052, which applies in adversary proceedings and is made applicable to contested matters by Rule 9014. The Appellate Rules do not contain a similar rule. The Committee's decision not to include in revised Part VIII a rule similar to current Rule 8013 is not intended to change existing law. It merely reflects a determination that the rule is unnecessary.

Action Item 11. Rules 9023 and 9024 would be amended to refer to the procedure in proposed new Rule 8008 governing indicative rulings. Unlike the Civil and Appellate Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules would include a single rule prescribing the procedure for indicative rulings in both the bankruptcy and appellate courts. Proposed Rule 8008 would govern the issuance of indicative rulings by bankruptcy judges and the corresponding procedures applicable in district courts and bankruptcy appellate panels. In order to remind litigants who file postjudgment motions of the possibility of seeking an indicative ruling from a bankruptcy court that lacks jurisdiction to grant relief due to the pendency of an appeal, the Committee voted at its fall 2008 meeting to amend Rules 9023 and 9024 to add a cross-reference to Rule 8008. The Committee delayed seeking publication of these proposed amendments until the completion of the Part VIII revision project.

Action Items 12-14. Initial revised forms for individual debtors.

The nine forms proposed for publication in these action items are the initial products of the Forms Modernization Project or FMP, a multi-year endeavor of the Advisory Committee, working in conjunction with the Federal Judicial Center and the Administrative Office. The dual goals of the FMP are to improve the official bankruptcy forms and to improve the interface between the forms and available technology. The judiciary is in the process of developing "the next generation" of CM/ECF (NextGen), and the modernized forms are being designed to use enhanced technology that will become available through NextGen. From a forms perspective, the major change in NextGen will be the ability to store all information on forms as data so that authorized users can produce customized reports containing the information they want from the forms, displayed in whatever format they choose.

The FMP made a preliminary decision that the debtor forms for individuals and entities other than individuals should be separated. There is a greater need for the forms submitted by individuals to be less technical, because individuals are generally less sophisticated than other entities and because individuals may not have the assistance of counsel. Accordingly, the forms for individual debtors are designed to use language more common in ordinary conversation, to employ more intuitive layouts, and to include both clearer instructions, examples within the forms, and more extensive separate instruction sheets.

This approach in form drafting was followed in the new forms adopted in connection with proofs of claim for certain mortgages in chapter 13 cases—Official Forms 10 (Attachment A), 10 (Supplement 1), and 10 (Supplement 2)—that went into effect on December 1, 2011. The format of these new forms has generally been well accepted.

The nine forms now being submitted for publication are among those that an individual debtor would file at the outset of a case.

Before adoption by the Advisory Committee, drafts of all of the individual debtor forms were circulated to organizations representing a range of users and to other reviewers. A concern expressed by some of the user groups was that the new format resulted in forms of greater length, creating additional difficulty in locating the information needed by the users. This problem would be addressed by allowing extraction of data from the forms, which could be reported in formats tailored to the users' needs, but the availability of such access depends in part on the timing of the development of NextGen, which is not certain.

Accordingly, the Advisory Committee has suggested an incremental approach. The nine forms now being proposed for publication—the fee waiver and installment fee forms, the income and expense forms, and the means test forms—reflect the FMP approach to form-drafting without imposing major changes in utility. These particular forms make no change in the substantive content and simply replace existing forms. They are not significantly longer than the forms they replace, they all involve the debtors' income and expenses, and they are employed by a range of users: the courts, U.S. Trustees, and case trustees, for varied purposes. Their publication and, if adopted, their use, will provide a useful gauge of the effectiveness of the FMP approach.

The text of the nine new forms is set out in Appendix B.3 to this report. The separate instructions for the forms are also included, even though the Advisory Committee does not anticipate requesting that the instructions be approved as Official Forms, and debtors are instructed not to file the instructions with the forms. The inclusion of the instructions with the published forms is to illustrate the manner in which the new forms will be presented to debtors. Setting out detailed instructions on a separate document will reduce the need for lengthy instructions in the forms themselves.

Action Item 12. Official Forms 3A and 3B

These forms both deal with payment of the filing fee for an individual's bankruptcy case, and replace current Official Forms 3A and 3B. Form 3A is the application for paying the filing fee installments; Form 3B is the application for waiver of the filing fee in a chapter 7 case. Because these forms are most frequently completed by unrepresented debtors, the Advisory Committee concluded that the additional clarity of the FMP approach may be of particular value here. The only changes in Form 3A are stylistic, consistent with the overall approach of the project.

Official Form 3B also includes three technical changes. First, Line 1 of the form asks the size of the debtor's family. Because the debtor's dependents are now proposed to be listed in revised Official Form 6J, rather than in Official Form 6I, as done presently, the reference to the number of dependents changed from Schedule I to Schedule J. Second, consistent with the Judicial Conference Interim Procedures For Waiver of Chapter 7 Fees, proposed Official Form 3B specifies that non-cash governmental assistance (such as food stamps or housing subsidies) should not be included in stating the debtor's income level for purposes of determining eligibility for a fee waiver, although it continues to be reported for purposes of determining the debtor's ability to pay the filing fee. Third, the declaration and signature section for a non-attorney bankruptcy petition preparer (BPP) has been removed as unnecessary. The same declaration, required under 11 U.S.C. § 110, is contained in Official Form 19. That form must be completed and signed by the BPP, and filed with each document for filing prepared by a BPP.

Action Item 13. Official Forms 6I and 6J

Official Forms 6I and 6J—usually referred to as Schedules I and J—set out the income and expenses of an individual debtor. In addition to the stylistic changes made as part of the Forms Modernization Project, the revised versions of the forms contain several changes intended to provide more accurate and useful information.

The revised forms address the situation of a debtor who lives with and pools assets with other people who are not related by blood or marriage to debtor. Schedule I now includes as income any contributions made by someone else to the expenses listed on Schedule J, and the debtor is instructed to include contributions from an unmarried partner, members of the debtor's household, dependents, roommates, and other friends or relatives.

Revised Schedule J now requests separate information on dependents who live with the debtor, dependents who live separately, and other members of the household.

In chapter 13 cases, revised Schedule J asks for expenses at two different points in time—the date the debtor files bankruptcy (Column A) and the date a proposed 13 plan is confirmed (Column B). This allows Schedule J to state what the debtor's expenses will be as a result of the confirmed plan, thus facilitating a determination of the plan's feasibility.

A new line 23 is added to Schedule J, setting out a calculation of the debtor's monthly net income.

Action Item 14. Official Forms 22A-1, 22A-2, 22B, 22C-1, 22C-2

These forms are used in determining a debtor's current monthly income under 11 U.S.C. § 110(10A), and—in chapter 7 and 13 cases—in determining income remaining after deduction of expenses specified in statutes governing those chapters. The forms for chapter 7 and 13 cases are generally referred to as the "means test" forms. In Official Form 22B, the statement of current monthly income in chapter 11 cases filed by individuals, the only changes are stylistic, conforming to the overall approach of the Forms Modernization Project. For chapters 7 and 13, however, the means test forms have been revised in several additional ways.

First, and most significantly, the means test forms have been divided into two separate forms: one for income (Official Form 22A-1 in chapter 7, Official Form 22C-1 in chapter 13), and the other for expenses (Official Form 22A-2 in chapter 7, Official Form 22C-2 in chapter 13). Because expense information is only required of debtors whose currently monthly income exceeds the applicable state median income, most debtors will not have to complete the expense forms, thereby reducing the volume of the filed forms.

Second, in both the chapter 7 and chapter 13 forms, the deduction for cell phone and internet expenses is modified to reflect more accurately the IRS allowances incorporated by the Bankruptcy Code. Under the applicable IRS "other necessary expense" standard, cell phone and other optional telecommunication services expenses are deductible not only if necessary for the health and welfare of the debtor and the debtor's dependents, as stated in the current forms, but also if necessary for the production of income if not reimbursed by the debtor's employer or deducted by the debtor in calculating net self-employment income. Revised Official Form 22A-2 (in line 23) and Official Form 22C-2 (in line 19) make this correction. On the other hand, unlike their counterparts in the current forms, these lines do not permit deduction of basic home internet expenses, because under IRS guidelines adopted in 2011, these expenses are included in the Local Standards for housing and utilities.

Third, line 60 of current Official Form 22C has not been repeated in Official Form 22C-2. Line 60 allows debtors to list, but not deduct from income, "Other Necessary Expense" items that are not included within the categories specified by the Internal Revenue Service. Because debtors are separately allowed to list—and deduct—any expenses arising from special circumstances, former Line 60 was rarely used.

Finally, Form 22C-2 also reflects the Supreme Court's decision in Hamilton v. Lanning, 130 S. Ct. 2464 (2010). Adopting a forward-looking approach, the Court stated in Lanning that the calculation of a chapter 13 debtor's projected disposable income under 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b) requires consideration of changes to income or expenses that, at the time of plan confirmation, have occurred or are virtually certain to occur. Such changes could result in either an increased or decreased projected disposable income. Because only debtors whose annualized current monthly income exceeds the applicable median family income have their projected disposable income determined by the information provided on Official Form 22C-2, only these debtors are required to provide the information about changes to income and expenses on Official Form 22C-2. Part 3 of Official Form 22C-2 provides for the reporting of those changes.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE*

Rule 1014. Dismissal and Change of Venue

1	* * * * *
2	(b) PROCEDURE WHEN PETITIONS INVOLVING
3	THE SAME OR RELATED DEBTORS ARE FILED IN
4	DIFFERENT COURTS. If petitions commencing cases under the
5	Code or seeking recognition under chapter 15 are filed in different
6	districts by, regarding, or against (1) the same debtor, (2) a
7	partnership and one or more of its general partners, (3) two or
8	more general partners, or (4) a debtor and an affiliate, on motion
9	filed the court in the district in which the first-filed petition filed
10	first is pending and after hearing on notice to the petitioners, the
11	United States trustee, and other entities as directed by the court,
12	the court may determine, in the interest of justice or for the
13	convenience of the parties, the district or districts in which the case
14	or any of the cases should proceed. The court may so determine
15	on motion and after a hearing, with notice to the following entities
16	in these cases: the United States trustee, entities entitled to notice
17	under Rule 2002(a), and other entities as the court directs. Except
18	as otherwise ordered by t- The court in the district in which the
19	petition filed first is pending, may order the parties to the later-

^{*} New material is underlined; matter to be omitted is lined through.

- 20 filed cases not to proceed further the proceedings on the other
- 21 petitions shall be stayed by the courts in which they have been
- 22 filed until it makes the determination is made.

Subdivision (b) provides a practical solution for resolving venue issues when related cases are filed in different districts. It designates the court in which the first-filed petition is pending as the decision maker if a party seeks a determination of where the related cases should proceed. Subdivision (b) is amended to clarify when proceedings in the subsequently filed cases are stayed. It requires an order of the court in which the firstfiled petition is pending to stay proceedings in the related cases. Requiring a court order to trigger the stay will prevent the disruption of other cases unless there is a judicial determination that this subdivision of the rule applies and that a stay of related cases is needed while the court makes its venue determination.

Notice of the hearing must be given to all debtors, trustees, creditors, indenture trustees, and United States trustees in the affected cases, as well as any other entity that the court directs. Because the clerk of the court that makes the determination often may lack access to the names and addresses of entities in other cases, a court may order the moving party to provide notice.

The other changes to subdivision (b) are stylistic.

Rule 7004. Process; Service of Summons, Complaint

1	* * * * *
2	(e) SUMMONS: TIME LIMIT FOR SERVICE WITHIN
3	THE UNITED STATES. Service made under Rule 4(e), (g),
4	(h)(1), (i), or (j)(2) F.R. Civ. P. shall be by delivery of the
5	summons and complaint within 14 7 days after the summons is
6	issued. If service is by any authorized form of mail, the summons
7	and complaint shall be deposited in the mail within $\frac{14}{2}$ days after
8	the summons is issued. If a summons is not timely delivered or
9	mailed, another summons shall be issued and served. This
10	subdivision does not apply to service in a foreign country.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Subdivision (e) is amended to alter the period of time during which service of the summons and complaint must be made. The amendment reduces that period from fourteen days to seven days after issuance of the summons. Because Rule 7012 provides that the defendant's time to answer the complaint is calculated from the date the summons is issued, a lengthy delay between issuance and service of the summons may unduly shorten the defendant's time to respond. The amendment is therefore intended to encourage prompt service after issuance of a summons.

Rule 7008. General Rules of Pleading

1	(a) APPLICABILITY OF RULE 8 F.R.CIV.P. Rule 8
2	F.R.Civ.P. applies in adversary proceedings. The allegation of
3	jurisdiction required by Rule 8(a) shall also contain a reference to
4	the name, number, and chapter of the case under the Code to which
5	the adversary proceeding relates and to the district and division
6	where the case under the Code is pending. In an adversary
7	proceeding before a bankruptcy judge court, the complaint,
8	counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party complaint shall contain a
9	statement that the proceeding is core or noncore and, if non-core
10	that the pleader does or does not consent to entry of final orders or
11	judgment by the bankruptcy judge court.
12	(b) ATTORNEY'S FEES. A request for an award of
13	attorney's fees shall be pleaded as a claim in a complaint, cross-
14	claim, third-party complaint, answer, or reply as may be
15	appropriate.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Former subdivision (a) is amended to remove the requirement that the pleader state whether the proceeding is core or non-core and to require in all proceedings that the pleader state whether the party does or does not consent to the entry of final orders or judgment by the bankruptcy court. Some proceedings that satisfy the statutory definition of core proceedings, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), may remain beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally. The amended rule calls for the pleader to make a statement regarding consent, whether or not a proceeding is termed non-core. Rule 7012(b) has been amended to require a similar statement in a responsive pleading. The bankruptcy judge will then determine the appropriate course of proceedings under Rule 7016.

The rule is also amended to delete subdivision (b), which required a request for attorney's fees always to be pleaded as a claim in an allowed pleading. That requirement, which differed from the practice under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, had the potential to serve as a trap for the unwary.

The procedures for seeking an award of attorney's fees are now set out in Rule 7054(b)(2), which makes applicable most of the provisions of Rule 54(d)(2) F.R. Civ. P. As specified by Rule 54(d)(2)(A) and (B) F.R. Civ. P., a claim for attorney's fees must be made by a motion filed no later than 14 days after entry of the judgment unless the governing substantive law requires those fees to be proved at trial as an element of damages. When fees are an element of damages, such as when the terms of a contract provide for the recovery of fees incurred prior to the instant adversary proceeding, the general pleading requirements of this rule still apply.

Rule 7012. Defenses and Objections—When and How Presented— By Pleading or Motion—Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

1	* * * *
2	(b) APPLICABILITY OF RULE 12(b)-(I) F.R. CIV. P.
3	Rule 12(b)-(i) F.R. Civ. P. applies in adversary proceedings. A
4	responsive pleading shall admit or deny an allegation that the
5	proceeding is core or non-core. If the response is that the
6	proceeding is non-core it shall include a statement that the party
7	does or does not consent to entry of final orders or judgment by the
8	bankruptcy judge court. In non-core proceedings, final orders and
9	judgments shall not be entered on the bankruptcy judge's order
10	except with the express consent of the parties.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Subdivision (b) is amended to remove the requirement that the pleader state whether the proceeding is core or non-core and to require in all proceedings that the pleader state whether the party does or does not consent to the entry of final orders or judgment by the bankruptcy court. The amended rule also removes the provision requiring express consent before the entry of final orders and judgments in non-core proceedings. Some proceedings that satisfy the statutory definition of core proceedings, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), may remain beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally. The amended rule calls for the pleader to make a statement regarding consent, whether or not a proceeding is termed non-core. This amendment complements the requirements of amended Rule 7008(a). The bankruptcy judge's subsequent determination of the appropriate course of proceedings, including whether to enter final orders and judgments or to issue proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, is a pretrial matter now provided for in amended Rule 7016.

	Rule 7016. Pre-Ttrial Procedures; Formulating Issues
1	(a) PRETRIAL CONFERENCES; SCHEDULING;
2	MANAGEMENT. Rule 16 F.R.Civ.P. applies in adversary
3	proceedings.
4	(b) DETERMINING PROCEDURE. The bankruptcy
5	court shall decide, on its own motion or a party's timely motion,
6	whether:
7	(1) to hear and determine the proceeding;
8	(2) to hear the proceeding and issue proposed
9	findings of fact and conclusions of law; or
10	(3) to take some other action.

This rule is amended to create a new subdivision (b) that provides for the bankruptcy court to enter final orders and judgment, issue proposed findings and conclusions, or take some other action in a proceeding. The rule leaves the decision as to the appropriate course of proceedings to the bankruptcy court. The court's decision will be informed by the extent of the district court's order of reference to the bankruptcy court and by the parties' statements, required under Rules 7008(a), 7012(b), and 9027(a) and (e), regarding consent to the entry of final orders and judgment. If the bankruptcy court chooses to issue proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, Rule 9033 applies.

Rule 7054. Judgments; Costs

(a) JUDGMENTS. Rule 54(a)-(c) F.R. Civ. P. applies in adversary proceedings.
(b) COSTS; ATTORNEY'S FEES
(1) Costs Other Than Attorney's Fees. The court may allow costs to the prevailing party except when a statute of the United States or these rules otherwise provides. Costs against the United States, its officers and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent permitted by law. Costs may be taxed by the clerk on 14 days' notice; on motion served within seven days thereafter, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the court.
(2) Attorney's Fees.
(A) Rule 54(d)(2)(A)-(C) and (E) F.R. Civ.
P. applies in adversary proceedings except for the reference in Rule 54(d)(2)(C) to Rule 78.
(B) By local rule, the court may establish special procedures to resolve fee-related issues without extensive evidentiary hearings.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Subdivision (b) is amended to prescribe the procedure for seeking an award of attorney's fees and related nontaxable expenses in adversary proceedings. It does so by adding new paragraph (2) that incorporates most of the provisions of Rule 54(d)(2) F.R. Civ. P. The title of subdivision (b) is amended to reflect the new content, and the previously existing provision governing costs is renumbered as paragraph (1) and re-titled.

As provided in Rule 54(d)(2)(A), new subsection (b)(2) does not apply to fees recoverable as an element of damages, as when sought under the terms of a contract providing for the recovery of fees incurred prior to the instant adversary proceeding. Such fees typically are required to be claimed in a pleading.

Rule 54(d)(2)(D) F.R. Civ. P. does not apply in adversary proceedings insofar as it authorizes the referral of fee matters to a master or a magistrate judge. The use of masters is not authorized in bankruptcy cases, see Rule 9031, and 28 U.S.C. § 636 does not authorize a magistrate judge to exercise jurisdiction upon referral by a bankruptcy judge. The remaining provision of Rule 54(d)(2)(D) is expressed in subdivision (b)(2)(B) of this rule.

Rule 54(d)(2)(C) refers to Rule 78 F.R. Civ. P., which is not applicable in adversary proceedings. Accordingly, that reference is not incorporated by this rule.

Rule 9023. New Trials; Amendment of Judgments

1	Except as provided in this rule and Rule 3008, Rule 59
2	F.R.Civ.P. applies in cases under the Code. A motion for a new
3	trial or to alter or amend a judgment shall be filed, and a court may
4	on its own order a new trial, no later than 14 days after entry of
5	judgment. In some circumstances, Rule 8008 governs post-
6	judgment motion practice after an appeal has been docketed and is
7	pending.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is amended to include a cross-reference to Rule 8008. That rule governs the issuance of an indicative ruling when relief is sought that the court lacks authority to grant because of an appeal that has been docketed and is pending.

Rule 9024. Relief from Judgment or Order

1	Rule 60 F.R.Civ.P. applies in cases under the Code except
2	that (1) a motion to reopen a case under the Code or for the
3	reconsideration of an order allowing or disallowing a claim against
4	the estate entered without a contest is not subject to the one-year
5	limitation prescribed in Rule 60(c), (2) a complaint to revoke a
6	discharge in a chapter 7 liquidation case may be filed only within
7	the time allowed by § 727(e) of the Code, and (3) a complaint to
8	revoke an order confirming a plan may be filed only within the
9	time allowed by § 1144, § 1230, or § 1330. In some
10	circumstances, Rule 8008 governs post-judgment motion practice
11	after an appeal has been docketed and is pending.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is amended to include a cross-reference to Rule 8008. That rule governs the issuance of an indicative ruling when relief is sought that the court lacks authority to grant because of an appeal that has been docketed and is pending.

Rule 9027. Removal

1	(a) NOTICE OF REMOVAL.
2	(1) Where filed; form and content. A notice of
3	removal shall be filed with the clerk for the district and
4	division within which is located the state or federal court
5	where the civil action is pending. The notice shall be
6	signed pursuant to Rule 9011 and contain a short and plain
7	statement of the facts which entitle the party filing the
8	notice to remove, contain a statement that upon removal of
9	the claim or cause of action the proceeding is core or non-
10	core and, if non-core, that the party filing the notice does or
11	does not consent to entry of final orders or judgment by the
12	bankruptcy judge court, and be accompanied by a copy of
13	all process and pleadings.
14	* * * * *
15	(e) PROCEDURE AFTER REMOVAL.
16	* * * * *
17	(3) Any party who has filed a pleading in
18	connection with the removed claim or cause of action,
19	other than the party filing the notice of removal, shall file a
20	statement admitting or denying any allegation in the notice
21	of removal that upon removal of the claim or cause of

22	action the proceeding is core or non-core. If the statement
23	alleges that the proceeding is non-core, it shall state that the
24	party does or does not consent to entry of final orders or
25	judgment by the bankruptcy judge court. A statement
26	required by this paragraph shall be signed pursuant to Rule
27	9011 and shall be filed not later than 14 days after the filing
28	of the notice of removal. Any party who files a statement
29	pursuant to this paragraph shall mail a copy to every other
30	party to the removed claim or cause of action.
31	* * * *

Subdivisions (a)(1) and (e)(3) are amended to delete the requirement for a statement that the proceeding is core or non-core and to require in all removed actions a statement that the party does or does not consent to the entry of final orders or judgment by the bankruptcy court. Some proceedings that satisfy the statutory definition of core proceedings, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), may remain beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally. The amended rule calls for a statement regarding consent at the time of removal, whether or not a proceeding is termed non-core.

The party filing the notice of removal must include a statement regarding consent in the notice, and the other parties who have filed pleadings must respond in a separate statement filed within 14 days after removal. If a party to the removed claim or cause of action has not filed a pleading prior to removal, however, there is no need to file a separate statement under subdivision (e)(3), because a statement regarding consent must be included in a responsive pleading filed pursuant to Rule 7012(b). Rule 7016 governs the bankruptcy court's decision whether to hear and determine the proceeding, issue proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, or take some other action in the proceeding.

Rule 9033. Review of Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in Non-Core Proceedings

1	(a) SERVICE. In non-core proceedings heard pursuant to
2	28 U.S.C. § 157(c)(1)In a proceeding in which the bankruptcy
3	court has issued the bankruptcy judge shall file proposed findings
4	of fact and conclusions of law Tthe clerk shall serve forthwith
5	copies on all parties by mail and note the date of mailing on the
6	docket.
7	* * * * *

Subdivision (a) is amended to delete language limiting this provision to non-core proceedings. Some proceedings that satisfy the statutory definition of core proceedings, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), may remain beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally. If the bankruptcy court decides, pursuant to Rule 7016, that it is appropriate to issue proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law in a proceeding, this rule governs the subsequent procedures.

Rule 8001. Scope of Part VIII Rules; Definition of "BAP"; Method of Transmission

1	(a) GENERAL SCOPE. These Part VIII rules govern the
2	procedure in a United States district court and a bankruptcy
3	appellate panel on appeal from a judgment, order, or decree of a
4	bankruptcy court. They also govern certain procedures on appeal
5	to a United States court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d).
6	(b) DEFINITION OF "BAP." "BAP" means a bankruptcy
7	appellate panel established by a circuit's judicial council and
8	authorized to hear appeals from a bankruptcy court under 28
9	U.S.C. § 158.
10	(c) METHOD OF TRANSMITTING DOCUMENTS. A
11	document must be sent electronically under these Part VIII rules,
12	unless it is being sent by or to an individual who is not represented
13	by counsel or the court's governing rules permit or require mailing
14	or other means of delivery.

COMMITTEE NOTE

These Part VIII rules apply to appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a) from bankruptcy courts to district courts and BAPs. The Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure generally govern bankruptcy appeals to courts of appeals.

Eight of the Part VIII rules do, however, relate to appeals to courts of appeals. Rule 8004(e) provides that the authorization by a court of appeals of a direct appeal of a bankruptcy court's interlocutory order or decree constitutes a grant of leave to appeal. Rule 8006 governs the procedure for certification under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2) of a direct appeal from a judgment, order, or decree of a bankruptcy court to a court of appeals. Rule 8007 addresses stays pending a direct appeal to a court of appeals. Rule 8008 authorizes a bankruptcy court to issue an indicative ruling while an appeal is pending in a court of appeals. Rules 8009 and 8010 govern the record on appeal in a direct appeal to a court of appeals. Rule 8025 governs the granting of a stay of a district court or BAP judgment pending an appeal to the court of appeals. And Rule 8028 authorizes the court of appeals to suspend applicable Part VIII rules in a particular case, subject to certain enumerated exceptions.

These rules take account of the evolving technology in the federal courts for the electronic filing, storage, and transmission of documents. Except as applied to pro se parties, the Part VIII rules require documents to be sent electronically, unless applicable court rules or orders expressly require or permit another means of sending a particular document.

1	(a) IN GENERAL.
2	(1) Fourteen-Day Period. Except as provided in
3	subdivisions (b) and (c), a notice of appeal must be filed
4	with the bankruptcy clerk within 14 days after entry of the
5	judgment, order, or decree being appealed.
6	(2) Filing Before the Entry of Judgment. A notice
7	of appeal filed after the bankruptcy court announces a
8	decision or order—but before entry of the judgment, order,
9	or decree—is treated as filed on the date of and after the
10	entry.
11	(3) Multiple Appeals . If one party files a timely
12	notice of appeal, any other party may file a notice of appeal
13	within 14 days after the date when the first notice was filed,
14	or within the time otherwise allowed by this rule,
15	whichever period ends later.
16	(4) Mistaken Filing in Another Court. If a notice
17	of appeal is mistakenly filed in a district court, BAP, or
18	court of appeals, the clerk of that court must state on the
19	notice the date on which it was received and transmit it to
20	the bankruptcy clerk. The notice of appeal is then

Rule 8002. Time for Filing Notice of Appeal

21	considered filed in the bankruptcy court on the date so
22	stated.
23	(b) EFFECT OF A MOTION ON THE TIME TO
24	APPEAL.
25	(1) In General. If a party timely files in the
26	bankruptcy court any of the following motions, the time to
27	file an appeal runs for all parties from the entry of the order
28	disposing of the last such remaining motion:
29	(A) to amend or make additional findings
30	under Rule 7052, whether or not granting the
31	motion would alter the judgment;
32	(B) to alter or amend the judgment under
33	Rule 9023;
34	(C) for a new trial under Rule 9023; or
35	(D) for relief under Rule 9024 if the motion
36	is filed within 14 days after the judgment is entered.
37	(2) Filing an Appeal Before the Motion is Decided.
38	If a party files a notice of appeal after the court announces
39	or enters a judgment, order, or decree—but before it
40	disposes of any motion listed in subdivision (b)(1)—the
41	notice becomes effective when the order disposing of the
42	last such remaining motion is entered.
43	(3) Appealing the Motion. If a party intends to

44	challenge an order disposing of any motion listed in
45	subdivision (b)(1)—or the alteration or amendment of a
46	judgment, order, or decree upon the motion-the party
47	must file a notice of appeal or an amended notice of appeal.
48	The notice or amended notice must comply with Rule 8003
49	or 8004 and be filed within the time prescribed by this rule,
50	measured from the entry of the order disposing of the last
51	such remaining motion.
52	(4) No Additional Fee. No additional fee is
53	required to file an amended notice of appeal.
54	(c) APPEAL BY AN INMATE CONFINED IN AN
55	INSTITUTION.
56	(1) In General. If an inmate confined in an
57	institution files a notice of appeal from a judgment, order,
58	or decree of a bankruptcy court to a district court or BAP,
59
	the notice is timely if it is deposited in the institution's

67	(2) Multiple Appeals . If an inmate files under this
68	subdivision the first notice of appeal, the 14-day period
69	provided in subdivision (a)(3) for another party to file a
70	notice of appeal runs from the date when the bankruptcy
71	clerk dockets the first notice.
72	(d) EXTENDING THE TIME TO APPEAL.
73	(1) When the Time May be Extended. Except as
74	provided in subdivision (d)(2), the bankruptcy court may
75	extend the time to file a notice of appeal upon a party's
76	motion that is filed:
77	(A) within the time prescribed by this rule;
78	or
79	(B) within 21 days after that time, if the
80	party shows excusable neglect.
81	(2) When the Time May Not be Extended. The
82	bankruptcy court may not extend the time to file a notice of
83	appeal if the judgment, order, or decree appealed from:
84	(A) grants relief from an automatic stay
85	under § 362, 922, 1201, or 1301 of the Code;
86	(B) authorizes the sale or lease of property
87	or the use of cash collateral under § 363 of the
88	Code;
89	(C) authorizes the obtaining of credit under

90	§ 364 of the Code;
91	(D) authorizes the assumption or
92	assignment of an executory contract or unexpired
93	lease under § 365 of the Code;
94	(E) approves a disclosure statement under
95	§ 1125 of the Code; or
96	(F) confirms a plan under § 943, 1129,
97	1225, or 1325 of the Code.
98	(3) Time Limits on an Extension . No extension of
99	time may exceed 21 days after the time prescribed by this
100	rule, or 14 days after the order granting the motion to
101	extend time is entered, whichever is later.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8002 and F.R.App.P. 4(a) and (c). With the exception of subdivision (c), the changes to the former rule are stylistic. The rule retains the former rule's 14-day time period for filing a notice of appeal, as opposed to the longer periods permitted for appeals in civil cases under F.R.App.P. 4(a).

Subdivision (a) continues to allow any other party to file a notice of appeal within 14 days after the first notice of appeal is filed, or thereafter to the extent otherwise authorized by this rule. Subdivision (a) also retains provisions of the former rule that prescribe the date the notice of appeal is deemed filed if the appellant files it prematurely or in the wrong court.

Subdivision (b), like former Rule 8002(b) and F.R.App.P. 4(a), tolls the time for filing a notice of appeal when certain postjudgment motions are filed, and it prescribes the effective date of a notice of appeal that is filed before the court disposes of all of the specified motions. As under the former rule, a party that wants to appeal the court's disposition of the motion or the alteration or amendment of a judgment, order, or decree in response to such a motion must file a notice of appeal or, if it has already filed one, an amended notice of appeal.

Although Rule 8003(a)(3)(C) requires a notice of appeal to be accompanied by the required fee, no additional fee is required for the filing of an amended notice of appeal.

Subdivision (c) mirrors the provisions of F.R.App.P. 4(c)(1) and (2), which specify timing rules for a notice of appeal filed by an inmate confined in an institution.

Subdivision (d) continues to allow the court to grant an extension of time to file a notice of appeal, except with respect to certain specified judgments, orders, and decrees.

	Appeal
1	(a) FILING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL.
2	(1) In General. An appeal from a judgment, order,
3	or decree of a bankruptcy court to a district court or BAP
4	under 28 U.S.C. 158(a)(1) or (a)(2) may be taken only by
5	filing a notice of appeal with the bankruptcy clerk within
6	the time allowed by Rule 8002.
7	(2) Effect of Not Taking Other Steps. An
8	appellant's failure to take any step other than the timely
9	filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of
10	the appeal, but is ground only for the district court or BAP
11	to act as it considers appropriate, including dismissing the
12	appeal.
13	(3) Contents . The notice of appeal must:
14	(A) conform substantially to the appropriate
15	Official Form;
16	(B) be accompanied by the judgment, order,
17	or decree, or the part of it, being appealed; and
18	(C) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
19	(4) Additional Copies. If requested to do so, the
20	appellant must furnish the bankruptcy clerk with enough
21	copies of the notice to enable the clerk to comply with
22	subdivision (c).

Rule 8003. Appeal as of Right—How Taken; Docketing the

61 of 238

23	(b) JOINT OR CONSOLIDATED APPEALS.
24	(1) Joint Notice of Appeal. When two or more
25	parties are entitled to appeal from a judgment, order, or
26	decree of a bankruptcy court and their interests make
27	joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal.
28	They may then proceed on appeal as a single appellant.
29	(2) Consolidating Appeals. When parties have
30	separately filed timely notices of appeal, the district court
31	or BAP may join or consolidate the appeals.
32	(c) SERVING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL.
33	(1) Transmitting to the United States Trustee and
34	Other Parties. The bankruptcy clerk must transmit the
35	notice of appeal to the United States trustee and to counsel
36	of record for each party to the appeal, excluding the
37	appellant. If a party is proceeding pro se, the clerk must
38	send the notice of appeal to the party's last known address.
39	The clerk must note, on each copy, the date when the notice
40	of appeal was filed.
41	(2) Effect of Failing to Transmit Notice. The
42	bankruptcy clerk's failure to transmit notice to a party or
43	the United States trustee does not affect the validity of
44	the appeal.
45	(3) Noting Service on the Docket. The clerk must

46	note on the docket the names of the parties served and the
47	date and method of the service.
48	(d) TRANSMITTING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL TO
49	THE DISTRICT COURT OR BAP; DOCKETING THE APPEAL.
50	(1) Transmitting the Notice . The bankruptcy clerk
51	must promptly transmit the notice of appeal to the BAP
52	clerk if a BAP has been established for appeals from that
53	district and the appellant has not elected to have the district
54	court hear the appeal. Otherwise, the bankruptcy clerk
55	must promptly transmit the notice to the district clerk.
56	(2) Docketing in the District Court or BAP. Upon
57	receiving the notice of appeal, the district or BAP clerk
58	must docket the appeal under the title of the bankruptcy
59	court action and must identify the appellant, adding the
60	appellant's name if necessary.

This rule is derived from several former Bankruptcy Rule and Appellate Rule provisions. It addresses appeals as of right, joint and consolidated appeals, service of the notice of appeal, and the timing of the docketing of an appeal in the district court or BAP.

Subdivision (a) incorporates, with stylistic changes, much of the content of former Rule 8001(a) regarding the taking of an appeal as of right under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(1) or (2). The rule now requires that the judgment, order, or decree being appealed be attached to the notice of appeal.

Subdivision (b), which is an adaptation of F.R.App.P. 3(b), permits the filing of a joint notice of appeal by multiple appellants that have sufficiently similar interests that their joinder is practicable. It also allows the district court or BAP to consolidate appeals taken separately by two or more parties.

Subdivision (c) is derived from former Rule 8004 and F.R.App.P. 3(d). Under Rule 8001(c), the former rule's requirement that service of the notice of appeal be accomplished by mailing is generally modified to require that the bankruptcy clerk serve counsel by electronic means. Service on pro se parties must be made by sending the notice to the address most recently provided to the court.

Subdivision (d) modifies the provision of former Rule 8007(b), which delayed the docketing of an appeal by the district court or BAP until the record was complete and the bankruptcy clerk transmitted it. The new provision, adapted from F.R.App.P. 3(d) and 12(a), requires the bankruptcy clerk to promptly transmit the notice of appeal to the clerk of the district court or BAP. Upon receipt of the notice of appeal, the district or BAP clerk must docket the appeal. Under this procedure, motions filed in the district court or BAP prior to completion and transmission of the record can generally be placed on the docket of an already pending appeal.

Rule 8004. Appeal by Leave—How Taken; Docketing the Appeal 1 (a) NOTICE OF APPEAL AND MOTION FOR LEAVE 2 TO APPEAL. To appeal from an interlocutory order or decree of a 3 bankruptcy court under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3), a party must file 4 with the bankruptcy clerk a notice of appeal as prescribed by Rule 5 8003(a). The notice must: (1) be filed within the time allowed by Rule 8002; 6 7 (2) be accompanied by a motion for leave to appeal 8 prepared in accordance with subdivision (b); and 9 (3) unless served electronically using the court's 10 transmission equipment, include proof of service in 11 accordance with Rule 8011(d). 12 (b) CONTENTS OF THE MOTION; RESPONSE. 13 (1) Contents. A motion for leave to appeal under 14 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3) must include the following: 15 (A) the facts necessary to understand the 16 question presented; 17 (B) the question itself; 18 (C) the relief sought; 19 (D) the reasons why leave to appeal should 20 be granted; and 21 (E) a copy of the interlocutory order or 22 decree and any related opinion or memorandum.

23	(2) Response . A party may file with the district or
24	BAP clerk a response in opposition or a cross-motion
25	within 14 days after the motion is served.
26	(c) TRANSMITTING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL AND
27	THE MOTION; DOCKETING THE APPEAL; DETERMINING
28	THE MOTION.
29	(1) Transmitting to the District Court or BAP. The
30	bankruptcy clerk must promptly transmit the notice of
31	appeal and the motion for leave to the BAP clerk if a BAP
32	has been established for appeals from that district and the
33	appellant has not elected to have the district court hear the
34	appeal. Otherwise, the bankruptcy clerk must promptly
35	transmit the notice and motion to the district clerk.
36	(2) Docketing in the District Court or BAP. Upon
37	receiving the notice and motion, the district or BAP clerk
38	must docket the appeal under the title of the bankruptcy
39	court action and must identify the appellant, adding the
40	appellant's name if necessary.
41	(3) Oral Argument Not Required. The motion and
42	any response or cross-motion are submitted without oral
43	argument unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise.
44	If the motion is denied, the district court or BAP must
45	dismiss the appeal.

46	(d) FAILURE TO FILE A MOTION WITH A NOTICE
47	OF APPEAL. If an appellant timely files a notice of appeal under
48	this rule but does not include a motion for leave, the district court
49	or BAP may order the appellant to file a motion for leave, or treat
50	the notice of appeal as a motion for leave and either grant or deny
51	it. If the court orders that a motion for leave be filed, the appellant
52	must do so within 14 days after the order is entered, unless the
53	order provides otherwise.
54	(e) DIRECT APPEAL TO A COURT OF APPEALS. If
55	leave to appeal an interlocutory order or decree is required under
56	28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3), an authorization of a direct appeal by the
57	court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2) satisfies the
58	requirement.

This rule is derived from former Rules 8001(b) and 8003 and F.R.App.P. 5. It retains the practice for interlocutory bankruptcy appeals of requiring a notice of appeal to be filed along with a motion for leave to appeal. Like current Rule 8003, it alters the timing of the docketing of the appeal in the district court or BAP.

Subdivision (a) requires a party seeking leave to appeal under 28 U.S.C. 158(a)(3) to file with the bankruptcy clerk both a notice of appeal and a motion for leave to appeal.

Subdivision (b) prescribes the contents of the motion, retaining the requirements of former Rule 8003(a). It also continues to allow another party to file a cross-motion or response to the appellant's motion. Because of the prompt docketing of the appeal under the current rule, the cross-motion or response must be filed in the district court or BAP, rather than in the bankruptcy court as the former rule required.

Subdivision (c) requires the bankruptcy clerk to transmit promptly to the district court or BAP the notice of appeal and the motion for leave to appeal. Upon receipt of the notice and the motion, the district or BAP clerk must docket the appeal. Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise, no oral argument will be held on the motion.

Subdivision (d) retains the provisions of former Rule 8003(c). It provides that if the appellant timely files a notice of appeal, but fails to file a motion for leave to appeal, the court can either direct that a motion be filed or treat the notice of appeal as the motion and either grant or deny leave.

Subdivision (e), like former Rule 8003(d), treats the authorization of a direct appeal by the court of appeals as a grant of leave to appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3) if the district court or BAP has not already granted leave. Thus, a separate order granting leave to appeal is not required. If the court of appeals grants permission to appeal, the record must be assembled and transmitted in accordance with Rules 8009 and 8010.

Court Instead of the BAP
(a) FILING OF A STATEMENT OF ELECTION. To elect to have an appeal heard by the district court, a party must:
(1) file a statement of election that conforms substantially to the appropriate Official Form; and
(2) do so within the time prescribed by 28 U.S.C.
§ 158(c)(1).
(b) TRANSFERRING THE DOCUMENTS RELATED TO THE APPEAL. Upon receiving an appellant's timely statement of election, the bankruptcy clerk must transmit to the district clerk all documents related to the appeal. Upon receiving a timely statement of election by a party other than the appellant, the BAP clerk must transmit to the district clerk all documents related to the appeal.
(c) DETERMINING THE VALIDITY OF AN ELECTION. A party seeking a determination of the validity of an election must file a motion in the court where the appeal is then pending. The motion must be filed within 14 days after the statement of election is filed.
(d) MOTION FOR LEAVE WITHOUT A NOTICE OF APPEAL—EFFECT ON THE TIMING OF AN ELECTION. If an appellant moves for leave to appeal under Rule 8004 but fails to file a separate notice of appeal with the motion, the motion must be

Rule 8005. Election to Have an Appeal Heard by the District Court Instead of the BAP treated as a notice of appeal for purposes of determining the timeliness of a statement of election.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule, which implements 28 U.S.C. § 158(c)(1), is derived from former Rule 8001(e).

As the former rule required, subdivision (a) provides that an appellant that elects to have a district court, rather than a BAP, hear its appeal must file with the bankruptcy clerk a statement of election when it files its notice of appeal. The statement must conform substantially to the appropriate Official Form. If a BAP has been established for appeals from the bankruptcy court and the appellant does not file a timely statement of election, any other party that elects to have the district court hear the appeal must file a statement of election with the BAP clerk no later than 30 days after service of the notice of appeal.

Subdivision (b) requires the bankruptcy clerk to transmit all appeal documents to the district clerk if the appellant files a timely statement of election. If the appellant does not make that election, the bankruptcy clerk must transmit those documents to the BAP clerk, and upon a timely election by any other party, the BAP clerk must promptly transmit the appeal documents to the district clerk.

Subdivision (c) provides a new procedure for the resolution of disputes regarding the validity of an election. A motion seeking the determination of the validity of an election must be filed no later than 14 days after the statement of election is filed. Nothing in this rule prevents a court from determining the validity of an election on its own motion.

Subdivision (d) provides that, in the case of an appeal by leave, if the appellant files a motion for leave to appeal but fails to file a notice of appeal, the filing and service of the motion will be treated for timing purposes under this rule as the filing and service of the notice of appeal.

1	(a) EFFECTIVE DATE OF A CERTIFICATION. A
2	certification of a judgment, order, or decree of a bankruptcy court
3	for direct review in a court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)
4	is effective when:
5	(1) the certification has been filed;
6	(2) a timely appeal has been taken under Rule 8003
7	or 8004; and
8	(3) the notice of appeal has become effective under
9	Rule 8002.
10	(b) FILING THE CERTIFICATION. The certification
11	must be filed with the clerk of the court where the matter is
12	pending. For purposes of this rule, a matter remains pending in the
13	bankruptcy court for 30 days after the effective date of the first
14	notice of appeal from the judgment, order, or decree for which
15	direct review is sought. A matter is pending in the district court or
16	BAP thereafter.
17	(c) JOINT CERTIFICATION BY ALL APPELLANTS
18	AND APPELLEES. A joint certification by all the appellants and
19	appellees under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A) must be made by using
20	the appropriate Official Form. The parties may supplement the
21	certification with a short statement of the basis for the certification,
22	which may include the information listed in subdivision $(f)(2)$.

Rule 8006. Certifying a Direct Appeal to the Court of Appeals

23	(d) THE COURT THAT MAY MAKE THE
24	CERTIFICATION. Only the court where the matter is pending, as
25	provided in subdivision (b), may certify a direct review on request
26	of parties or on its own motion.
27	(e) CERTIFICATION ON THE COURT'S OWN
28	MOTION.
29	(1) How Accomplished . A certification on the
30	court's own motion must be set forth in a separate
31	document. The clerk of the certifying court must serve it
32	on the parties to the appeal in the manner required for
33	service of a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(c)(1). The
34	certification must be accompanied by an opinion or
35	memorandum that contains the information required by
36	subdivision (f)(2)(A)-(D).
37	(2) Supplemental Statement by a Party. Within 14
38	days after the court's certification, a party may file with the
39	clerk of the certifying court a short supplemental statement
40	regarding the merits of certification.
41	(f) CERTIFICATION BY THE COURT ON REQUEST.
42	(1) How Requested . A request by a party for
43	certification that a circumstance specified in 28 U.S.C.
44	$158(d)(2)(A)(i)-(iii) applies—or a request by a majority of
45	the appellants and a majority of the appellees—must be

46	filed with the clerk of the court where the matter is pending
47	within 60 days after the entry of the judgment, order, or
48	decree.
49	(2) Service and Contents. The request must be
50	served on all parties to the appeal in the manner required
51	for service of a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(c)(1), and
52	it must include the following:
53	(A) the facts necessary to understand the
54	question presented;
55	(B) the question itself;
56	(C) the relief sought;
57	(D) the reasons why the direct appeal
58	should be allowed, including which circumstance
59	specified in 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A)(i)-(iii)
60	applies; and
61	(E) a copy of the judgment, order, or decree
62	and any related opinion or memorandum.
63	(3) Time to File a Response or a Cross-Request. A
64	party may file a response to the request within 14 days after
65	the request is served, or such other time as the court where
66	the matter is pending allows. A party may file a cross-
67	request for certification within 14 days after the request is
68	served, or within 60 days after the entry of the judgment,

69	order, or decree, whichever occurs first.
70	(4) Oral Argument Not Required. The request,
71	cross-request, and any response are not governed by Rule
72	9014 and are submitted without oral argument unless the
73	court where the matter is pending orders otherwise.
74	(5) Form and Service of the Certification. If the
75	court certifies a direct appeal in response to the request, it
76	must do so in a separate document. The certification must
77	be served on the parties to the appeal in the manner
78	required for service of a notice of appeal under Rule
79	8003(c)(1).
80	(g) PROCEEDING IN THE COURT OF APPEALS
81	FOLLOWING A CERTIFICATION. Within 30 days after the
82	date the certification becomes effective under subdivision (a), a
83	request for permission to take a direct appeal to the court of
84	appeals must be filed with the circuit clerk.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8001(f), and it provides the procedures for the certification of a direct appeal of a judgment, order, or decree of a bankruptcy court to the court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2). Once a case has been certified in the bankruptcy court, the district court, or the BAP for direct appeal and a request for permission to appeal has been timely filed, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure govern further proceedings in the court of appeals.

Subdivision (a), like the former rule, requires that an appeal be properly taken—now under Rule 8003 or 8004—before a certification for direct review in the court of appeals takes effect. This rule requires the timely filing of a notice of appeal under Rule 8002 and accounts for the delayed effectiveness of a notice of appeal under the circumstances specified in that rule. Ordinarily, a notice of appeal is effective when it is filed in the bankruptcy court. Rule 8002, however, delays the effectiveness of a notice of appeal when (1) it is filed after the announcement of a decision or order but prior to the entry of the judgment, order, or decree; or (2) it is filed after the announcement or entry of a judgment, order, or decree but before the bankruptcy court disposes of certain postjudgment motions.

When the bankruptcy court enters an interlocutory order or decree that is appealable under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3), certification for direct review in the court of appeals may take effect before the district court or BAP grants leave to appeal. The certification is effective when the actions specified in subdivision (a) have occurred. Rule 8004(e) provides that if the court of appeals grants permission to take a direct appeal before leave to appeal an interlocutory ruling has been granted, the authorization by the court of appeals is treated as the granting of leave to appeal.

Subdivision (b) provides that a certification must be filed in the court where the matter is pending, as determined by this subdivision. This provision modifies the former rule. Because of the prompt docketing of appeals in the district court or BAP under Rules 8003 and 8004, a matter is deemed—for purposes of this rule only—to remain pending in the bankruptcy court for 30 days after the effective date of the notice of appeal. This provision will in appropriate cases give the bankruptcy judge, who will be familiar with the matter being appealed, an opportunity to decide whether certification for direct review is appropriate. Similarly, subdivision (d) provides that only the court where the matter is then pending according to subdivision (b) may make a certification on its own motion or on the request of one or more parties.

Section 158(d)(2) provides three different ways in which an appeal may be certified for direct review. Implementing these options, the rule provides in subdivision (c) for the joint certification by all appellants and appellees; in subdivision (e) for the bankruptcy court's, district court's, or BAP's certification on its own motion; and in subdivision (f) for the bankruptcy court's, district court's, or BAP's certification on request of a party or a majority of appellants and a majority of appellees.

Subdivision (g) requires that, once a certification for direct review is made, a request to the court of appeals for permission to take a direct appeal to that court must be filed with the clerk of the court of appeals no later than 30 days after the effective date of the certification. Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 6(c), which incorporates all of F.R.App.P. 5 except subdivision (a)(3), prescribes the procedure for requesting the permission of the court of appeals and governs proceedings that take place thereafter in that court.

Rule 8007. Stay Pending Appeal; Bonds; Suspension of Proceedings

1	(a) INITIAL MOTION IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.
2	(1) In General. Ordinarily, a party must move first
3	in the bankruptcy court for the following relief:
4	(A) a stay of a judgment, order, or decree of
5	the bankruptcy court pending appeal;
6	(B) the approval of a supersedeas bond;
7	(C) an order suspending, modifying,
8	restoring, or granting an injunction while an appeal
9	is pending; or
10	(D) the suspension or continuation of
11	proceedings in a case or other relief permitted by
12	subdivision (e).
13	(2) Time to File . The motion may be made either
14	before or after the notice of appeal is filed.
15	(b) MOTION IN THE COURT OF APPEALS ON
16	DIRECT APPEAL, THE DISTRICT COURT, OR THE BAP.
17	(1) Request for Relief. A motion for the relief
18	specified in subdivision (a)(1)—or to vacate or modify a
19	bankruptcy court's order granting such relief—may be
20	made in the court where the appeal is pending or where it
21	will be taken.
22	(2) Showing or Statement Required. The motion

23	must:
24	(A) show that moving first in the
25	bankruptcy court would be impracticable; or
26	(B) if a motion was made in the bankruptcy
27	court, either state that the court has not yet ruled on
28	the motion, or state that the court has ruled and set
29	out any reasons given for the ruling.
30	(3) Additional Content. The motion must also
31	include:
32	(A) the reasons for granting the relief
33	requested and the facts relied upon;
34	(B) affidavits or other sworn statements
35	supporting facts subject to dispute; and
36	(C) relevant parts of the record.
37	(4) Serving Notice. The movant must give
38	reasonable notice of the motion to all parties.
39	(c) FILING A BOND OR OTHER SECURITY. The
40	district court, BAP, or court of appeals may condition relief on
41	filing a bond or other appropriate security with the bankruptcy
42	court.
43	(d) BOND FOR A TRUSTEE OR THE UNITED
44	STATES. The court may require a trustee to file a bond or other
45	appropriate security when the trustee appeals. A bond or other

46	security is not required when an appeal is taken by the United
47	States, its officer, or its agency or by direction of any department
48	of the federal government.
49	(e) CONTINUED PROCEEDINGS IN THE
50	BANKRUPTCY COURT. Despite Rule 7062 and subject to the
51	authority of the district court, BAP, or court of appeals, the
52	bankruptcy court may:
53	(1) suspend or continue other proceedings in the
54	case; or
55	(2) issue any other appropriate orders during the
56	pendency of an appeal to protect the rights of all parties in
57	interest.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8005 and F.R.App.P. 8. It now applies to direct appeals in courts of appeals.

Subdivision (a), like the former rule, requires a party ordinarily to seek relief pending an appeal in the bankruptcy court. Subdivision (a)(1) expands the list of relief enumerated in F.R.App.P. 8(a)(1) to reflect bankruptcy practice. It includes the suspension or continuation of other proceedings in the bankruptcy case, as authorized by subdivision (e). Subdivision (a)(2) clarifies that a motion for a stay pending appeal, approval of a supersedeas bond, or any other relief specified in paragraph (1) may be made in the bankruptcy court before or after the filing of a notice of appeal.

Subdivision (b) authorizes a party to seek the relief specified in (a)(1), or the vacation or modification of the granting of such relief, by means of a motion filed in the court where the appeal is pending or will be taken—district court, BAP, or the court of appeals on direct appeal. Accordingly, a notice of appeal need not be filed with respect to a bankruptcy court's order granting or denying such a motion. The motion for relief in the district court, BAP, or court of appeals must state why it was impracticable to seek relief initially in the bankruptcy court, if a motion was not filed there, or why the bankruptcy court denied the relief sought.

Subdivisions (c) and (d) retain the provisions of the former rule that permit the district court or BAP—and now the court of appeals—to condition the granting of relief on the posting of a bond by the appellant, except when that party is a federal government entity. Rule 9025 governs proceedings against sureties.

Rule 8008. Indicative Rulings

1	(a) RELIEF PENDING APPEAL. If a party files a timely
2	motion in the bankruptcy court for relief that the court lacks
3	authority to grant because of an appeal that has been docketed and
4	is pending, the bankruptcy court may:
5	(1) defer considering the motion;
6	(2) deny the motion; or
7	(3) state that the court would grant the motion if the
8	court where the appeal is pending remands for that purpose,
9	or state that the motion raises a substantial issue.
10	(b) NOTICE TO THE COURT WHERE THE APPEAL IS
11	PENDING. The movant must promptly notify the clerk of the
12	court where the appeal is pending if the bankruptcy court states
13	that it would grant the motion or that the motion raises a
14	substantial issue.
15	(c) REMAND AFTER AN INDICATIVE RULING. If the
16	bankruptcy court states that it would grant the motion or that the
17	motion raises a substantial issue, the district court or BAP may
18	remand for further proceedings, but it retains jurisdiction unless it
19	expressly dismisses the appeal. If the district court or BAP
20	remands but retains jurisdiction, the parties must promptly notify

- 21 the clerk of that court when the bankruptcy court has decided the
- 22 motion on remand.

This rule is an adaptation of F.R.Civ.P. 62.1 and F.R.App.P. 12.1. It provides a procedure for the issuance of an indicative ruling when a bankruptcy court determines that, because of a pending appeal, the court lacks jurisdiction to grant a request for relief that the court concludes is meritorious or raises a substantial issue. The rule does not attempt to define the circumstances in which an appeal limits or defeats the bankruptcy court's authority to act in the face of a pending appeal. In contrast, Rule 8002(b) identifies motions that, if filed within the relevant time limit, suspend the effect of a notice of appeal filed before the last such motion is resolved. In those circumstances, the bankruptcy court has authority to resolve the motion without resorting to the indicative ruling procedure.

Subdivision (b) requires the movant to notify the court where an appeal is pending if the bankruptcy court states that it would grant the motion or that it raises a substantial issue. This provision applies to appeals pending in the district court, the BAP, or the court of appeals.

Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure 6 and 12.1 govern the procedure in the court of appeals following notification of the bankruptcy court's indicative ruling.

Subdivision (c) of this rule governs the procedure in the district court or BAP upon notification that the bankruptcy court has issued an indicative ruling. The district court or BAP may remand to the bankruptcy court for a ruling on the motion for relief. The district court or BAP may also remand all proceedings, thereby terminating the initial appeal, if it expressly states that it is dismissing the appeal. It should do so, however, only when the appellant has stated clearly its intention to abandon the appeal. Otherwise, the district court or BAP may remand for the purpose of ruling on the motion, while retaining jurisdiction to proceed with the appeal after the bankruptcy court rules, provided that the appeal is not then moot and a party wishes to proceed.

	Rule 8009. Record on Appeal; Sealed Documents
1	(a) DESIGNATING THE RECORD ON APPEAL;
2	STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES.
3	(1) Appellant.
4	(A) The appellant must file with the
5	bankruptcy clerk and serve on the appellee a
6	designation of the items to be included in the record
7	on appeal and a statement of the issues to be
8	presented.
9	(B) The appellant must file and serve the
10	designation and statement within 14 days after:
11	(i) the appellant's notice of appeal as
12	of right becomes effective under Rule 8002;
13	or
14	(ii) an order granting leave to appeal
15	is entered.
16	A designation and statement served prematurely
17	must be treated as served on the first day on which
18	filing is timely.
19	(2) Appellee and Cross-Appellant. Within 14 days
20	after being served, the appellee may file and serve on the
21	appellant a designation of additional items to be included in
22	the record. An appellee who files a cross-appeal must file

23	and serve a designation of additional items to be included
24	in the record and a statement of the issues to be presented
25	on the cross-appeal.
26	(3) Cross-Appellee. Within 14 days after service of
27	the cross-appellant's designation and statement, a cross-
28	appellee may file and serve on the cross-appellant a
29	designation of additional items to be included in the record.
30	(4) Record on Appeal. The record on appeal must
31	include the following:
32	• items designated by the parties;
33	• the notice of appeal;
34	• the judgment, order, or decree being
35	appealed;
36	• any order granting leave to appeal;
37	• any certification required for a direct appeal
38	to the court of appeals;
39	• any opinion, findings of fact, and
40	conclusions of law relating to the issues on appeal,
41	including transcripts of all oral rulings;
42	• any transcript ordered under subdivision (b);

43	• any statement required by subdivision (c);
44	and
45	• any additional items from the record that the
46	court where the appeal is pending orders.
47	(5) Copies for the Bankruptcy Clerk. If paper
48	copies are needed, a party filing a designation of items
49	must provide a copy of any of those items that the
50	bankruptcy clerk requests. If the party fails to do so, the
51	bankruptcy clerk must prepare the copy at the party's
52	expense.
53	(b) TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS.
54	(1) Appellant's Duty to Order. Within the time
55	period prescribed by subdivision (a)(1), the appellant must:
56	(A) order in writing from the reporter, as
57	defined in Rule 8010(a)(1), a transcript of such
58	parts of the proceedings not already on file as the
59	appellant considers necessary for the appeal, and
60	file a copy of the order with the bankruptcy clerk;
61	or
62	(B) file with the bankruptcy clerk a
63	certificate stating that the appellant is not ordering a
64	transcript.
65	(2) Cross-Appellant's Duty to Order. Within 14

66	days after the appellant files a copy of the transcript order
67	or a certificate of not ordering a transcript, the appellee as
68	cross-appellant must:
69	(A) order in writing from the reporter, as
70	defined in Rule 8010(a)(1), a transcript of such
71	additional parts of the proceedings as the cross-
72	appellant considers necessary for the appeal, and
73	file a copy of the order with the bankruptcy clerk;
74	or
75	(B) file with the bankruptcy clerk a
76	certificate stating that the cross-appellant is not
77	ordering a transcript.
78	(3) Appellee's or Cross-Appellee's Right to Order.
79	Within 14 days after the appellant or cross-appellant files a
80	copy of a transcript order or certificate of not ordering a
81	transcript, the appellee or cross-appellee may order in
82	writing from the reporter a transcript of such additional
83	parts of the proceedings as the appellee or cross-appellee
84	considers necessary for the appeal. A copy of the order
85	must be filed with the bankruptcy clerk.
86	(4) Payment. At the time of ordering, a party must
87	make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for paying
88	the cost of the transcript.

00
89	(5) Unsupported Finding or Conclusion. If the
90	appellant intends to argue on appeal that a finding or
91	conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to
92	the evidence, the appellant must include in the record a
93	transcript of all relevant testimony and copies of all
94	relevant exhibits.
95	(c) STATEMENT OF THE EVIDENCE WHEN A
96	TRANSCRIPT IS UNAVAILABLE. If a transcript of a hearing or
97	trial is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the
98	evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including
99	the appellant's recollection. The statement must be filed within
100	the time prescribed by subdivision $(a)(1)$ and served on the
101	appellee, who may serve objections or proposed amendments
102	within 14 days after being served. The statement and any
103	objections or proposed amendments must then be submitted to the
104	bankruptcy court for settlement and approval. As settled and
105	approved, the statement must be included by the bankruptcy clerk
106	in the record on appeal.
107	(d) AGREED STATEMENT AS THE RECORD ON
108	APPEAL. Instead of the record on appeal as defined in
109	subdivision (a), the parties may prepare, sign, and submit to the
110	bankruptcy court a statement of the case showing how the issues
111	presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the bankruptcy

112	court. The statement must set forth only those facts alleged and
113	proved or sought to be proved that are essential to the court's
114	resolution of the issues. If the statement is accurate, it-together
115	with any additions that the bankruptcy court may consider
116	necessary to a full presentation of the issues on appeal-must be
117	approved by the bankruptcy court and must then be certified to the
118	court where the appeal is pending as the record on appeal. The
119	bankruptcy clerk must then transmit it to the clerk of that court
120	within the time provided by Rule 8010. A copy of the agreed
121	statement may be filed in place of the appendix required by Rule
122	8018(b) or, in the case of a direct appeal to the court of appeals, by
123	F.R.App.P. 30.
124	(e) CORRECTING OR MODIFYING THE RECORD.
125	(1) Submitting to the Bankruptcy Court. If any
126	difference arises about whether the record accurately
127	discloses what occurred in the bankruptcy court, the
128	difference must be submitted to and settled by the
129	bankruptcy court and the record conformed accordingly. If
130	an item has been improperly designated as part of the
131	record on appeal, a party may move to strike that item.
132	(2) Correcting in Other Ways. If anything material
133	to either party is omitted from or misstated in the record by
134	error or accident, the omission or misstatement may be

135	corrected, and a supplemental record may be certified and
136	transmitted:
137	(A) on stipulation of the parties;
138	(B) by the bankruptcy court before or after
139	the record has been forwarded; or
140	(C) by the court where the appeal is
141	pending.
142	(3) Remaining Questions . All other questions as to
143	the form and content of the record must be presented to the
144	court where the appeal is pending.
145	(f) SEALED DOCUMENTS. A document placed under
146	seal by the bankruptcy court may be designated as part of the
147	record on appeal. In doing so, a party must identify it without
148	revealing confidential or secret information, but the bankruptcy
149	clerk must not transmit it to the clerk of the court where the appeal
150	is pending as part of the record. Instead, a party must file a motion
151	with the court where the appeal is pending to accept the document
152	under seal. If the motion is granted, the movant must notify the
153	bankruptcy court of the ruling, and the bankruptcy clerk must
154	promptly transmit the sealed document to the clerk of the court
155	where the appeal is pending.
156	(g) OTHER NECESSARY ACTIONS. All parties to an
157	appeal must take any other action necessary to enable the

This rule is derived from former Rule 8006 and F.R.App.P. 10 and 11(a). The provisions of this rule and Rule 8010 are applicable to appeals taken directly to a court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2), as well as to appeals to a district court or BAP. See F.R.App.P. 6(c)(2)(A) and (B).

The rule retains the practice of former Rule 8006 of requiring the parties to designate items to be included in the record on appeal. In this respect, the bankruptcy rule differs from the appellate rule. Among other things, F.R.App.P. 10(a) provides that the record on appeal consists of all the documents and exhibits filed in the case. This requirement would often be unworkable in a bankruptcy context because thousands of items might have been filed in the overall bankruptcy case.

Subdivision (a) provides the time period for an appellant to file a designation of items to be included in the record on appeal and a statement of the issues to be presented. It then provides for the designation of additional items by the appellee, cross-appellant, and cross-appellee, as well as for the cross-appellant's statement of the issues to be presented in its appeal. Subdivision (a)(4) prescribes the content of the record on appeal. Ordinarily, the bankruptcy clerk will not need to have paper copies of the designated items because the clerk will either transmit them to the appellate court electronically or otherwise make them available electronically. If the bankruptcy clerk requires a paper copy of some or all of the items designated the item to provide the necessary copies, and the party must comply with the request or bear the cost of the clerk's copying.

Subdivision (b) governs the process for ordering a complete or partial transcript of the bankruptcy court proceedings. In situations in which a transcript is unavailable, subdivision (c) allows for the parties' preparation of a statement of the evidence or proceedings, which must be approved by the bankruptcy court.

Subdivision (d) adopts the practice of F.R.App.P. 10(d) of permitting the parties to agree on a statement of the case in place of the record on appeal. The statement must show how the issues on appeal arose and were decided in the bankruptcy court. It must be approved by the bankruptcy court in order to be certified as the record on appeal.

Subdivision (e), modeled on F.R.App.P. 10(e), provides a procedure for correcting the record on appeal if an item is improperly designated, omitted, or misstated.

Subdivision (f) is a new provision that governs the handling of any document that remains sealed by the bankruptcy court and that a party wants to include in the record on appeal. The party must request the court where the appeal is pending to accept the document under seal, and that motion must be granted before the bankruptcy clerk may transmit the sealed document to the district, BAP, or circuit clerk.

Subdivision (g) requires the parties' cooperation with the bankruptcy clerk in assembling and transmitting the record. It retains the requirement of former Rule 8006, which was adapted from F.R.App.P. 11(a).

Rule 8010. Completing and Transmitting the Record

22	docket and notify the parties whether the extension
23	is granted.
24	(D) If the reporter does not file the
25	transcript on time, the bankruptcy clerk must notify
26	the bankruptcy judge.
27	(b) CLERK'S DUTIES.
28	(1) Transmitting the Record—In General. Subject
29	to Rule 8009(f) and subdivision (b)(5) of this rule, when
30	the record is complete, the bankruptcy clerk must transmit
31	to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending either
32	the record or a notice that the record is available
33	electronically.
34	(2) Multiple Appeals . If there are multiple appeals
35	from a judgment, order, or decree, the bankruptcy clerk
36	must transmit a single record.
37	(3) Receiving the Record . Upon receiving the
38	record or notice that it is available electronically, the
39	district, BAP, or circuit clerk must enter that information
40	on the docket and promptly notify all parties to the appeal.
41	(4) If Paper Copies Are Ordered. If the court
42	where the appeal is pending directs that paper copies of the
43	record be provided, the clerk of that court must so notify
44	the appellant. If the appellant fails to provide them, the

45	bankruptcy clerk must prepare them at the appellant's
46	expense.
47	(5) When Leave to Appeal is Requested. Subject to
48	subdivision (c), if a motion for leave to appeal has been
49	filed under Rule 8004, the bankruptcy clerk must prepare
50	and transmit the record only after the district court, BAP, or
51	court of appeals grants leave.
52	(c) RECORD FOR A PRELIMINARY MOTION IN THE
53	DISTRICT COURT, BAP, OR COURT OF APPEALS. This
54	subdivision (c) applies if, before the record is transmitted, a party
55	moves in the district court, BAP, or court of appeals for any of the
56	following relief:
57	• leave to appeal;
58	• dismissal;
59	• a stay pending appeal;
60	• approval of a supersedeas bond, or additional
61	security on a bond or undertaking on appeal; or
62	• any other intermediate order.
63	The bankruptcy clerk must then transmit to the clerk of the court
64	where the relief is sought any parts of the record designated by a
65	party to the appeal or a notice that those parts are available
66	electronically.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8007 and F.R.App. P 11. It applies to an appeal taken directly to a court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2), as well as to an appeal to a district court or BAP.

Subdivision (a) generally retains the procedure of former Rule 8007(a) regarding the reporter's duty to prepare and file a transcript if a party requests one. It clarifies that the person or service that transcribes the recording of a proceeding is considered the reporter under this rule if the proceeding is recorded without a reporter being present in the courtroom. It also makes clear that the reporter must file with the bankruptcy court the acknowledgment of the request for a transcript and statement of the expected completion date, the completed transcript, and any request for an extension of time beyond 30 days for completion of the transcript.

Subdivision (b) requires the bankruptcy clerk to transmit the record to the district, BAP or circuit clerk when the record is complete and, in the case of appeals under 28 U.S.C. §158(a)(3), leave to appeal has been granted. This transmission will be made electronically, either by sending the record itself or sending notice that the record can be accessed electronically. The court where the appeal is pending may, however, require that a paper copy of some or all of the record be furnished, in which case the clerk of that court will direct the appellant to provide the copies. If the appellant does not do so, the bankruptcy clerk must prepare the copies at the appellant's expense.

In a change from former Rule 8007(b), subdivision (b) of this rule no longer directs the clerk of the appellate court to docket the appeal upon receipt of the record from the bankruptcy clerk. Instead, under Rules 8003(d) and 8004(c) and F.R.App.P. 12(a), the district, BAP, or circuit clerk dockets the appeal upon receipt of the notice of appeal or, in the case of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3), the notice of appeal and the motion for leave to appeal. Accordingly, by the time the district, BAP, or circuit clerk receives the record, the appeal will already be docketed in that court. The clerk of the appeallate court must indicate on the docket and give notice to the parties to the appeal when the transmission of the record is received. Under Rule 8018(a) and F.R.App.P. 31, the briefing schedule is generally based on that date.

Subdivision (c) is derived from former Rule 8007(c) and F.R.App.P. 11(g). It provides for the transmission of parts of the record that the parties designate for consideration by the district court, BAP, or court of appeals in ruling on specified preliminary motions filed prior to the preparation and transmission of the record on appeal.

1	(a) FILING.
2	(1) With the Clerk. A document required or
3	permitted to be filed in a district court or BAP must be filed
4	with the clerk of that court.
5	(2) Method and Timeliness.
6	(A) In general. Filing may be
7	accomplished by transmission to the clerk of the
8	district court or BAP. Except as provided in
9	subdivision (a)(2)(B) and (C), filing is timely only
10	if the clerk receives the document within the time
11	fixed for filing.
12	(B) Brief or Appendix. A brief or appendix
13	is also timely filed if, on or before the last day for
14	filing, it is:
15	(i) mailed to the clerk by first-class
16	mail—or other class of mail that is at least
17	as expeditious—postage prepaid, if the
18	district court's or BAP's procedures permit
19	or require a brief or appendix to be filed by
20	mailing; or
21	(ii) dispatched to a third-party
22	commercial carrier for delivery within 3

Rule 8011. Filing and Service; Signature

23	days to the clerk, if the court's procedures so
24	permit or require.
25	(C) Inmate Filing. A document filed by an
26	inmate confined in an institution is timely if
27	deposited in the institution's internal mailing
28	system on or before the last day for filing. If the
29	institution has a system designed for legal mail, the
30	inmate must use that system to receive the benefit
31	of this rule. Timely filing may be shown by a
32	declaration in compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746 or
33	by a notarized statement, either of which must set
34	forth the date of deposit and state that first-class
35	postage has been prepaid.
36	(D) Copies . If a document is filed
37	electronically, no paper copy is required. If a
38	document is filed by mail or delivery to the district
39	court or BAP, no additional copies are required.
40	But the district court or BAP may require by local
41	rule or by order in a particular case the filing or
42	furnishing of a specified number of paper copies.
43	(3) Clerk's Refusal of Documents. The court's
44	clerk must not refuse to accept for filing any document
45	transmitted for that purpose solely because it is not

46	presented in proper form as required by these rules or by
47	any local rule or practice.
48	(b) SERVICE OF ALL DOCUMENTS REQUIRED.
49	Unless a rule requires service by the clerk, a party must, at or
50	before the time of the filing of a document, serve it on the other
51	parties to the appeal. Service on a party represented by counsel
52	must be made on the party's counsel.
53	(c) MANNER OF SERVICE.
54	(1) Methods. Service must be made electronically,
55	unless it is being made by or on an individual who is not
56	represented by counsel or the court's governing rules
57	permit or require service by mail or other means of
58	delivery. Service may be made by or on an unrepresented
59	party by any of the following methods:
60	(A) personal delivery;
61	(B) mail; or
62	(C) third-party commercial carrier for
63	delivery within 3 days.
64	(2) When Service Is Complete. Service by
65	electronic means is complete on transmission, unless the
66	party making service receives notice that the document was
67	not transmitted successfully. Service by mail or by
68	commercial carrier is complete on mailing or delivery to

69	the carrier.
70	(d) PROOF OF SERVICE.
71	(1) What Is Required. A document presented for
72	filing must contain either:
73	(A) an acknowledgment of service by the
74	person served; or
75	(B) proof of service consisting of a
76	statement by the person who made service
77	certifying:
78	(i) the date and manner of service;
79	(ii) the names of the persons served;
80	and
81	(iii) the mail or electronic address,
82	the fax number, or the address of the place
83	of delivery, as appropriate for the manner of
84	service, for each person served.
85	(2) Delayed Proof. The district or BAP clerk may
86	permit documents to be filed without acknowledgment or
87	proof of service, but must require the acknowledgment or
88	proof to be filed promptly thereafter.
89	(3) Brief or Appendix . When a brief or appendix is
90	filed, the proof of service must also state the date and
91	manner by which it was filed.

92	(e) SIGNATURE. Every document filed electronically
93	must include the electronic signature of the person filing it or, if
94	the person is represented, the electronic signature of counsel. The
95	electronic signature must be provided by electronic means that are
96	consistent with any technical standards that the Judicial
97	Conference of the United States establishes. Every document filed
98	in paper form must be signed by the person filing the document or,
99	if the person is represented, by counsel.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8008 and F.R.App.P. 25. It adopts some of the additional details of the appellate rule, and it provides greater recognition of the possibility of electronic filing and service.

Subdivision (a) governs the filing of documents in the district court or BAP. Consistent with other provisions of these Part VIII rules, subdivision (a)(2) requires electronic filing of documents, including briefs and appendices, unless the district court's or BAP's procedures permit or require other methods of delivery to the court. An electronic filing is timely if it is received by the district or BAP clerk within the time fixed for filing. No additional copies need to be submitted when documents are filed electronically, by mail, or by delivery unless the district court or BAP requires them.

Subdivision (a)(3) provides that the district or BAP clerk may not refuse to accept a document for filing solely because its form does not comply with these rules or any local rule or practice. The district court or BAP may, however, direct the correction of any deficiency in any document that does not conform to the requirements of these rules or applicable local rules, and may prescribe such other relief as the court deems appropriate.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) address the service of documents in the district court or BAP. Except for documents that the district or BAP clerk must serve, a party that makes a filing must serve copies of the document on the other parties to the appeal. Service on represented parties must be made on counsel. Subdivision (c) expresses the general requirement under these Part VIII rules that documents be sent electronically. See Rule 8001(c).

Local court rules, however, may provide for other means of service, and subdivision (c) specifies non-electronic methods of service by or on an unrepresented party. Electronic service is complete upon transmission, unless the party making service receives notice that the transmission did not reach the person intended to be served in a readable form.

Subdivision (d) retains the former rule's provisions regarding proof of service of a document filed in the district court or BAP. In addition, it provides that a certificate of service must state the mail or electronic address or fax number to which service was made.

Subdivision (e) is a new provision that requires an electronic signature of counsel or an unrepresented filer for documents that are filed electronically in the district court or BAP. A local rule may specify a method of providing an electronic signature that is consistent with any standards established by the Judicial Conference of the United States. Paper copies of documents filed in the district court or BAP must bear an actual signature of counsel or the filer. By requiring a signature, subdivision (e) ensures that a readily identifiable attorney or party takes responsibility for every document that is filed.

1	(a) WHO MUST FILE. Any nongovernmental corporate
2	party appearing in the district court or BAP must file a statement
3	that identifies any parent corporation and any publicly held
4	corporation that owns 10% or more of its stock or states that there
5	is no such corporation.
6	(b) TIME TO FILE; SUPPLEMENTAL FILING. A party
7	must file the statement with its principal brief or upon filing a
8	motion, response, petition, or answer in the district court or BAP,
9	whichever occurs first, unless a local rule requires earlier filing.
10	Even if the statement has already been filed, the party's principal
11	brief must include a statement before the table of contents. A party
12	must supplement its statement whenever the required information
13	changes.

Rule 8012. Corporate Disclosure Statement

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from F.R.App.P. 26.1. It requires the filing of corporate disclosure statements and supplemental statements in order to assist district court and BAP judges in determining whether they should recuse themselves. If filed separately from a brief, motion, response, petition, or answer, the statement must be filed and served in accordance with Rule 8011. Under Rule 8015(a)(7)(B)(iii), the corporate disclosure statement is not included in calculating applicable word-count limitations.

Rule 8013. Motions; Intervention

	(a) CONTENTS OF A MOTION; RESPONSE; REPLY.
2	(1) Request for Relief. A request for an order or
3	other relief is made by filing a motion with the district or
4	BAP clerk, with proof of service on the other parties to the
5	appeal.
6	(2) Contents of a Motion.
7	(A) Grounds and the Relief Sought. A
8	motion must state with particularity the grounds for
9	the motion, the relief sought, and the legal argument
10	necessary to support it.
11	(B) Motion to Expedite an Appeal. A
12	motion to expedite an appeal must explain what
13	justifies considering the appeal ahead of other
14	matters. If the district court or BAP grants the
15	motion, it may accelerate the time to transmit the
16	record, the deadline for filing briefs and other
17	documents, oral argument, and the resolution of the
18	appeal. A motion to expedite an appeal may be
19	filed as an emergency motion under subdivision (d).
20	(C) Accompanying Documents.
	(i) Any affidavit or other document
21	(i) They arriduate of other document

23	served and filed with the motion.
24	(ii) An affidavit must contain only
25	factual information, not legal argument.
26	(iii) A motion seeking substantive
27	relief must include a copy of the bankruptcy
28	court's judgment, order, or decree, and any
29	accompanying opinion as a separate exhibit.
30	(D) Documents Barred or Not Required.
31	(i) A separate brief supporting or
32	responding to a motion must not be filed.
33	(ii) A notice of motion is not
34	required.
35	(iii) A proposed order is not
36	required.
37	(3) Response and Reply; Time to File . Unless the
38	district court or BAP orders otherwise,
39	(A) any party to the appeal may file a
40	response to the motion within 7 days after service of
41	the motion; and
42	(B) the movant may file a reply to a
43	response within 7 days after service of the response,
44	but may only address matters raised in the response.
45	(b) DISPOSITION OF A MOTION FOR A

46	PROCEDURAL ORDER. The district court or BAP may rule on a
47	motion for a procedural order—including a motion under Rule
48	9006(b) or (c)—at any time without awaiting a response. A party
49	adversely affected by the ruling may move to reconsider, vacate, or
50	modify it within 7 days after the procedural order is served.
51	(c) ORAL ARGUMENT. A motion will be decided
52	without oral argument unless the district court or BAP orders
53	otherwise.
54	(d) EMERGENCY MOTION.
55	(1) Noting the Emergency . When a movant
56	requests expedited action on a motion because irreparable
57	harm would occur during the time needed to consider a
58	response, the movant must insert the word "Emergency"
59	before the title of the motion.
60	(2) Contents of the Motion. The emergency motion
61	must
62	(A) be accompanied by an affidavit setting
63	out the nature of the emergency;
64	(B) state whether all grounds for it were
65	submitted to the bankruptcy court and, if not, why
66	the motion should not be remanded for the
67	bankruptcy court to reconsider;
68	(C) include the e-mail addresses, office

69	addresses, and telephone numbers of moving
70	counsel and, when known, of opposing counsel and
71	any unrepresented parties to the appeal; and
72	(D) be served as prescribed by Rule 8011.
73	(3) Notifying Opposing Parties. Before filing an
74	emergency motion, the movant must make every
75	practicable effort to notify opposing counsel and any
76	unrepresented parties in time for them to respond. The
77	affidavit accompanying the emergency motion must state
78	when and how notice was given or state why giving it was
79	impracticable.
80	(e) POWER OF A SINGLE BAP JUDGE TO
81	ENTERTAIN A MOTION.
82	(1) Single Judge's Authority. A BAP judge may
83	act alone on any motion, but may not dismiss or otherwise
84	determine an appeal, deny a motion for leave to appeal, or
85	deny a motion for a stay pending appeal if denial would
86	make the appeal moot.
87	(2) Reviewing a Single Judge's Action. The BAP
88	may review a single judge's action, either on its own
89	motion or on a party's motion.
90	(f) FORM OF DOCUMENTS; PAGE LIMITS; NUMBER
91	OF COPIES.

92	(1) Format of a Paper Document. Rule 27(d)(1)
93	F.R.App.P. applies in the district court or BAP to a paper
94	version of a motion, response, or reply.
95	(2) Format of an Electronically Filed Document.
96	A motion, response, or reply filed electronically must
97	comply with the requirements for a paper version regarding
98	covers, line spacing, margins, typeface, and type style. It
99	must also comply with the page limits under paragraph (3).
100	(3) Page Limits. Unless the district court or BAP
101	orders otherwise:
102	(A) a motion or a response to a motion must
103	not exceed 20 pages, exclusive of the corporate
104	disclosure statement and accompanying documents
105	authorized by subdivision (a)(2)(C); and
106	(B) a reply to a response must not exceed
107	10 pages.
108	(4) Paper Copies. Paper copies must be provided
109	only if required by local rule or by an order in a particular
110	case.
111	(g) INTERVENING IN AN APPEAL. Unless a statute
112	provides otherwise, an entity that seeks to intervene in an appeal
113	pending in the district court or BAP must move for leave to
114	intervene and serve a copy of the motion on the parties to the

115	appeal. The motion or other notice of intervention authorized by
116	statute must be filed within 30 days after the appeal is docketed. It
117	must concisely state the movant's interest, the grounds for
118	intervention, whether intervention was sought in the bankruptcy
119	court, why intervention is being sought at this stage of the
120	proceeding, and why participating as an amicus curiae would not
121	be adequate.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8011 and F.R.App.P. 15(d) and 27. It adopts many of the provisions of the appellate rules that specify the form and page limits of motions and accompanying documents, while also adjusting those requirements for electronic filing. In addition, it prescribes the procedure for seeking to intervene in the district court or BAP.

Subdivision (a) retains much of the content of former Rule 8011(a) regarding the contents of a motion, response, and reply. It also specifies the documents that may accompany a motion. Unlike the former rule, which allowed the filing of separate briefs supporting a motion, subdivision (a) now adopts the practice of F.R.App.P. 27(a) of prohibiting the filing of briefs supporting or responding to a motion. The motion or response itself must include the party's legal arguments.

Subdivision (a)(2)(B) clarifies the procedure for seeking to expedite an appeal. A motion under this provision seeks to expedite the time for the disposition of the appeal as a whole, whereas an emergency motion which is addressed by subdivision (d)—typically involves an urgent request for relief short of disposing of the entire appeal (for example, an emergency request for a stay pending appeal to prevent imminent mootness). In appropriate cases—such as when there is an urgent need to resolve the appeal quickly to prevent harm—a party may file a motion to expedite the appeal as an emergency motion.

Subdivision (b) retains the substance of former Rule 8011(b). It authorizes the district court or BAP to act on a motion for a procedural order without awaiting a response to the motion. It specifies that a party seeking reconsideration, vacation, or modification of the order must file a motion within 7 days after service of the order. Subdivision (c) continues the practice of former Rule 8011(c) and F.R.App.P. 27(e) of dispensing with oral argument of motions in the district court or BAP unless the court orders otherwise.

Subdivision (d), which carries forward the content of former Rule 8011(d), governs emergency motions that the district court or BAP may rule on without awaiting a response when necessary to prevent irreparable harm. A party seeking expedited action on a motion in the district court or BAP must explain the nature of the emergency, whether all grounds in support of the motion were first presented to the bankruptcy court, and, if not, why the district court or BAP should not remand for reconsideration. The moving party must also explain the steps taken to notify opposing counsel and any unrepresented parties in advance of filing the emergency motion and, if they were not notified, why it was impracticable to do so.

Subdivision (e), like former Rule 8011(e) and similar to F.R.App.P. 27(c), authorizes a single BAP judge to rule on certain motions. This authority, however, does not extend to issuing rulings that would dispose of the appeal. For that reason, the rule now prohibits a single BAP judge from denying a motion for a stay pending appeal when the effect of that ruling would be to require dismissal of the appeal as moot. A ruling by a single judge is subject to review by the BAP.

Subdivision (f) incorporates by reference the formatting and appearance requirements of F.R.App.P. 27(d)(1). When paper versions of the listed documents are filed, they must comply with the requirements of the specified rules regarding reproduction, covers, binding, appearance, and format. When these documents are filed electronically, they must comply with the relevant requirements of the specified rules regarding covers and format. Subdivision (f) also specifies page limits for motions, responses, and replies, which is a matter that former Rule 8011 did not address.

Subdivision (g) clarifies the procedure for seeking to intervene in a proceeding that has been appealed. It is based on F.R.App.P. 15(d), but it also requires the moving party to explain why intervention is being sought at the appellate stage. The former Part VIII rules did not address intervention.

Rule 8014. Briefs

1	(a) APPELLANT'S BRIEF. The appellant's brief must
2	contain the following under appropriate headings and in the order
3	indicated:
4	(1) a corporate disclosure statement, if required by
5	Rule 8012;
6	(2) a table of contents, with page references;
7	(3) a table of authorities—cases (alphabetically
8	arranged), statutes, and other authorities—with references
9	to the pages of the brief where they are cited;
10	(4) a jurisdictional statement, including:
11	(A) the basis for the bankruptcy court's
12	subject-matter jurisdiction, with citations to
13	applicable statutory provisions and stating relevant
14	facts establishing jurisdiction;
15	(B) the basis for the district court's or
16	BAP's jurisdiction, with citations to applicable
17	statutory provisions and stating relevant facts
18	establishing jurisdiction;
19	(C) the filing dates establishing the
20	timeliness of the appeal; and
21	(D) an assertion that the appeal is from a
22	final judgment, order, or decree, or information

23	establishing the district court's or BAP's
24	jurisdiction on another basis;
25	(5) a statement of the issues presented and, for each
26	one, a concise statement of the applicable standard of
27	appellate review;
28	(6) a concise statement of the case setting out the
29	facts relevant to the issues submitted for review, describing
30	the relevant procedural history, and identifying the rulings
31	presented for review, with appropriate references to the
32	record;
33	(7) a summary of the argument, which must contain
34	a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments
35	made in the body of the brief, and which must not merely
36	repeat the argument headings;
37	(8) the argument, which must contain the
38	appellant's contentions and the reasons for them, with
39	citations to the authorities and parts of the record on which
40	the appellant relies;
41	(9) a short conclusion stating the precise relief
42	sought; and
43	(10) the certificate of compliance, if required by
44	Rule 8015(a)(7) or (b).
45	(b) APPELLEE'S BRIEF. The appellee's brief must

46	conform to the requirements of subdivision $(a)(1)$ - (8) and (10) ,
47	except that none of the following need appear unless the appellee
48	is dissatisfied with the appellant's statement:
49	(1) the jurisdictional statement;
50	(2) the statement of the issues and the applicable
51	standard of appellate review; and
52	(3) the statement of the case.
53	(c) REPLY BRIEF. The appellant may file a brief in reply
54	to the appellee's brief. A reply brief must comply with the
55	requirements of subdivision (a)(2)-(3).
56	(d) STATUTES, RULES, REGULATIONS, OR
57	SIMILAR AUTHORITY. If the court's determination of the
58	issues presented requires the study of the Code or other statutes,
59	rules, regulations, or similar authority, the relevant parts must be
60	set out in the brief or in an addendum.
61	(e) BRIEFS IN A CASE INVOLVING MULTIPLE
62	APPELLANTS OR APPELLEES. In a case involving more than
63	one appellant or appellee, including consolidated cases, any
64	number of appellants or appellees may join in a brief, and any
65	party may adopt by reference a part of another's brief. Parties may
66	also join in reply briefs.
77	(f) CITATION OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITIES.
78	If pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention

79	after the party's brief has been filed-or after oral argument but
80	before a decision—a party may promptly advise the district or
81	BAP clerk by a signed submission setting forth the citations. The
82	submission, which must be served on the other parties to the
83	appeal, must state the reasons for the supplemental citations,
84	referring either to the pertinent page of a brief or to a point argued
85	orally. The body of the submission must not exceed 350 words.
86	Any response must be made within 7 days after the party is served,
87	unless the court orders otherwise, and must be similarly limited.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8010(a) and (b) and F.R.App.P. 28. Adopting much of the content of Rule 28, it provides greater detail than former Rule 8010 contained regarding appellate briefs.

Subdivision (a) prescribes the content and structure of the appellant's brief. It largely follows former Rule 8010(a)(1), but, to ensure national uniformity, it eliminates the provision authorizing a district court or BAP to alter these requirements. Subdivision (a)(1) provides that when Rule 8012 requires an appellant to file a corporate disclosure statement, it must be placed at the beginning of the appellant's brief. Subdivision (a)(10) is new. It implements the requirement under Rule 8015(a)(7)(C) and (b) for the filing of a certificate of compliance with the limit on the number of words or lines allowed to be in a brief.

Subdivision (b) carries forward the provisions of former Rule 8010(a)(2).

Subdivision (c) is derived from F.R.App.P. 28(c). It authorizes an appellant to file a reply brief, which will generally complete the briefing process.

Subdivision (d) is similar to former Rule 8010(b), but it is reworded to reflect the likelihood that briefs will generally be filed electronically rather than in paper form. Subdivision (e) mirrors F.R.App.P. 28(i). It authorizes multiple appellants or appellees to join in a single brief. It also allows a party to incorporate by reference portions of another party's brief.

Subdivision (f) adopts the procedures of F.R.App.P. 28(j) with respect to the filing of supplemental authorities with the district court or BAP after a brief has been filed or after oral argument. Unlike the appellate rule, it specifies a period of 7 days for filing a response to a submission of supplemental authorities. The supplemental submission and response must comply with the signature requirements of Rule 8011(e).

Rule 8015. Form and Length of Briefs; Form of Appendices and Other Papers.

1	(a) PAPER COPIES OF A BRIEF. If a paper copy of a
2	brief may or must be filed, the following provisions apply:
3	(1) Reproduction.
4	(A) A brief may be reproduced by any
5	process that yields a clear black image on light
6	paper. The paper must be opaque and unglazed.
7	Only one side of the paper may be used.
8	(B) Text must be reproduced with a clarity
9	that equals or exceeds the output of a laser printer.
10	(C) Photographs, illustrations, and tables
11	may be reproduced by any method that results in a
12	good copy of the original. A glossy finish is
13	acceptable if the original is glossy.
14	(2) Cover . The front cover of a brief must contain:
15	(A) the number of the case centered at the
16	top;
17	(B) the name of the court;
18	(C) the title of the case as prescribed by
19	Rule 8003(d)(2) or 8004(c)(2);
20	(D) the nature of the proceeding and the
21	name of the court below;
22	(E) the title of the brief, identifying the

23	party or parties for whom the brief is filed; and
24	(F) the name, office address, telephone
25	number, and e-mail address of counsel representing
26	the party for whom the brief is filed.
27	(3) Binding . The brief must be bound in any
28	manner that is secure, does not obscure the text, and
29	permits the brief to lie reasonably flat when open.
30	(4) Paper Size, Line Spacing, and Margins. The
31	brief must be on $8\frac{1}{2}$ -by-11 inch paper. The text must be
32	double-spaced, but quotations more than two lines long
33	may be indented and single-spaced. Headings and
34	footnotes may be single-spaced. Margins must be at least
35	one inch on all four sides. Page numbers may be placed in
36	the margins, but no text may appear there.
37	(5) Typeface . Either a proportionally spaced or
38	monospaced face may be used.
39	(A) A proportionally spaced face must
40	include serifs, but sans-serif type may be used in
41	headings and captions. A proportionally spaced
42	face must be 14-point or larger.
43	(B) A monospaced face may not contain
44	more than 10 ¹ / ₂ characters per inch.
45	(6) Type Styles . A brief must be set in plain, roman

46	style, although italics or boldface may be used for
47	emphasis. Case names must be italicized or underlined.
48	(7) Length.
49	(A) Page limitation. A principal brief must
50	not exceed 30 pages, or a reply brief 15 pages,
51	unless it complies with (B) and (C).
52	(B) Type-volume limitation.
53	(i) A principal brief is acceptable if:
54	• it contains no more
55	than 14,000 words; or
56	• it uses a monospaced
57	face and contains no more
58	than 1,300 lines of text.
59	(ii) A reply brief is acceptable if it
60	contains no more than half of the type
61	volume specified in item (i).
62	(iii) Headings, footnotes, and
63	quotations count toward the word and line
64	limitations. The corporate disclosure
65	statement, table of contents, table of
66	citations, statement with respect to oral
67	argument, any addendum containing
68	statutes, rules, or regulations, and any

69	certificates of counsel do not count toward
70	the limitation.
71	(C) Certificate of Compliance.
72	(i) A brief submitted under
73	subdivision (a)(7)(B) must include a
74	certificate signed by the attorney, or an
75	unrepresented party, that the brief complies
76	with the type-volume limitation. The person
77	preparing the certificate may rely on the
78	word or line count of the word-processing
79	system used to prepare the brief. The
80	certificate must state either:
81	• the number of words in the
82	brief; or
83	• the number of lines of
84	monospaced type in the brief.
85	(ii) The certification requirement is
86	satisfied by a certificate of compliance that
87	conforms substantially to the appropriate
88	Official Form.
89	(b) ELECTRONICALLY FILED BRIEFS. A brief filed
90	electronically must comply with subdivision (a), except for (a)(1),
91	(a)(3), and the paper requirement of $(a)(4)$.

92	(c) PAPER COPIES OF APPENDICES. A paper copy of
93	an appendix must comply with subdivision (a)(1), (2), (3), and (4),
94	with the following exceptions:
95	(1) An appendix may include a legible photocopy
96	of any document found in the record or of a printed
97	decision.
98	(2) When necessary to facilitate inclusion of odd-
99	sized documents such as technical drawings, an appendix
100	may be a size other than 8 ¹ / ₂ -by-11 inches, and need not lie
101	reasonably flat when opened.
102	(d) ELECTRONICALLY FILED APPENDICES. An
103	appendix filed electronically must comply with subdivision (a)(2)
104	and (4), except for the paper requirement of $(a)(4)$.
105	(e) OTHER DOCUMENTS.
106	(1) Motion . Rule 8013(f) governs the form of a
107	motion, response, or reply.
108	(2) Paper Copies of Other Documents. A paper
109	copy of any other document, other than a submission under
110	Rule 8014(f), must comply with subdivision (a), with the
111	following exceptions:
112	(A) A cover is not necessary if the caption
113	and signature page together contain the information
114	required by subdivision (a)(2).

115	(B) Subdivision (a)(7) does not apply.
116	(3) Other Documents Filed Electronically. Any
117	other document filed electronically, other than a
118	submission under Rule 8014(f), must comply with the
119	appearance requirements of paragraph (2).
120	(f) LOCAL VARIATION. A district court or BAP must
121	accept documents that comply with the applicable requirements of
122	this rule. By local rule or order in a particular case, a district court
123	or BAP may accept documents that do not meet all of the
124	requirements of this rule.

This rule is derived primarily from F.R.App.P. 32. Former Rule 8010(c) prescribed page limits for principal briefs and reply briefs. Those limits are now addressed by subdivision (a)(7) of this rule. In addition, the rule incorporates most of the detail of F.R.App.P. 32 regarding the appearance and format of briefs, appendices, and other documents, along with new provisions that apply when those documents are filed electronically.

Subdivision (a) prescribes the form requirements for briefs that are filed in paper form. It incorporates F.R.App.P. 32(a), except it does not include color requirements for brief covers, it requires the cover of a brief to include counsel's e-mail address, and cross-references to the appropriate bankruptcy rules are substituted for references to the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Subdivision (a)(7) decreases the page limits that were permitted by former Rule 8010(c)—from 50 to 30 pages for a principal brief and from 25 to 15 for a reply brief—to achieve consistency with F.R.App.P. 32(a)(7). It also permits the limits on the length of a brief to be measured by a word or line count, as an alternative to a page limit. By adopting the same limits on brief length that the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure impose, the amendment seeks to prevent a party whose case is eventually appealed to the court of appeals from having to substantially reduce the length of its brief in that court.

Subdivision (b) adapts for briefs that are electronically filed subdivision (a)'s form requirements. With the use of electronic filing, the method of reproduction, method of binding, and use of paper become irrelevant. But information required on the cover, formatting requirements, and limits on brief length remain the same.

Subdivisions (c) and (d) prescribe the form requirements for appendices. Subdivision (c), applicable to paper appendices, is derived from F.R.App.P. 32(b), and subdivision (d) adapts those requirements for electronically filed appendices.

Subdivision (e), which is based on F.R.App.P. 32(c), addresses the form required for documents—in paper form or electronically filed—that these rules do not otherwise cover.

Subdivision (f), like F.R.App.P. 32(e), provides assurance to lawyers and parties that compliance with this rule's form requirements will allow a brief or other document to be accepted by any district court or BAP. A court may, however, by local rule or by order in a particular case choose to accept briefs and documents that do not comply with all of this rule's requirements.

Under Rule 8011(e), the party filing the document or, if represented, its counsel must sign all briefs and other submissions. If the document is filed electronically, an electronic signature must be provided in accordance with Rule 8011(e).

Rule 8016. Cross-Appeals

1	(a) APPLICABILITY. This rule applies to a case in which
2	a cross-appeal is filed. Rules 8014(a)-(c), 8015(a)(7)(A)-(B), and
3	8018(a) do not apply to such a case, except as otherwise provided
4	in this rule.
5	(b) DESIGNATION OF APPELLANT. The party who
6	files a notice of appeal first is the appellant for purposes of this
7	rule and Rules 8018(b) and 8019. If notices are filed on the same
8	day, the plaintiff, petitioner, applicant, or movant in the proceeding
9	below is the appellant. These designations may be modified by the
10	parties' agreement or by court order.
11	(c) BRIEFS. In a case involving a cross-appeal:
12	(1) Appellant's Principal Brief. The appellant must
13	file a principal brief in the appeal. That brief must comply
14	with Rule 8014(a).
15	(2) Appellee's Principal and Response Brief. The
16	appellee must file a principal brief in the cross-appeal and
17	must, in the same brief, respond to the principal brief in the
18	appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 8014(a), except
19	that the brief need not include a statement of the case
20	unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the appellant's
21	statement.
22	(3) Appellant's Response and Reply Brief. The

23	appellant must file a brief that responds to the principal
24	brief in the cross-appeal and may, in the same brief, reply
25	to the response in the appeal. That brief must comply with
26	Rule $8014(a)(2)$ -(8) and (10), except that none of the
27	following need appear unless the appellant is dissatisfied
28	with the appellee's statement in the cross-appeal:
29	(A) the jurisdictional statement;
30	(B) the statement of the issues and the
31	applicable standard of appellate review; and
32	(C) the statement of the case.
33	(4) Appellee's Reply Brief. The appellee may file a
34	brief in reply to the response in the cross-appeal. That brief
35	must comply with Rule 8014(a)(2)-(3) and (10) and must
36	be limited to the issues presented by the cross-appeal.
37	(d) LENGTH.
38	(1) Page Limitation. Unless it complies with
39	paragraphs (2) and (3), the appellant's principal brief must
40	not exceed 30 pages; the appellee's principal and response
41	brief, 35 pages; the appellant's response and reply brief, 30
42	pages; and the appellee's reply brief, 15 pages.
43	(2) Type-Volume Limitation.
44	(A) The appellant's principal brief or the
45	appellant's response and reply brief is acceptable if:

46	(i) it contains no more than 14,000
47	words; or
48	(ii) it uses a monospaced face and
49	contains no more than 1,300 lines of text.
50	(B) The appellee's principal and response
51	brief is acceptable if:
52	(i) it contains no more than 16,500
53	words; or
54	(ii) it uses a monospaced face and
55	contains no more than 1,500 lines of text.
56	(C) The appellee's reply brief is acceptable
57	if it contains no more than half of the type volume
58	specified in subparagraph (A).
59	(3) Certificate of Compliance. A brief submitted
60	either electronically or in paper form under paragraph (2)
61	must comply with Rule 8015(a)(7)(C).
62	(e) TIME TO SERVE AND FILE A BRIEF. Briefs must
63	be served and filed as follows, unless the district court or BAP by
64	order in a particular case excuses the filing of briefs or specifies
65	different time limits:
66	(1) the appellant's principal brief, within 30 days
67	after the docketing of notice that the record has been
68	transmitted or is available electronically;

69	(2) the appellee's principal and response brief,
70	within 30 days after the appellant's principal brief is
71	served;
72	(3) the appellant's response and reply brief, within
73	30 days after the appellee's principal and response brief is
74	served; and
75	(4) the appellee's reply brief, within 14 days after
76	the appellant's response and reply brief is served, but at
77	least 7 days before scheduled argument unless the district
78	court or BAP, for good cause, allows a later filing.
79	(f) FAILURE TO FILE ON TIME. If an appellant or
80	appellee fails to file a principal brief on time, or within an
81	extended time authorized by the district court or BAP, the appeal
82	or cross-appeal may be dismissed. Unless the district court or
83	BAP orders otherwise, an appellee who fails to file a responsive
84	brief will not be heard at oral argument on the appeal, and an
85	appellant who fails to file a responsive brief will not be heard at
86	oral argument on the cross-appeal.

This rule is derived from F.R.App.P. 28.1. It governs the timing, content, length, filing, and service of briefs in bankruptcy appeals in which there is a cross-appeal. The former Part VIII rules did not separately address the topic of cross-appeals.

Subdivision (b) prescribes which party is designated the appellant

when there is a cross-appeal. Generally, the first to file a notice of appeal will be the appellant.

Subdivision (c) specifies the briefs that the appellant and the appellee may file. Because of the dual role of the parties to the appeal and cross-appeal, each party is permitted to file a principal brief and a response to the opposing party's brief, as well as a reply brief. For the appellee, the principal brief in the cross-appeal and the response in the appeal are combined into a single brief. The appellant, on the other hand, initially files a principal brief in the appeal and later files a response to the appellee's principal brief in the cross-appeal, along with a reply brief in the appeal. The final brief that may be filed is the appellee's reply brief in the crossappeal.

Subdivision (d), which prescribes page limits for briefs, is adopted from F.R.App.P. 28.1(e). It applies to briefs that are filed electronically, as well as to those filed in paper form. Like Rule 8015(a)(7), it imposes limits measured by either the number of pages or the number of words or lines of text.

Subdivision (e) governs the time for filing briefs in cases in which there is a cross-appeal. It adapts the provisions of F.R.App.P. 28.1(f).

Subdivision (f) authorizes the dismissal of an appeal or cross-appeal if the appellant or cross-appellant fails to timely file a principal brief, and it denies oral argument to a party who fails to file a responsive brief unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise.

Rule 8017. Brief of an Amicus Curiae

1	(a) WHEN PERMITTED. The United States or its officer
2	or agency or a state may file an amicus-curiae brief without the
3	consent of the parties or leave of court. Any other amicus curiae
4	may file a brief only by leave of court or if the brief states that all
5	parties have consented to its filing. On its own motion, and with
6	notice to all parties to an appeal, the district court or BAP may
7	request a brief by an amicus curiae.
8	(b) MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE. The motion must
9	be accompanied by the proposed brief and state:
10	(1) the movant's interest; and
11	(2) the reason why an amicus brief is desirable and
12	why the matters asserted are relevant to the disposition of
13	the appeal.
14	(c) CONTENTS AND FORM. An amicus brief must
15	comply with Rule 8015. In addition to the requirements of Rule
16	8015, the cover must identify the party or parties supported and
17	indicate whether the brief supports affirmance or reversal. If an
18	amicus curiae is a corporation, the brief must include a disclosure
19	statement like that required of parties by Rule 8012. An amicus
20	brief need not comply with Rule 8014, but must include the
21	following:
22	(1) a table of contents, with page references;

23	(2) a table of authorities—cases (alphabetically
24	arranged), statutes, and other authorities—with references
25	to the pages of the brief where they are cited;
26	(3) a concise statement of the identity of the amicus
27	curiae, its interest in the case, and the source of its
28	authority to file;
29	(4) unless the amicus curiae is one listed in the first
30	sentence of subdivision (a), a statement that indicates
31	whether:
32	(A) a party's counsel authored the brief in
33	whole or in part;
34	(B) a party or a party's counsel contributed
35	money that was intended to fund preparing or
36	submitting the brief; and
37	(C) a person—other than the amicus curiae,
38	its members, or its counsel-contributed money that
39	was intended to fund preparing or submitting the
40	brief and, if so, identifies each such person;
41	(5) an argument, which may be preceded by a
42	summary and need not include a statement of the applicable
43	standard of review; and
44	(6) a certificate of compliance, if required by Rule
45	8015(a)(7)(C) or 8015(b).

46	(d) LENGTH. Except by the district court's or BAP's
47	permission, an amicus brief must be no more than one-half the
48	maximum length authorized by these rules for a party's principal
49	brief. If the court grants a party permission to file a longer brief,
50	that extension does not affect the length of an amicus brief.
51	(e) TIME FOR FILING. An amicus curiae must file its
52	brief, accompanied by a motion for filing when necessary, no later
53	than 7 days after the principal brief of the party being supported is
54	filed. An amicus curiae that does not support either party must file
55	its brief no later than 7 days after the appellant's principal brief is
56	filed. The district court or BAP may grant leave for later filing,
57	specifying the time within which an opposing party may answer.
58	(f) REPLY BRIEF. Except by the district court's or
59	BAP's permission, an amicus curiae may not file a reply brief.
60	(g) ORAL ARGUMENT. An amicus curiae may
61	participate in oral argument only with the district court's or BAP's
62	permission.

This rule is derived from F.R.App.P. 29. The former Part VIII rules did not address the participation by an amicus curiae in a bankruptcy appeal.

Subdivision (a) adopts the provisions of F.R.App.P. 29(a). In addition, it authorizes the district court or BAP on its own motion— with notice to the parties—to request the filing of a brief by an amicus curiae.

Subdivisions (b)-(g) adopt F.R.App.P. 29(b)-(g).

1	(a) TIME TO SERVE AND FILE A BRIEF. The
2	following rules apply unless the district court or BAP by order in a
3	particular case excuses the filing of briefs or specifies different
4	time limits:
5	(1) The appellant must serve and file a brief within
6	30 days after the docketing of notice that the record has
7	been transmitted or is available electronically.
8	(2) The appellee must serve and file a brief within
9	30 days after service of the appellant's brief.
10	(3) The appellant may serve and file a reply brief
11	within 14 days after service of the appellee's brief, but a
12	reply brief must be filed at least 7 days before scheduled
13	argument unless the district court or BAP, for good cause,
14	allows a later filing.
15	(4) If an appellant fails to file a brief on time or
16	within an extended time authorized by the district court or
17	BAP, the appeal may be dismissed. An appellee who fails
18	to file a brief will not be heard at oral argument unless the
19	district court or BAP grants permission.
20	(b) DUTY TO SERVE AND FILE AN APPENDIX TO
21	THE BRIEF.
22	(1) Appellant. Subject to subdivision (e) and Rule

Rule 8018. Serving and Filing Briefs; Appendices

23	8009(d), the appellant must serve and file with its principal
24	brief excerpts of the record as an appendix. It must contain
25	the following:
26	(A) the relevant entries in the bankruptcy
27	docket;
28	(B) the complaint and answer, or other
29	equivalent filings;
30	(C) the judgment, order, or decree from
31	which the appeal is taken;
32	(D) any other orders, pleadings, jury
33	instructions, findings, conclusions, or opinions
34	relevant to the appeal;
35	(E) the notice of appeal; and
36	(F) any relevant transcript or portion of it.
37	(2) Appellee . The appellee may also serve and file
38	with its brief an appendix that contains material required to
39	be included by the appellant or relevant to the appeal or
40	cross-appeal, but omitted by the appellant.
41	(3) Cross-Appellee. The appellant as cross-
42	appellee may also serve and file with its response an
43	appendix that contains material relevant to matters raised
44	initially by the principal brief in the cross-appeal, but
45	omitted by the cross-appellant.

46	(c) FORMAT OF THE APPENDIX. The appendix must
47	begin with a table of contents identifying the page at which each
48	part begins. The relevant docket entries must follow the table of
49	contents. Other parts of the record must follow chronologically.
50	When pages from the transcript of proceedings are placed in the
51	appendix, the transcript page numbers must be shown in brackets
52	immediately before the included pages. Omissions in the text of
53	documents or of the transcript must be indicated by asterisks.
54	Immaterial formal matters (captions, subscriptions,
55	acknowledgments, and the like) should be omitted.
56	(d) EXHIBITS. Exhibits designated for inclusion in the
57	appendix may be reproduced in a separate volume or volumes,
58	suitably indexed.
59	(e) APPEAL ON THE ORIGINAL RECORD WITHOUT
60	AN APPENDIX. The district court or BAP may, either by rule for
61	all cases or classes of cases or by order in a particular case,
62	dispense with the appendix and permit an appeal to proceed on the
63	original record, with the submission of any relevant parts of the
64	record that the district court or BAP orders the parties to file.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8009 and F.R.App.P. 30 and 31. Like former Rule 8009, it addresses the timing of serving and filing briefs and appendices, as well as the content and format of appendices. Rule 8011 governs the methods of filing and serving briefs and appendices.

The rule retains the bankruptcy practice of permitting the appellee to file its own appendix, rather than requiring the appellant to include in its appendix matters designated by the appellee. Rule 8016 governs the timing of serving and filing briefs when a cross-appeal is taken. This rule's provisions about appendices apply to all appeals, including cross-appeals.

Subdivision (a) retains former Rule 8009's provision that allows the district court or BAP to dispense with briefing or to provide different time periods than this rule specifies. It increases some of the time periods for filing briefs from the periods prescribed by the former rule, while still retaining shorter time periods than some provided by F.R.App.P. 31(a). The time for filing the appellant's brief is increased from 14 to 30 days after the docketing of the notice of the transmission of the record or notice of the availability of the record. That triggering event is equivalent to docketing the appeal under former Rule 8007. Appellate Rule 31(a)(1), by contrast, provides the appellant 40 days after the record is filed to file its brief. The shorter time period for bankruptcy appeals reflects the frequent need for greater expedition in the resolution of bankruptcy appeals, while still providing the appellant more time to prepare its brief than the former rule provided.

Subdivision (a)(2) similarly expands the time period for filing the appellee's brief from 14 to 30 days after the service of the appellant's brief. This period is the same as F.R. App. 31(a)(1) provides.

Subdivision (a)(3) retains the 14-day time period for filing a reply brief that the former rule prescribed, but it qualifies that period to ensure that the final brief is filed at least 7 days before oral argument.

If a district court or BAP has a mediation procedure for bankruptcy appeals, that procedure could affect when briefs must be filed. See Rule 8027.

Subdivision (a)(4) is new. Based on F.R.App.P. 31(c), it provides for actions that may be taken—dismissal of the appeal or denial of participation in oral argument—if the appellant or appellee fails to file its brief.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) govern the content and format of the appendix to a brief. Subdivision (b) is similar to former Rule 8009(b), and subdivision (c) is derived from F.R.App.P. 30(d).

Subdivision (d), which addresses the inclusion of exhibits in the appendix, is derived from F.R.App.P. 30(e).

Rule 8019. Oral Argument

1	(a) PARTY'S STATEMENT. Any party may file, or a
2	district court or BAP may require, a statement explaining why oral
3	argument should, or need not, be permitted.
4	(b) PRESUMPTION OF ORAL ARGUMENT AND
5	EXCEPTIONS. Oral argument must be allowed in every case
6	unless the district judge—or all the BAP judges assigned to hear
7	the appeal—examine the briefs and record and determine that oral
8	argument is unnecessary because
9	(1) the appeal is frivolous;
10	(2) the dispositive issue or issues have been
11	authoritatively decided; or
12	(3) the facts and legal arguments are adequately
13	presented in the briefs and record, and the decisional
14	process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.
15	(c) NOTICE OF ARGUMENT; POSTPONEMENT. The
16	district court or BAP must advise all parties of the date, time, and
17	place for oral argument, and the time allowed for each side. A
18	motion to postpone the argument or to allow longer argument must
19	be filed reasonably in advance of the hearing date.
20	(d) ORDER AND CONTENTS OF ARGUMENT. The
21	appellant opens and concludes the argument. Counsel must not
22	read at length from briefs, the record, or authorities.

23	(e) CROSS-APPEALS AND SEPARATE APPEALS. If
24	there is a cross-appeal, Rule 8016(b) determines which party is the
25	appellant and which is the appellee for the purposes of oral
26	argument. Unless the district court or BAP directs otherwise, a
27	cross-appeal or separate appeal must be argued when the initial
28	appeal is argued. Separate parties should avoid duplicative
29	argument.
30	(f) NONAPPEARANCE OF A PARTY. If the appellee
31	fails to appear for argument, the district court or BAP may hear the
32	appellant's argument. If the appellant fails to appear for argument,
33	the district court or BAP may hear the appellee's argument. If
34	neither party appears, the case will be decided on the briefs unless
35	the district court or BAP orders otherwise.
36	(g) SUBMISSION ON BRIEFS. The parties may agree to
37	submit a case for decision on the briefs, but the district court or
38	BAP may direct that the case be argued.
39	(h) USE OF PHYSICAL EXHIBITS AT ARGUMENT;
40	REMOVAL. Counsel intending to use physical exhibits other than
41	documents at the argument must arrange to place them in the
42	courtroom on the day of the argument before the court convenes.
43	After the argument, counsel must remove the exhibits from the
44	courtroom unless the district court or BAP directs otherwise. The
45	clerk may destroy or dispose of the exhibits if counsel does not

46 reclaim them within a reasonable time after the clerk gives notice

47 to remove them.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule generally retains the provisions of former Rule 8012 and adds much of the additional detail of F.R.App.P. 34. By incorporating the more detailed provisions of the appellate rule, Rule 8019 promotes national uniformity regarding oral argument in bankruptcy appeals.

Subdivision (a), like F.R.App.P. 34(a)(1), now allows a party to submit a statement explaining why oral argument is or is not needed. It also authorizes a court to require this statement. Former Rule 8012 only authorized statements explaining why oral argument should be allowed.

Subdivision (b) retains the reasons set forth in former Rule 8012 for the district court or BAP to conclude that oral argument is not needed.

The remainder of this rule adopts the provisions of F.R.App.P. 34(b)-(g), with one exception. Rather than requiring the district court or BAP to hear appellant's argument if the appellee does not appear, subdivision (e) authorizes the district court or BAP to go forward with the argument in the appellee's absence. Should the court decide, however, to postpone the oral argument in that situation, it would be authorized to do so.

1	(a) FRIVOLOUS APPEAL—DAMAGES AND COSTS.
2	If the district court or BAP determines that an appeal is frivolous,
3	it may, after a separately filed motion or notice from the court and
4	reasonable opportunity to respond, award just damages and single
5	or double costs to the appellee.
6	(b) OTHER MISCONDUCT. The district court or BAP
7	may discipline or sanction an attorney or party appearing before it
8	for other misconduct, including failure to comply with any court
9	order. First, however, the court must afford the attorney or party
10	reasonable notice, an opportunity to show cause to the contrary,
11	and, if requested, a hearing.

Rule 8020. Frivolous Appeal and Other Misconduct

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from former Rule 8020 and F.R.App.P. 38 and 46(c). Subdivision (a) permits an award of damages and costs to an appellee for a frivolous appeal. Subdivision (b) permits the district court or BAP to impose on parties as well as their counsel sanctions for misconduct other than taking a frivolous appeal. Failure to comply with a court order, for which sanctions may be imposed, may include a failure to comply with a local court rule.

Rule 8021. Costs

1	(a) AGAINST WHOM ASSESSED. The following rules
2	apply unless the law provides or the district court or BAP orders
3	otherwise:
4	(1) if an appeal is dismissed, costs are taxed against
5	the appellant, unless the parties agree otherwise;
6	(2) if a judgment, order, or decree is affirmed, costs
7	are taxed against the appellant;
8	(3) if a judgment, order, or decree is reversed, costs
9	are taxed against the appellee;
10	(4) if a judgment, order, or decree is affirmed or
11	reversed in part, modified, or vacated, costs are taxed only
12	as the district court or BAP orders.
13	(b) COSTS FOR AND AGAINST THE UNITED
14	STATES. Costs for or against the United States, its agency, or its
15	officer may be assessed under subdivision (a) only if authorized
16	by law.
17	(c) COSTS ON APPEAL TAXABLE IN THE
18	BANKRUPTCY COURT. The following costs on appeal are
19	taxable in the bankruptcy court for the benefit of the party entitled
20	to costs under this rule:
21	(1) the production of any required copies of a brief,
22	appendix, exhibit, or the record;

23	(2) the preparation and transmission of the record;
24	(3) the reporter's transcript, if needed to determine
25	the appeal;
26	(4) premiums paid for a supersedeas bond or other
27	bonds to preserve rights pending appeal; and
28	(5) the fee for filing the notice of appeal.
29	(d) BILL OF COSTS; OBJECTIONS. A party who wants
30	costs taxed must, within 14 days after entry of judgment on appeal,
31	file with the bankruptcy clerk, with proof of service, an itemized
32	and verified bill of costs. Objections must be filed within 14 days
33	after service of the bill of costs, unless the bankruptcy court
34	extends the time.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8014 and F.R.App.P. 39. It retains the former rule's authorization for taxing appellate costs against the losing party and its specification of the costs that may be taxed. The rule also incorporates some of the additional details regarding the taxing of costs contained in F.R.App.P. 39. Consistent with former Rule 8014, the bankruptcy clerk has the responsibility for taxing all costs. Subdivision (b), derived from F.R.App.P. 39(b), clarifies that additional authority is required for the taxation of costs by or against federal governmental parties.

Rule 8022. Motion for Rehearing.

1	(a) TIME TO FILE; CONTENTS; RESPONSE; ACTION
2	BY THE DISTRICT COURT OR BAP IF GRANTED.
3	(1) Time . Unless the time is shortened or extended
4	by order or local rule, any motion for rehearing by the
5	district court or BAP must be filed within 14 days after
6	entry of judgment on appeal.
7	(2) Contents. The motion must state with
8	particularity each point of law or fact that the movant
9	believes the district court or BAP has overlooked or
10	misapprehended and must argue in support of the motion.
11	Oral argument is not permitted.
12	(3) Response . Unless the district court or BAP
13	requests, no response to a motion for rehearing is
14	permitted. But ordinarily, rehearing will not be granted in
15	the absence of such a request.
16	(4) Action by the District Court or BAP. If a
17	motion for rehearing is granted, the district court or BAP
18	may do any of the following:
19	(A) make a final disposition of the appeal
20	without reargument;
21	(B) restore the case to the calendar for
22	reargument or resubmission; or

23	(C) issue any other appropriate order.
24	(b) FORM OF THE MOTION; LENGTH. The motion
25	must comply in form with Rule $8013(f)(1)$ and (2). Copies must
26	be served and filed as provided by Rule 8011. Unless the district
27	court or BAP by local rule or order provides otherwise, a motion
28	for rehearing must not exceed 15 pages.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8015 and F.R.App.P. 40. It deletes the provision of former Rule 8015 regarding the time for appeal to the court of appeals because the matter is addressed by F.R.App.P. 6(b)(2)(A).

Rule 8023. Voluntary Dismissal

1	The clerk of the district court or BAP must dismiss an
2	appeal if the parties file a signed dismissal agreement specifying
3	how costs are to be paid and pay any fees that are due. An appeal
4	may be dismissed on the appellant's motion on terms agreed to by
5	the parties or fixed by the district court or BAP.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from former Rule 8001(c) and F.R.App.P. 42. The provision of the former rule regarding dismissal of appeals in the bankruptcy court prior to docketing of the appeal has been deleted. Now that docketing occurs promptly after a notice of appeal is filed, see Rules 8003(d) and 8004(c), an appeal likely will not be voluntarily dismissed before docketing.

The rule retains the provision of the former rule that the district or BAP clerk must dismiss an appeal upon the parties' agreement. District courts and BAPs continue to have discretion to dismiss an appeal on an appellant's motion. Nothing in the rule prohibits a district court or BAP from dismissing an appeal for other reasons authorized by law, such as the failure to prosecute an appeal.

1	(a) JUDGMENT ON APPEAL. The district or BAP clerk
2	must prepare, sign, and enter the judgment after receiving the
3	court's opinion or, if there is no opinion, as the court instructs.
4	Noting the judgment on the docket constitutes entry of judgment.
5	(b) NOTICE OF A JUDGMENT. Immediately upon the
6	entry of a judgment, the district or BAP clerk must:
7	(1) transmit a notice of the entry to each party to
8	the appeal, to the United States trustee, and to the
9	bankruptcy clerk, together with a copy of any opinion; and
10	(2) note the date of the transmission on the docket.
11	(c) RETURNING ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS. If any
12	original documents were transmitted as the record on appeal, they
13	must be returned to the bankruptcy clerk on disposition of the
14	appeal.

Rule 8024. Clerk's Duties on Disposition of the Appeal

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from former Rule 8016, which was adapted from F.R.App.P. 36 and 45(c) and (d). The rule is reworded to reflect that the record often will not be physically transmitted to the district court or BAP and thus there will be no documents to return to the bankruptcy clerk. Other changes to the former rule are stylistic.

	, o
1	(a) AUTOMATIC STAY OF JUDGMENT ON APPEAL.
2	Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise, its judgment is
3	stayed for 14 days after entry.
4	(b) STAY PENDING APPEAL TO THE COURT OF
5	APPEALS.
6	(1) In General. On a party's motion and notice to
7	all other parties to the appeal, the district court or BAP may
8	stay its judgment pending an appeal to the court of appeals.
9	(2) Time Limit . The stay must not exceed 30 days
10	after the judgment is entered, except for cause shown.
11	(3) Stay Continued. If, before a stay expires, the
12	party who obtained the stay appeals to the court of appeals,
13	the stay continues until final disposition by the court of
14	appeals.
15	(4) Bond or Other Security. A bond or other
16	security may be required as a condition for granting or
17	continuing a stay of the judgment. A bond or other security
18	may be required if a trustee obtains a stay, but not if a stay
19	is obtained by the United States or its officer or agency or
20	at the direction of any department of the United States
21	government.
22	(c) AUTOMATIC STAY OF AN ORDER, JUDGMENT,

Rule 8025. Stay of a District Court or BAP Judgment

23	OR DECREE OF A BANKRUPTCY COURT. If the district court
24	or BAP enters a judgment affirming an order, judgment, or decree
25	of the bankruptcy court, a stay of the district court's or BAP's
26	judgment automatically stays the bankruptcy court's order,
27	judgment, or decree for the duration of the appellate stay.
28	(d) POWER OF A COURT OF APPEALS NOT
29	LIMITED. This rule does not limit the power of a court of appeals
30	or any of its judges to do the following:
31	(1) stay a judgment pending appeal;
32	(2) stay proceedings while an appeal is pending;
33	(3) suspend, modify, restore, vacate, or grant a stay
34	or an injunction while an appeal is pending; or
35	(4) issue any order appropriate to preserve the
36	status quo or the effectiveness of any judgment to be
37	entered.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from former Rule 8017. Most of the changes to the former rule are stylistic. Subdivision (c) is new. It provides that if a district court or BAP affirms the bankruptcy court ruling and the appellate judgment is stayed, the bankruptcy court's order, judgment, or decree that is affirmed on appeal is automatically stayed to the same extent as the stay of the appellate judgment.

Rule 8026. Rules by Circuit Councils and District Courts; Procedure When There is No Controlling Law 1 (a) LOCAL RULES BY CIRCUIT COUNCILS AND 2 DISTRICT COURTS. 3 (1) Adopting Local Rules. A circuit council that has authorized a BAP under 28 U.S.C. § 158(b) may make 4 5 and amend rules governing the practice and procedure on 6 appeal from a judgment, order, or decree of a bankruptcy 7 court to the BAP. A district court may make and amend 8 rules governing the practice and procedure on appeal from 9 a judgment, order, or decree of a bankruptcy court to the 10 district court. Local rules must be consistent with, but not 11 duplicative of, Acts of Congress and these Part VIII rules. 12 Rule 83 F.R.Civ.P. governs the procedure for making and 13 amending rules to govern appeals. 14 (2) Numbering. Local rules must conform to any 15 uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial 16 Conference of the United States. 17 (3) Limitation on Imposing Requirements of Form. 18 A local rule imposing a requirement of form must not be 19 enforced in a way that causes a party to lose any right 20 because of a nonwillful failure to comply. 21 (b) PROCEDURE WHEN THERE IS NO 22 CONTROLLING LAW.

23	(1) In General. A district court or BAP may
24	regulate practice in any manner consistent with federal law,
25	applicable federal rules, the Official Forms, and local rules.
26	(2) Limitation on Sanctions. No sanction or other
27	disadvantage may be imposed for noncompliance with any
28	requirement not in federal law, applicable federal rules, the
29	Official Forms, or local rules unless the alleged violator has
30	been furnished in the particular case with actual notice of
31	the requirement.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is derived from former Rule 8018. The changes to the former rule are stylistic.

Rule 8027. Notice of a Mediation Procedure

1	If the district court or BAP has a mediation procedure
2	applicable to bankruptcy appeals, the clerk must notify the parties
3	promptly after docketing the appeal of:
4	(a) the requirements of the mediation procedure; and
5	(b) any effect the mediation procedure has on the time to
6	file briefs.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This rule is new. It requires the district or BAP clerk to advise the parties promptly after an appeal is docketed of any court mediation procedure that is applicable to bankruptcy appeals. The notice must state what the mediation requirements are and how the procedure affects the time for filing briefs.

Rule 8028. Suspension of Rules in Part VIII

1	In the interest of expediting decision or for other cause in a
2	particular case, the district court or BAP, or where appropriate the
3	court of appeals, may suspend the requirements or provisions of
4	the rules in Part VIII, except Rules 8001, 8002, 8003, 8004, 8005,
5	8006, 8007, 8012, 8020, 8024, 8025, 8026, and 8028.

This rule is derived from former Rule 8019 and F.R.App.P. 2. To promote uniformity of practice and compliance with statutory authority, the rule includes a more extensive list of requirements that may not be suspended than either the former rule or the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure provide. Rules governing the following matters may not be suspended:

- scope of the rules; definition of "BAP"; method of transmission;
- time for filing a notice of appeal;
- taking an appeal as of right;
- taking an appeal by leave;
- election to have an appeal heard by a district court instead of a BAP;
- certification of direct appeal to a court of appeals;
- stay pending appeal;
- corporate disclosure statement;
- sanctions for frivolous appeals and other misconduct;
- clerk's duties on disposition of an appeal;
- stay of a district court's or BAP's judgment;
- local rules; and
- suspension of the Part VIII rules.

Instructions for the Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to Fill Out the Application

If you cannot afford to pay the full filing fee when you first file for bankruptcy, you may pay the fee in installments. However, in most cases, you must pay the entire fee within 120 days after you file, and the court must approve your payment timetable. Your debts will not be discharged until you pay your entire fee.

Do not file this form if you can afford to pay your full fee when you file.

If you are filing under chapter 7 and cannot afford to pay the full filing fee at all, you may be qualified to ask the court to waive your filing fee. See Application to Have Your Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 3B). If a bankruptcy petition preparer helped you complete this form, make sure that person fills out the Declaration and Signature of Non-Attorney Bankruptcy Petition Preparer (Official Form 19); include a copy of it in this package.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This form, which applies only in cases of individual debtors, has been revised as part of the Forms Modernization Project, making the form easier to read and, as a result, likely to generate more complete and accurate responses. Also, the declaration and signature section for a non-attorney bankruptcy petition preparer (BPP) has been removed as unnecessary. The same declaration, required under 11 U.S.C. § 110, is contained in Official Form 19. That form must be completed and signed by the BPP, and filed with each document for filing prepared by a BPP.

Order on the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived

After considering the debtor's Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 3B), the court orders that the application is:

- [] Granted. However, the court may order the debtor to pay the fee in the future if developments in administering the bankruptcy case show that the waiver was unwarranted.
- [] Denied. The debtor must pay the $306 filing fee according to the following terms:

If the debtor would like to propose a different payment timetable, the debtor must file a motion promptly with a payment proposal. The debtor may use Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 3A) for this purpose. The court will consider it.

The debtor must pay the entire filing fee before making any more payments or transferring any more property to an attorney, bankruptcy petition preparer, or anyone else in connection with the bankruptcy case. The debtor must also pay the entire filing fee to receive a discharge. If the debtor does not make any payment when it is due, the bankruptcy case may be dismissed and the debtor's rights in future bankruptcy cases may be affected.

United States Bankruptcy Judge

Official Form 3B Instructions for the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to Fill Out the Application

The fee for filing a bankruptcy case under Chapter 7 is $306. If you cannot afford to pay the entire fee now in full or in installments within 120 days, use this form. If you can afford to pay your filing fee in installments, see Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 3A).

If you file this form, you are asking the court to waive your fee. After reviewing your application, the court may waive your fee, set a hearing for further investigation, or require you to pay the fee in installments or in full.

For your $fee\ \mbox{to}\ be\ \mbox{waived},\ \mbox{all of these statements must}$ be true:

- You are filing for bankruptcy under Chapter 7.
- You are an individual.
- The total combined monthly income for your family is less than 150% of the official poverty guideline last published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). (For more information about the guidelines, go to http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/B ankruptcyResources/PovertyGuidelines.aspx.)
- You cannot afford to pay the fee in installments.

Your family includes you, your spouse, and any dependents listed on Schedule J. Your family may be different from your household, referenced on Schedules I and J. Your household may include your unmarried partner and others who live with you and with whom you share income and expenses.

If a bankruptcy petition preparer helped you complete this form, make sure that person fills out Declaration and Signature of Non-Attorney Bankruptcy Petition Preparer (Official Form 19); include a copy of it in this package.

If you have already completed the following forms, the information on them may help you when you fill out this application:

- Schedule A: Real Property (Official Form 6A)
- Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 6I)
- Schedule J: Your Expenses (Official Form J)

Understand the terms used in this form

The Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 3B) uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if the form asks, "Do you own a car?" the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

COMMITTEE NOTE

This form, which applies only in cases of individual debtors, has been revised as part of the Forms Modernization Project, making the form easier to read and, as a result, likely to generate more complete and accurate responses. Additionally, in calculating the income that determines the debtor's initial eligibility for a fee waiver, line 2 of the form now directs the debtor to exclude non-cash governmental assistance, such as food stamps and housing subsidies. However, because non-cash governmental assistance may be relevant in evaluating the additional requirement that the debtor be unable to pay the filing fee, the nature and amount of any such assistance is to be reported separately on line 3. Also, the declaration and signature section for a non-attorney bankruptcy petition preparer (BPP) has been removed as unnecessary. The same declaration, required under 11 U.S.C. § 110, is contained in Official Form 19. That form must be completed and signed by the BPP, and filed with each document for filing prepared by a BPP.

Instructions for Schedule I: Your Income

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to fill out Schedule I

In Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 6I), you will give the details about your employment and monthly income as of the date you file this form. If you are married and your spouse is living with you, include information about your spouse even if your spouse is not filing with you. If you are separated and your spouse is not filing with you, do not include information about your spouse.

How to report employment and income

If you have nothing to report for a line, write $0.

In Part 1, line 1, fill in employment information for you and, if appropriate, for a non-filing spouse. If either person has more than one employer, attach a separate page with information about the additional employment.

In Part 2, give details about the monthly income you currently expect to receive. Show all totals as monthly payments, even if income is not received in monthly payments.

If your income is received in another time period, such as daily, weekly, quarterly, annually, or irregularly, calculate how much income would be by month, as described below.

If either you or a non-filing spouse has more than one employer, calculate the monthly amount for each employer separately, and then combine the income information for all employers for that person on lines 2-7.

One easy way to calculate how much income would be per month is to total the payments earned in a year, then divide by 12 to get a monthly figure. For example, if you are paid annually, you would simply divide your annual salary by 12 to get the monthly amount. Below are other examples of how to calculate monthly amount.

Example for quarterly payments:

If you are paid $15,000 every quarter, figure your monthly income in this way:

$15,000 income every quarter X 4 pay periods in the year $60,000 total income for the year

$60,000 (income for year) = $5,000 monthly income
12 (number of months in year)

Example for bi-weekly payments:

If you are paid $2,500 every other week, figure your monthly income in this way:

$2,500 income every other week X 26 number of pay periods in the year $65,000 total income for the year

$65,000 (income for year) = $5,417 monthly income
12 (number of months in year)

Example for weekly payment:

If you are paid $1,000 every week, figure your monthly income in this way:

$1,000 income every week X 52 number of pay periods in the year $52,000 total income for the year

$52,000 (income for year) = $4,333 monthly income
12 (number of months in year)

Example for irregular payments:

If you are paid $4,000 8 times a year, figure your monthly income in this way:

$4,000 income a payment X 8 payments a year $32,000 income for the year

$32,000 (income for year) = $2,667 monthly income 12 (number of months in year)

Example for daily payments:

If you are paid $75 a day and you work about 8 days a month, figure your monthly income in this way:

$75 income a day
 X 96 days a year
 $7,200 total income for the year

$7,200 (income for year) = $600 monthly income
12 (number of months in year)

$75 income a day X 8 payments a month $600 income for the month

In Part 2, line 11, fill in amounts that other people provide to pay the expenses you list on Schedule J: Your Expenses. For example, if you and a person to whom you are not married deposit the income from both of your jobs into a single bank account and pay all household expenses and you list all your joint household expenses on Schedule J, you must list the amounts that person contributes monthly to pay the household expenses on line 11. If you have a roommate and you divide the rent and utilities, do not list the amounts your roommate pays on line 11 if you have listed only your share of those expenses on Schedule J. However, if you have listed the cost of the rent and utilities for your entire house or apartment on Schedule J, you must list your roommate's contribution to those expenses on Schedule I, line 14. Do not list line 11 contributions that you already disclosed on line 5.

Note that the income you report on Schedule I may be different from the income you report on other bankruptcy forms. For example, the Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 22A-1), Chapter 11 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 22B), and the Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 22C-1) all use a different definition of income and apply that definition to a different period of time. Schedule I asks about the income that you are now receiving, while the other forms ask about income you received in the applicable time period before filing. So the amount of income reported in any of those forms may be different from the amount reported here.

Understand the terms used in this form

This form uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

Official Form 6J

Instructions for Schedule J: Your Expenses

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to Fill Out Schedule J

Use Column A of Schedule J: Your Expenses (Official Form 6J) to estimate the monthly expenses, as of the date you file for bankruptcy, for you, your dependents, and the other people in your household whose income is included on Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 6I).

If you are filing under chapter 13, you must also complete Column B. In Column B, itemize what your monthly expenses would be under the plan that you are submitting with this schedule or, if no plan is being submitted now, under the most recent plan you previously submitted.

Include your non-filing spouse's expenses unless you are separated. If one of you keeps a separate household, fill out separate Schedule J for Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 and write Debtor 1 or Debtor 2 at the top of page 1 of the form.

Do not include expenses that other members of your household pay directly from their income if you did not include that income on Schedule I. For example, if you have a roommate and you divide the rent and utilities and you have not listed your roommate's contribution to household expenses in line 11 of Schedule I, you would list only your share of these expenses on Schedule J.

Show all totals as monthly payments. If you have weekly, quarterly, or annual payments, calculate how much you would spend on those items every month.

Do not list as expenses any payments on credit card debts incurred before filing bankruptcy.

Do not include business expenses on this form. You have already accounted for those expenses as part of determining net business income on Schedule I.

On line 20, do not include expenses for your residence or for any rental or business property. You have already listed expenses for your residence on lines 4 and 5 of this form. You listed the expenses for your rental and business property as part of the process of determining your net income from that property on Schedule I (line 8a).

If you have nothing to report for a line, write $0.

Understand the terms used in this form

This form uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.
- Do not list a minor child's full name. Instead, fill in only the child's initials and the full name and address of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent, 123 Main St., City, State). 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m) and 9037.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 6I) and Schedule J: Your Expenses (Official Form 6J), which apply only in cases of individual debtors, have been revised as part of the Forms Modernization Project, making the forms easier to read and, as a result, likely to generate more complete and accurate responses.

Revised Schedules I and J seek to obtain a full picture of debtor's economic situation—to the extent that debtor receives income or has expenses. The revised forms are intended to avoid the situation that frequently happens with the current forms where debtor lives with and pools assets with other people and the household provides support to dependents who may not be related by blood or marriage to debtor.

The amendments seek to avoid the situation where the expenses listed on Schedule J are for the entire household, but the income listed on Schedule I is only for the debtor. Line 11 on revised Schedule I, now includes contributions made by someone else to the expenses on Schedule J and the debtor is instructed to include contributions from an unmarried partner, members of the debtor's household, dependents, roommates, and other friends or relatives.

As revised, Schedule J asks for expenses at two different points in time in chapter 13 cases—as of the date the debtor files bankruptcy (Column A) and as of the date a proposed 13 plan is confirmed (Column B).

In drafting the form it became apparent that at least some courts are using Schedules I and J in analyzing proposed chapter 13 plans and potential modification of those plans. Sometimes amended Schedules I and J are required when a debtor's financial circumstances change. To avoid a lack of clarity on the form regarding the date to be used in computing expenses, and in order to allow Schedule J to continue to serve the plan feasibility function, the revised form requests information on both time bases in chapter 13 cases.

New lines 1, 2, and 3 on revised Schedule J request information on dependents who live with the debtor, dependents who live separately, and other members of the household. In addition, new line 23 on the form includes a calculation of the debtor's monthly net income.

Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation

To fill out this form, you will need your completed copy of Form 22A-1: Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 22A-1).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 2: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 5-14. To find the IRS standards, either go to http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/meanstesting.htm or ask for help at the clerk's office of the bankruptcy court.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 3 and do not deduct any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 8 and 9 of Form 22A–1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Whenever this part of the form refers to you, it means both you and your spouse if Column B of Form 22A-1 is filled in.

5. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards

You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

- 6. Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items.
- 7. Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

Based on information from the IRS, the U.S. Trustee Program has divided the IRS Local Standard for housing for bankruptcy purposes into two parts:

- Housing and utilities Insurance and operating expenses
- Housing and utilities Mortgage or rent expenses

Use the U.S. Trustee Program chart to answer the questions in lines 8-9. Go to http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/meanstesting.htm or ask for help at the clerk's office of the bankruptcy court.

Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation

Instructions for the Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Means Test Calculation

United States Bankruptcy Court

12/01/13

Official Forms 22A–1 and 22A –2 determine whether your income and expenses create a presumption of abuse that may prevent you from obtaining relief from your debts under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Chapter 7 relief can be denied to a person who has primarily consumer debts if the court finds that the person has enough income to repay creditors a portion of their claims set out in the Bankruptcy Code.

You must file 22A –1, the Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 22A –1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income for households of the same size in your state. If your income is not above the median, there is no presumption of abuse and you will not have to fill out the second form.

If your income is above the median, you must file the second form, 22A –2, Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 22A –2). The calculations on this form— sometimes called the Means Test—reduce your income by living expenses and payment of certain debts, resulting in an amount available to pay other debts. If this amount is high enough, it will give rise to a presumption of abuse. A presumption of abuse does not mean you are actually trying to abuse the bankruptcy system. Rather, the presumption simply means that you may have enough income that you should not be granted relief under chapter 7. You may overcome the presumption by showing special circumstances that reduce your income or increase your expenses.

If you cannot obtain relief under chapter 7, you may be eligible to continue under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code and pay creditors over a period of time. Read each question carefully. You may not be required to answer every question on this form. For example, your military status may determine whether you must fill out the entire form. The instructions will alert you if you may skip questions.

If you have nothing to report for a line, write $0.

Some of the questions require you to go to other sources for information. In those cases, the form has instructions for where to find the information you need.

If you and your spouse are filing together, you and your spouse may file a single statement. However, if an exclusion in Parts 1 or 2 applies to either of you, separate statements may be required. 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(2)(C).

Understand the terms used in the form

This form uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out these forms

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

Official Form 22B

Instructions for the Chapter 11 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to Fill Out this Form

You must file the Chapter 11 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 22B) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under Chapter 11.

If you have nothing to report for a line, write $0.

Understand the terms used in the form

This form uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period

12/13

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: Calculate Your Average Monthly Income

1. What is your marital and filing status? Check one only.

Not married. Fill out Column A, lines 2-11.

Married. Fill out both Columns A and B, lines 2-11.

Fill in the average monthly income that you received from all sources, derived during the 6 full months before you file this bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10A). For example, if you are filing on September 15, the 6-month period would be March 1 through August 31. If the amount of your monthly income varied during the 6 months, add the income for all 6 months and divide the total by 6. Fill in the result. Do not include any income amount more than once. For example, if both spouses own the same rental property, put the income from that property in one column only. If you have nothing to report for any line, write $0 in the space.

Official Form 22C–2

Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income

12/13

To fill out this form, you will need your completed copy of Form 22C–1: Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 1-11. To find the IRS standards, either go to http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/meanstesting.htm or ask for help at the clerk's office of the bankruptcy court.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 1-11 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not include any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Official Form 22C–1, and do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 13 of Form 22C–1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Whenever this part of the form refers to you, it means both you and your spouse if Column B is filled in.

1. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 2-3.

 Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 1 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items.

3. Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 1 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories—people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older—because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 18.

Official Forms 22C-1 and 22C-2

Instructions for the Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income, Calculation of Commitment Period and Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income

United States Bankruptcy Court

How to Fill Out these Forms

Official Forms 22C–1 and 22C–2 determine the period for your payments to creditors, how the amount you may be required to pay to creditors is established, and, in some situations, how much you must pay.

You must file 22C -1, the Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 22C -1) if you are an individual and you are filing under chapter 13. This form will determine your current monthly income and determine whether your income is below the median income for households of the same size in your state. If your income is not above the median, you will not have to fill out the second form. Form 22C -1 also will determine your applicable commitment period—the time period for making payments to your creditors.

If your income is above the median, you must file the second form, 22C –2, Chapter13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income. The calculations on this form— sometimes called the Means Test—reduce your income by living expenses and payment of certain debts, resulting in an amount available to pay unsecured debts. Your chapter 13 plan may be required to provide for payment of this amount toward unsecured debts.

Read each question carefully. You may not be required to answer every question on this form. The instructions will alert you if you may skip questions. Some of the questions require you to go to other sources for information. In those cases, the form has instructions for where to find the information you need.

If you and your spouse are filing together, you and your spouse must file a single statement.

Understand the terms used in these form

These forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the forms use Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Official Forms 22A-1, 22A-2, 22C-1, and 22C-2 are new versions of the "means test" forms used by individuals in chapter 7 and 13, formerly Official Forms 22A and 22C. The original forms were substantially revised as part of the Forms Modernization Project. Official Form 22B, used by individuals in chapter 11, has also been revised as part of the project, which was designed so that the individuals completing the forms would do so more accurately and completely.

The revised versions of the means test forms present the relevant information in a format different from the original forms. For chapter 7, former Official Form 22A has been split into two forms: 22A-1 and 22A-2. The first form, Official Form 22A-1, Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income, is to be completed by all chapter 7 debtors. It calculates a debtor's current monthly income and compares that calculation to the median income for households of the same size in the debtor's state. The second form, Official Form 22A-2, Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation, is to be completed only by those chapter 7 debtors whose income is above the applicable state median.

For chapter 13, there is a similar split of income and expense calculations. All chapter 13 debtors must complete Official Form 22C-1, Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period, which calculates current monthly income and the plan commitment period. Debtors only need to complete the second form, Official Form 22C-2, Chapter13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income, if their current monthly income exceeds the applicable median. Form 22C-2 calculates disposable income under 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b)(3), through a report of allowed expense deductions.

Line 60 of former Official Form 22C has not been repeated in Official Form 22C-2. This line allowed debtors to list, but not deduct from income, "Other Necessary Expense" items that are not included within the categories specified by the Internal Revenue Service. Because debtors are separately allowed to list—and deduct—any expenses arising from special circumstances, former Line 60 was rarely used.

Form 22C-2 also reflects the Supreme Court's decision in Hamilton v. Lanning, 130 S. Ct. 2464 (2010). Adopting a forward-looking approach, the Court held in Lanning that the calculation of a chapter 13 debtor's projected disposable income under § 1325(b) required consideration of changes to income or expenses reported elsewhere on former Official Form 22C that, at the time of plan confirmation, had occurred or were virtually certain to occur. Those changes could result in either an increased or decreased projected disposable income. Because only debtors whose annualized current monthly income exceeds the applicable median family income have their projected disposable income determined by the information provided on Official Form 22C-2, only these debtors are required to provide the information about changes to income and expenses on Official Form 22C-2. Part 3 of Official Form 22C-2 provides for the reporting of those changes.

In reporting changes to income a debtor must indicate whether the amounts reported in Official Form 22C-1-which are monthly averages of various types of income received during the six months prior to the filing of the bankruptcy case—have already changed or are virtually certain to change during the 12 months following the filing of the bankruptcy petition. For each change, the debtor must indicate the line of Official Form 22C-1 on which the amount to be changed was reported, the reason for the change, the date of its occurrence, whether the change is an increase or decrease of income, and the amount of the change. Similarly, in reporting changes to expenses, a debtor must list changes to the debtor's actual expenditures reported in Part 1 of Official Form C-2 that are virtually certain to occur during the 12 months following the filing of the bankruptcy petition. With respect to the deductible amounts reported in Part 1 that are determined by the IRS national and local standards, only changed amounts that result from changed circumstances in the debtor's life-such as the addition of a family member or the surrender of a vehicle-should be reported. For each change in expenses, the same information required to be provided for income changes must be reported.

Unlike former Official Forms 22A and 22C, line 23 of Official Form 22A-2 and line 19 of Official Form 22C-2 permit the deduction of cell phone expenses necessary for the production of income if those expenses have not been reimbursed by the debtor's employer or deducted by the debtor in calculating net selfemployment income. The same lines also state that expenses for internet service may be deducted as a telecommunication services expense only if necessary for the production of income. Under IRS guidelines adopted in 2011, expenses for home internet service used for other purposes are included in the Local Standards for Housing and utilities—Insurance and operating expenses. - SUBJECT: Report of the Advisory Committee on Criminal Rules
- DATE: May 17, 2012

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure ("the Committee") met on April 22-23, 2012, in San Francisco, California, and took action on a number of proposals.

* * * * *

PETER G. McCABE SECRETARY This report presents two action items. The Committee recommends that:

(1) a proposed amendment to Rule 11 (advice regarding immigration consequences of guilty plea), previously published for public comment, be approved as amended and transmitted to the Judicial Conference, and

(2) proposed amendments to Rules 5(d) and 58 (advice regarding consular notification at initial appearance), previously transmitted to the Supreme Court and returned, be approved as amended.

* * * * *

B. Rule 5 (providing that non-citizen defendants in felony cases be advised at initial appearance regarding consular notification)

Rule 58 (providing that non-citizen defendants in petty offense and misdemeanor cases be advised at initial appearance regarding consular notification)

1. The purpose of the amendments

These parallel amendments were proposed by the Assistant Attorney General Lanny Breuer, who explained the relationship between the proposed rules and the treaty obligations of the United States. The Vienna Convention on Consular Relations is a multilateral treaty that sets forth basic obligations that a country has towards foreign nationals arrested within its jurisdiction. In order to facilitate the provision of consular assistance, Article 36 provides that detained foreign nationals must be advised of the opportunity to contact the consulate of their home country. Additionally, many bilateral agreements also require consular notification.

There has been substantial litigation over the manner in which Article 36 is to be implemented, whether the Vienna Convention creates rights that may be invoked by individuals in a judicial proceeding, and whether any possible remedy exists for defendants not appropriately notified of possible consular access at an early stage of a criminal prosecution. In Sanchez-Llamas v. Oregon, 548 U.S. 331 (2006), the Supreme Court rejected a claim that suppression of evidence was an appropriate remedy for failure to inform a non-citizen defendant of his ability to have the consulate from his country of nationality notified of his arrest and detention. The

Report to the Standing Committee Advisory Committee on Criminal Rules

United States argued that the Vienna Convention does not create an enforceable individual right, but the Supreme Court did not rule on the preliminary question of whether the Vienna Convention creates an individual right, holding that regardless of the answer to that question, suppression of evidence is not an appropriate remedy for any violation.

General Breuer explained that notwithstanding the Justice Department's position that the Vienna Convention does not create an enforceable individual right, the executive has created policies and taken substantial measures to ensure that the United States fulfills its international obligations to other signatory states with regard to the Article 36 consular provisions. For example, the Justice Department has issued regulations that establish a uniform procedure for consular notification when non-citizens are arrested and detained by officers of the Department. See 28 CFR § 50.5. The Department of State has also undertaken multiple measures. It placed on a public website "Instructions for Federal, State, and Local Law Enforcement and Other Officials Regarding Foreign Nationals in the United States and the Rights of Consular Officials to Assist Them," which includes 24-hour contact telephone numbers that law enforcement officers can use to obtain advice and assistance. The Department of State published a Consular Notification and Access booklet, a Consular Notification Pocket Card for police use that has a model Vienna Convention consular notice, and a wall poster containing the consular notification in many languages that police can post in their facilities. The State Department regularly provides training about ensuring compliance. When a law enforcement authority fails to give notice to the consulate of a detained foreign national, the United States is committed to immediately informing the consulate, addressing the situation to the extent possible, and preventing a reoccurrence.

Assistant Attorney General Breuer urged that in addition to the measures already taken by the Departments of Justice and State, Rules 5 and 58 should be amended "to provide an additional assurance that the Vienna Convention obligations are satisfied." He characterized the proposed amendments as "responsible procedural means for further fulfilling the obligations of the United States under the Convention, without stepping into important questions of substantive rights that the Court has reserved for a later day."

2. The procedural history of the proposed amendments

At its meeting in April 2010, the Advisory Committee agreed to recommend to the Standing Committee that proposed amendments to Rules 5 and 58 be published for public comment.² The Standing Committee approved the amendments for publication in August 2010. After a review of the public comments at its April meeting in 2011, the Advisory Committee voted to forward the amendments to the Standing Committee without change with the recommendation that they be approved and transmitted to the Judicial Conference.

Report to the Standing Committee Advisory Committee on Criminal Rules

The proposed amendments to Rules 5 and 58 were approved by the Standing Committee and the Judicial Conference in 2011, and subsequently transmitted to the Supreme Court.

In April 2012, the Supreme Court returned the Rule 5(d) and Rule 58 amendments to the Advisory Committee for further consideration.³

³The proposed amendment to Rule 5(d) submitted to the Supreme Court and returned by it provided in pertinent part:

(d) Procedure in a Felony Case.

- (1) Advice. If the defendant is charged with a felony, the judge must inform the defendant of the following: ****
 - (F) if the defendant is held in custody and is not a United States citizen, that an attorney for the government or a federal law enforcement officer will:
 - (i) notify a consular officer from the defendant's country of nationality that the defendant has been arrested if the defendant so requests; or
 - (ii) make any other consular notification required by treaty or other international agreement.

The proposed amendment to Rule 58(b)(2) contained parallel language. The Supreme Court did not return the proposed amendment to Rule 5(c), which it transmitted to Congress.

²The proposed amendments submitted to the Supreme Court included not only a change to Rule 5(d) providing for consular notice, but also a change to Rule 5(c) to clarify where an initial appearance should take place for persons who have been surrendered to the United States pursuant to an extradition treaty. The Supreme Court has transmitted the proposed amendment to Rule 5(c) to Congress.

3. The Advisory Committee's recommendation

At its April 2012 meeting, the Advisory Committee discussed possible concerns that the proposed rules could be construed (1) to intrude on executive discretion in conducting foreign affairs both generally and specifically as it pertains to deciding how to carry out treaty obligations, and (2) to confer on persons other than the sovereign signatories to treaties, specifically, criminal defendants, rights to demand compliance with treaty provisions.

Representatives of the Department of Justice informed the Committee that they had conferred with counterparts at the Department of State, and the Departments jointly proposed some changes to the proposed rule amendments to alleviate these concerns.

After extended discussion, the Committee concluded that Rules 5(d) and 58 should be amended to address the questions of consular notification, but that the amendments should be redrafted. Revisions to the text were approved unanimously, on the understanding that the language would have to be reviewed by the Standing Committee's style consultant, and that the Reporters would review the Committee Notes to determine whether any changes should be made in light of the return by the Supreme Court and the revised language. The final language for both the rule and committee note would be circulated electronically for Committee approval.

Following the meeting, revised rules and committee notes were circulated electronically to all members of the Advisory Committee, and they received unanimous approval.

As now amended, the proposed rules require the court to inform non-citizen defendants at their initial appearance that (1) they may request that a consular officer from their country of nationality be notified of their arrest, and (2) in some cases international treaties and agreements require consular notification without a defendant's request. The proposed rule does not, however, address the question whether treaty provisions requiring consular notification may be invoked by individual defendants in a judicial proceeding and what, if any, remedy may exist for a violation of Article 36 of the Vienna Convention. More particularly, the proposed rule does not itself create any such rights or remedies.

Although the changes in the text of the proposed rules and committee notes were intended to clarify but not alter the effect of the proposed amendments, members noted at the April meeting that given the return from the Supreme Court it might be appropriate to republish for additional public comment. Committee Note

Subdivision (d)(1)(F). Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations provides that detained foreign nationals shall be advised that they may have the consulate of their home country notified of their arrest and detention, and bilateral agreements with numerous countries require consular notification whether or not the detained foreign national requests it. Article 36 requires consular notification advice to be given "without delay," and arresting officers are primarily responsible for providing this advice. See 28 C.F.R. § 50.5 (requiring consular notification advice to arrested foreign nationals by Department of Justice arresting officers).

Providing this advice at the initial appearance is designed, not to relieve law enforcement officers of that responsibility, but to provide additional assurance that U.S. treaty obligations are fulfilled, and to create a judicial record of that action.

At the time of this amendment, many questions remain unresolved by the courts concerning Article 36, including whether it creates individual rights that may be invoked in a judicial proceeding and what, if any, remedy may exist for a violation of Article 36. Sanchez-Llamas v. Oregon, 548 U.S. 331 (2006). This amendment does not address those questions. More particularly, it does not create any such rights or remedies.

COMMITTEE NOTE

Section (b)(2)(H) Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations provides that detained foreign nationals shall be advised that they may have the consulate of their home country notified of their arrest and detention, and bilateral agreements with numerous countries require consular notification whether or not the detained foreign national requests it. Article 36 requires consular notification advice to be given "without delay," and arresting officers are primarily responsible for providing this advice. See 28 C.F.R. § 50.5 (requiring consular notification advice to arrested foreign nationals by Department of Justice arresting officers).

Providing this advice at the initial appearance is designed, not to relieve law enforcement officers of that responsibility, but to provide additional assurance that our treaty obligations are fulfilled, and to create a judicial record of that action.

At the time of this amendment, many questions remain unresolved by the courts concerning Article 36, including whether it creates individual rights that may be invoked in a judicial proceeding and what, if any, remedy may exist for a violation of Article 36. Sanchez-Llamas v. Oregon, 548 U.S. 331 (2006). This amendment does not address those questions. More particularly, it does not create any such rights or remedies.

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules (the "Committee") met on April 4, 2012 in Dallas at the SMU Dedman School of Law.

The Committee also seeks approval of four proposals (three of which are related) for release for public comment. The first is an amendment to Rule 801(d)(1)(B)—the hearsay exemption for certain prior consistent statements—to provide that prior consistent statements are admissible under the hearsay exemption whenever they would otherwise be admissible to rehabilitate the witness's credibility. The other three proposals amend Rules 803(6)-(8)—the hearsay exceptions for business records, absence of business records, and public records—to eliminate an ambiguity uncovered

B. Proposed Amendment to Evidence Rule 801(d)(1)(B)

After receiving guidance from the Standing Committee at its January 2012 meeting regarding whether to consider further a proposal to amend Rule 801(d)(1)(B)—the hearsay exemption for certain prior consistent statements—the Committee considered this matter at its Spring 2012 meeting. With one member abstaining, the Committee approved an amendment to Rule 801(d)(1)(B) and voted to recommend to the Standing Committee that it be released for public comment. The Committee also approved an addition to the Committee Note to emphasize that the amended Rule is not to be used to expand the admissibility of prior consistent statements or to allow the admission of cumulative consistent statements.

The proposal to amend Rule 801(d)(1)(B) originated with Judge Frank W. Bullock, Jr., when he was a member of the Standing Committee. Judge Bullock proposed that Rule 801(d)(1)(B) be amended to provide that prior consistent statements are admissible under the hearsay exemption whenever they would be admissible to rehabilitate the witness's credibility. Under the current Rule, some prior consistent statements offered to rehabilitate a witness's credibility—specifically, those that rebut a charge of recent fabrication or improper influence or motive—are also admissible substantively. But other rehabilitative statements—such as those that explain a prior inconsistency or rebut a charge of faulty recollection—are not admissible under the hearsay exemption, but only for rehabilitation. There are two basic practical problems in distinguishing between substantive and credibility use as applied to prior consistent statements. First, the necessary jury instruction is almost impossible for jurors to follow. The prior consistent statement is of little or no use for credibility unless the jury believes it to be true. Second, and for similar reasons, the distinction between substantive and impeachment use of prior consistent statements has little, if any, practical effect. The proponent has already presented the witness's trial testimony, so the prior consistent statement ordinarily adds no real substantive effect to the proponent's case.

At its Spring 2011 meeting, the Committee unanimously agreed that the current distinction between substantive and impeachment use of prior consistent statements is impossible for jurors to follow. But some members were concerned that any expansion of the hearsay exemption to cover all prior consistent statements admissible for rehabilitation might be taken as a signal that the Rules were taking a more liberal attitude toward admitting prior consistent statements generally. The Committee resolved to consider the amendment further, and also to seek the input of Public Defenders, the Department of Justice, and state court judges on the merits of amending Rule 801(d)(1)(B). Before the Fall 2011 meeting, the Department of Justice submitted a letter favoring the amendment, and the Public Defender submitted a letter opposing the amendment. Report to the Standing Committee Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules

At its Fall 2011 meeting, the Committee again considered the proposed amendment and resolved to seek further input. Pursuant to the Committee's recommendation, the Reporter worked with Dr. Timothy Reagan, the FJC representative, to prepare a survey of district judges concerning the need for and merits of the proposed amendment. The proposal was also sent to the ABA Litigation Section, the American College of Trial Lawyers, the NACDL, and other interested groups. And, as noted, the Committee sought guidance from the Standing Committee at its January 2012 meeting.

At its Spring 2012 meeting, the Committee voted unanimously, with one member abstaining, to approve an alternate draft amendment to Rule 801(d)(1)(B) and to recommend to the Standing Committee that it be released for public comment. The Reporter prepared the alternate draft based on a suggestion from a district judge who had responded to the FJC survey. The judge had encouraged the Committee to retain language familiar and comfortable to judges and practitioners, such as the phrase "motive to fabricate." The Committee also approved an addition to the Committee Note to emphasize that the amended Rule is not to be used to expand the admissibility of prior consistent statements or to allow the admission of cumulative consistent statements. The proposed Rule and Committee Note are set out in an appendix to this Report.

Recommendation: The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment to Evidence Rule 801(d)(1)(B) be approved for release for public comment.

Report to the Standing Committee Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules

C. Proposed Amendments to Evidence Rules 803(6)-(8)

The restyling project uncovered an ambiguity in Rules 803(6)-(8)—the hearsay exceptions for business records, absence of business records, and public records. These exceptions originally set out admissibility requirements and then provided that a record that met these requirements, although hearsay, was admissible "unless the source of information or the method or circumstances of preparation indicate lack of trustworthiness." The Rules did not specifically state which party had the burden of showing trustworthiness or untrustworthiness.

The restyling project initially sought to clarify this ambiguity by providing that a record that fit the other admissibility requirements would satisfy the exception if "the opponent does not show that" the source of information or the method or circumstances of preparation indicate lack of trustworthiness. But this proposal did not go forward as part of restyling because research into the case law indicated that the change would be substantive. While most courts impose the burden of proving untrustworthiness on the opponent, a few courts require the proponent to prove that the record is trustworthy. Because the proposal would have changed the law in at least one court, it was deemed substantive and therefore outside the scope of the restyling project.

When the Standing Committee approved the Restyled Rules, several members suggested that this Committee consider making the minor substantive change to clarify that the opponent has the burden of showing untrustworthiness. At the Committee's Spring 2011 meeting, however, a majority opposed amending these Rules, concluding that most courts were construing the Rules as they were intended to be read, i.e., placing the burden of proving untrustworthiness on the opponent.

But at the Committee's Spring 2012 meeting, the Reporter informed the Committee that the Texas restyling committee had unanimously concluded that restyled Rules 803(6) and (8) could be interpreted as making substantive changes by placing the burden on the proponent of the evidence to show trustworthiness. The Committee voted unanimously, with one member abstaining, to recommend to the Standing Committee that the proposed amendments to Rules 803(6)-(8) be published for public comment. The proposed Rules and Committee Notes are set out in an appendix to this Report.

Recommendation: The Committee recommends that the proposed amendments to Evidence Rules 803(6)-(8) be approved for release for public comment.

Committee Note

Rule 801(d)(1)(B), as originally adopted, provided for substantive use of certain prior consistent statements of a witness subject to cross-examination. As the Advisory Committee noted, "[t]he prior statement is consistent with the testimony given on the stand, and, if the opposite party wishes to open the door for its admission in evidence, no sound reason is apparent why it should not be received generally."

30 Though the original Rule 801(d)(1)(B) provided for 31 substantive use of certain prior consistent statements, the scope of 32 that Rule was limited. The Rule covered only those consistent 33 statements that were offered to rebut charges of recent fabrication or 34 improper motive or influence. The Rule did not provide for 35 admissibility of, for example, consistent statements that are probative to explain what otherwise appears to be an inconsistency 36 37 in the witness's testimony. Nor did it include consistent statements 38 that would be probative to rebut a charge of faulty recollection. Thus, 39 the Rule left many prior consistent statements potentially admissible 40 only for the limited purpose of rehabilitating a witness's credibility. 41 The original Rule also led to some conflict in the cases; some courts 42 distinguished between substantive and rehabilitative use for prior consistent statements, while others appeared to hold that prior 43 44 consistent statements must be admissible under Rule 801(d)(1)(B) or 45 not at all. 46

47 The amendment provides that prior consistent statements are exempt from the hearsay rule whenever they are admissible to 48 49 rehabilitate the witness. It extends the argument made in the original 50 Advisory Committee Note to its logical conclusion. As commentators have stated, "[d]istinctions between the substantive and 51 52 nonsubstantive use of prior consistent statements are normally distinctions without practical meaning," because "[j]uries have a very 53 difficult time understanding an instruction about the difference 54 between substantive and nonsubstantive use." Hon. Frank W. 55 56 Bullock, Jr. and Steven Gardner, Prior Consistent Statements and the 57 Premotive Rule, 24 Fla.St. L.Rev. 509, 540 (1997). See also United 58 States v. Simonelli, 237 F.3d 19, 27 (1st Cir. 2001) ("the line between 59 substantive use of prior statements and their use to buttress credibility 60 on rehabilitation is one which lawyers and judges draw but which 61 may well be meaningless to jurors"). 62

The amendment does not change the traditional and well-

64 accepted limits on bringing prior consistent statements before the 65 factfinder for credibility purposes. It does not allow impermissible bolstering of a witness. As before, prior consistent statements under 66 67 the amendment may be brought before the factfinder only if they properly rehabilitate a witness whose credibility has been attacked. 68 As before, to be admissible for rehabilitation, a prior consistent 69 70 statement must satisfy the strictures of Rule 403. As before, the trial 71 court has ample discretion to exclude prior consistent statements that are cumulative accounts of an event. The amendment does not make 72 73 any consistent statement admissible that was not admissible previously — the only difference is that all prior consistent 74 statements otherwise admissible for rehabilitation are now admissible 75 76 substantively as well.

Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules Proposed Amendment: Rule 803(6)

1	Rule 803. Exceptions to the Rule Against Hearsay— Regardless
2	of Whether the Declarant is Available as a Witness
3	The following are not excluded by the rule against hearsay,
4	regardless of whether the declarant is available as a witness.
5	* * *
6	(6) Records of a Regularly Conducted Activity. A record
7	of an act, event, condition, opinion, or diagnosis if:
8	(A) the record was made at or near the time by -
9	or from information transmitted by - someone
10	with knowledge;
11	(B) the record was kept in the course of a
12	regularly conducted activity of a business,
13	organization, occupation, or calling, whether
14	or not for profit;
15	(C) making the record was a regular practice of
16	that activity;
17	(D) all these conditions are shown by the
18	testimony of the custodian or another qualified witness, or by a certification that complies with Rule 902(11) or (12) or with a statute permitting certification; and

(E) neither the opponent does not show that the source of information nor or the method or circumstances of preparation indicate a lack of trustworthiness.
Committee Note The Rule has been amended to clarify that if the proponent has established the stated requirements of the exception — regular business with regularly kept record, source with personal knowledge, record made timely, and foundation testimony or certification — then the burden is on the opponent to show a lack of trustworthiness. While most courts have imposed that burden on the opponent, some have not. It is appropriate to impose the burden of proving untrustworthiness on the opponent, as the basic admissibility requirements are sufficient to establish a presumption that the record is reliable. The opponent, in meeting its burden, is not necessarily required to introduce affirmative evidence of untrustworthiness. For example, the opponent might argue that a record was prepared in anticipation of litigation and is favorable to the preparing party without needing to introduce evidence on the point. A determination of untrustworthiness necessarily depends on the circumstances.

6	(7) Absence of a Record of a Regularly Conducted
7	Activity. Evidence that a matter is not included in a record described
8	in paragraph (6) if:
9	(A) the evidence is admitted to prove that the
10	matter did not occur or exist;
11	(B) a record was regularly kept for a matter of that
12	kind; and
13	(C) neither the opponent does not show that the
14	possible source of the information nor or other
15	circumstances indicate a lack of
16	trustworthiness.
17

20	Committee Note
21
22	The Rule has been amended to clarify that if the proponent
23	has established the stated requirements of the exception — set forth
24	in Rule 803(6) — then the burden is on the opponent to show a lack
25	of trustworthiness. The amendment maintains consistency with the
26	proposed amendment to the trustworthiness clause of Rule 803(6).

10			(ii)	a matter observed while under a legal
11				duty to report, but not including, in a
12				criminal case, a matter observed by
13				law-enforcement personnel; or

21	circumstances indicate a lack of
22	trustworthiness.
23	* * *
24
25	Committee Note
26
27	The Rule has been amended to clarify that if the proponent
28	has established that the record meets the stated requirements of the
29 30	exception — prepared by a public office and setting out information
30 31	as specified in the Rule — then the burden is on the opponent to show a lack of trustworthiness. While most courts have imposed that
32	burden on the opponent, some have not. Public records have
33	justifiably carried a presumption of reliability, and it should be up to
34	the opponent to "demonstrate why a time-tested and carefully
35	considered presumption is not appropriate." Ellis v. International
36	Playtex, Inc., 745 F.2d 292, 301 (4th Cir. 1984). The amendment
37	maintains consistency with the proposed amendment to the
38	trustworthiness clause of Rule 803(6).
39
40	The opponent, in meeting its burden, is not necessarily
41	required to introduce affirmative evidence of untrustworthiness. For
42	example, the opponent might argue that a record was prepared in
43	anticipation of litigation and is favorable to the preparing party
44	without needing to introduce evidence on the point. A determination
45	of untrustworthiness necessarily depends on the circumstances.

Procedures for the Judicial Conference's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure and Its Advisory Rules Committees

(as codified in Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 1, § 440)

§ 440 Procedures for Committees on Rules of Practice and Procedure

This section contains the "Procedures for the Judicial Conference's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure and Its Advisory Rules Committees," last amended in September 2011. JCUS-SEP 2011, p. __.

§ 440.10 Overview

The Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2071–2077, authorizes the Supreme Court to prescribe general rules of practice and procedure and rules of evidence for the federal courts. Under the Act, the Judicial Conference must appoint a standing committee, and may appoint advisory committees to recommend new and amended rules. Section 2073 requires the Judicial Conference to publish the procedures that govern the work of the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure (the "Standing Committee") and its advisory committees on the Rules of Appellate, Bankruptcy, Civil, and Criminal Procedure and on the Evidence Rules. See 28 U.S.C. § 2073(a)(1). These procedures do not limit the rules committees' authority. Failure to comply with them does not invalidate any rules committee action. Cf. 28 U.S.C. § 2073(e).

§ 440.20 Advisory Committees

§ 440.20.10 Functions

Each advisory committee must engage in "a continuous study of the operation and effect of the general rules of practice and procedure now or hereafter in use" in its field, taking into consideration suggestions and recommendations received from any source, new statutes and court decisions affecting the rules, and legal commentary. See 28 U.S.C. § 331.

§ 440.20.20 Suggestions and Recommendations

Suggestions and recommendations on the rules are submitted to the Secretary of the Standing Committee at the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, Washington, D.C. The Secretary will acknowledge the suggestions or recommendations and refer them to the appropriate advisory committee. If the Standing Committee takes formal action on them, that action will be reflected in the Standing Committee's minutes, which are posted on the judiciary's rulemaking website.

(a) Meetings

Each advisory committee meets at the times and places that the chair designates. Advisory committee meetings must be open to the public, except when the committee — in open session and with a majority present — determines that it is in the public interest to have all or part of the meeting closed and states the reason. Each meeting must be preceded by notice of the time and place, published in the Federal Register and on the judiciary's rulemaking website, sufficiently in advance to permit interested persons to attend.

(b) Preparing Draft Changes

The reporter assigned to each advisory committee should prepare for the committee, under the direction of the committee or its chair, draft rule changes, committee notes explaining their purpose, and copies or summaries of written recommendations and suggestions received by the committee.

(c) Considering Draft Changes

The advisory committee studies the rules' operation and effect. It meets to consider proposed new and amended rules (together with committee notes), whether changes should be made, and whether they should be submitted to the Standing Committee with a recommendation to approve for publication. The submission must be accompanied by a written report explaining the advisory committee's action and its evaluation of competing considerations.

§ 440.20.40 Publication and Public Hearings

(a) Publication

Before any proposed rule change is published, the Standing Committee must approve publication. The Secretary then arranges for printing and circulating the proposed change to the bench, bar, and public. Publication should be as wide as possible. The proposed change must be published in the Federal Register and on the judiciary's rulemaking website. The Secretary must:

- (1) notify members of Congress, federal judges, and the chief justice of each state's highest court of the proposed change, with a link to the judiciary's rulemaking website; and
- (2) provide copies of the proposed change to legal-publishing firms with a request to timely include it in publications.
- (b) Public Comment Period

A public comment period on the proposed change must extend for at least six months after notice is published in the Federal Register, unless a shorter period is approved under paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Hearings

The advisory committee must conduct public hearings on the proposed change unless eliminating them is approved under paragraph (d) of this section or not enough witnesses ask to testify at a particular hearing. The hearings are held at the times and places that the advisory committee's chair determines. Notice of the times and places must be published in the Federal Register and on the judiciary's rulemaking website. The hearings must be recorded. Whenever possible, a transcript should be produced by a qualified court reporter.

(d) Expedited Procedures

The Standing Committee may shorten the public comment period or eliminate public hearings if it determines that the administration of justice requires a proposed rule change to be expedited and that appropriate notice to the public can still be provided and public comment obtained. The Standing Committee may also eliminate public notice and comment for a technical or conforming amendment if the Committee determines that they are unnecessary. When an exception is made, the chair must advise the Judicial Conference and provide the reasons.

§ 440.20.50 Procedures After the Comment Period

(a) Summary of Comments

When the public comment period ends, the reporter must prepare a summary of the written comments received and of the testimony presented at public hearings. If the number of comments is very large, the reporter may summarize and aggregate similar individual comments, identifying the source of each one. (b) Advisory Committee Review; Republication

The advisory committee reviews the proposed change in light of any comments and testimony. If the advisory committee makes substantial changes, the proposed rule should be republished for an additional period of public comment unless the advisory committee determines that republication would not be necessary to achieve adequate public comment and would not assist the work of the rules committees.

(c) Submission to the Standing Committee

The advisory committee submits to the Standing Committee the proposed change and committee note that it recommends for approval. Each submission must:

- (1) be accompanied by a separate report of the comments received;
- (2) explain the changes made after the original publication; and
- (3) include an explanation of competing considerations examined by the advisory committee.

§ 440.20.60 Preparing Minutes and Maintaining Records

(a) Minutes of Meetings

The advisory committee's chair arranges for preparing the minutes of the committee meetings.

(b) Records

The advisory committee's records consist of:

- written suggestions received from the public;
- written comments received from the public on drafts of proposed rules;
- the committee's responses to public suggestions and comments;
- other correspondence with the public about proposed rule changes;
- electronic recordings and transcripts of public hearings (when prepared);
- the reporter's summaries of public comments and of testimony from public hearings;
- agenda books and materials prepared for committee meetings;
- minutes of committee meetings;

- approved drafts of rule changes; and
- reports to the Standing Committee.
- (c) Public Access to Records

The records must be posted on the judiciary's rulemaking website, except for general public correspondence about proposed rule changes and electronic recordings of hearings when transcripts are prepared. This correspondence and archived records are maintained by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and are available for public inspection. Minutes of a closed meeting may be made available to the public but with any deletions necessary to avoid frustrating the purpose of closing the meeting under § 440.20.30(a).

§ 440.30 Standing Committee

§ 440.30.10 Functions

The Standing Committee's functions include:

- (a) coordinating the work of the advisory committees;
- (b) suggesting proposals for them to study;
- (c) considering proposals they recommend for publication for public comment; and
- (d) for proposed rule changes that have completed that process, deciding whether to accept or modify the proposals and transmit them with its own recommendation to the Judicial Conference, recommit them to the advisory committee for further study and consideration, or reject them.

§ 440.30.20 Procedures

(a) Meetings

The Standing Committee meets at the times and places that the chair designates. Committee meetings must be open to the public, except when the Committee — in open session and with a majority present — determines that it is in the public interest to have all or part of the meeting closed and states the reason. Each meeting must be preceded by notice of the time and place, published in the Federal Register and on the judiciary's rulemaking website, sufficiently in advance to permit interested persons to attend.

(b) Attendance by the Advisory Committee Chairs and Reporters

The advisory committees' chairs and reporters should attend the Standing Committee meetings to present their committees' proposed rule changes and committee notes, to inform the Standing Committee about ongoing work, and to participate in the discussions.

(c) Action on Proposed Rule Changes or Committee Notes

The Standing Committee may accept, reject, or modify a proposed change or committee note, or may return the proposal to the advisory committee with instructions or recommendations.

(d) Transmission to the Judicial Conference

The Standing Committee must transmit to the Judicial Conference the proposed rule changes and committee notes that it approves, together with the advisory committee report. The Standing Committee's report includes its own recommendations and explains any changes that it made.

§ 440.30.30 Preparing Minutes and Maintaining Records

(a) Minutes of Meetings

The Secretary prepares minutes of Standing Committee meetings.

(b) Records

The Standing Committee's records consist of:

- the minutes of Standing Committee and advisory committee meetings;
- agenda books and materials prepared for Standing Committee meetings;
- reports to the Judicial Conference; and
- official correspondence about rule changes, including correspondence with advisory committee chairs.
- (c) Public Access to Records

The records must be posted on the judiciary's rulemaking website, except for official correspondence about rule changes. This correspondence and archived records are maintained by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and are available for public inspection. Minutes of a closed meeting may be made available to the public but with any deletions necessary to avoid frustrating the purpose of closing the meeting under § 440.30.20(a).
